State of Victoria.
MARINE BOARD OF VICTORIA.

NOTICE TO SHIPOWNERS, PILOTS, SHIPMASTERS, TUGMASTERS AND OTHERS CONCERNED.

Recommended Practice When Passing Bow Towlines Whilst Underway.

The Marine Board of Victoria strongly supports a recommendation of a recent Court of Marine Enquiry that in order to prevent misunderstanding on the part of the tug crews, to indicate to the tugmaster that those on the ship are ready to pass the towline and to speed up the operation of passing a bowline when the ship is underway, the eye of the tow-rope should be passed through the fairlead to be used and brought back on board in such a manner that it is clearly visible to those on the tug.

Tugmasters and crews should, however, bear in mind that conditions may be such that those in charge of the navigation of the ship may be unable to ensure that this recommendation has been carried out and should therefore contact the ship if any doubt exists.
