And it was stated that earnings fell to be paid by Grove House Hotel, of Newmarket-road, Norwich (hereinafter called the employer) to the complainant.

And it was ordered that out of those earnings the employer should make payments in accordance with the schedule to the Maintenance Orders Act 1958 to the clerk of this Court for transmission to you.

And it was further ordered that for the purpose of calculating the said payments the normal deduction rate should be Two pounds a week and the protected earnings rate should be Three pounds ten shillings a week.

And the complainant now applies for the said attachment of earnings order to be discharged on the ground that the defendant has now left the country and has made no effort to claim the amounts due under the aforesaid order.

You are therefore hereby summoned to appear on Tuesday, the 1st day of October, 1968, at the hour of Ten-thirty in the forenoon, before the Magistrates' Court sitting at The Guildhall, Norwich, Norfolk, to answer to the said complaint.

Dated the 1st day of May, 1968.

first aforesaid.

IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NORWICH.

To Sonya Flossie Niesgoda.

COMPLAINT has this day been made by Victor Garrod, of Grove House Hotel, Newmarket-road, Norwich (hereinafter called the complainant), who states that by an order duly made on the 11th day of September, 1963, under the Affiliation Proceedings Act 1951, by the Magistrates' Court sitting at Guildhall, in the said City and County of Norwich the complainant was adjudged to be the putative father of a bastard child of which you were the mother and the complainant was ordered to pay the sum of Thirty shillings per week for the maintenance and education of the said child until the said child should attain the age of sixteen years, or if it should die under that age, until the date of its death, and it was also ordered that the complainant should pay the sum of Three pounds thirteen shillings and six pence for the costs incurred in obtaining the said order, and it was further ordered that the said sums should be paid by the complainant to the collecting officer of the Court therein mentioned.

And the complainant applies that the said order shall be varied by deleting the requirement that he should pay maintenance for the said child on the ground that the defendant has now left the country and has made no effort to claim the amounts due under the aforesaid order.

You are therefore hereby summoned to appear before the Magistrates' Court sitting at Guildhall, in the said City and County of Norwich, on Tuesday, the 1st day of October, 1968, at the hour of Ten-thirty in the forenoon, to answer the said complaint.
