MOTOR CAR (AMENDMENT) ACT 1973, No. 8430.
DATE OF COMING INTO OPERATION.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria and its Dependencies in the Commonwealth of Australia, &c., &c., &c.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament of the State of Victoria passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of Her Majesty Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Australia, entitled the Motor Car (Amendment) Act 1973, No. 8430 it is amongst other things enacted that the several provisions of the said Act shall come into operation on a day or the respective days to be fixed by proclamation or successive proclamations of the Governor in Council published in the Government Gazette.

Now therefore I, the Governor of the State of Victoria in the Commonwealth of Australia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said State do by this my proclamation fix Wednesday the thirtieth day of January, One thousand nine hundred and seventy-four as the day on which Sections 8 and 9 of the said Motor Car (Amendment) Act 1973 No. 8430 shall come into operation.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the State of Victoria aforesaid, at Melbourne, this thirtieth day of January, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and seventy-four, and in the twenty-second year of the reign of Her Majesty Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Australia.

(L.S.)

ROHAN DELACOMBE.

By His Excellency's Command,

J. F. ROSSITER,
Chief Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The text notes that records should be kept for a minimum of seven years and should be accessible to authorized personnel at all times.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific requirements for record-keeping. It states that all transactions must be recorded in a clear and concise manner, using a standardized format. This includes recording the date, amount, and description of each transaction. The text also requires that records be kept in a secure and protected environment, with access restricted to authorized personnel only.

3. The third part of the document discusses the role of internal controls in ensuring the accuracy of records. It notes that internal controls should be designed to prevent errors and fraud, and to ensure that all transactions are properly recorded. The text emphasizes that internal controls should be regularly reviewed and updated to reflect changes in the business environment.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of training and education for all personnel involved in record-keeping. It states that all personnel should receive appropriate training and education to ensure that they are able to perform their duties accurately and efficiently. The text also notes that training should be ongoing and should be updated as needed.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of regular audits and reviews of records. It states that regular audits and reviews are essential for ensuring the accuracy and integrity of records. The text notes that audits should be conducted by independent personnel and should cover all areas of the financial system. The text also emphasizes that the results of audits should be used to identify and correct any errors or weaknesses in the record-keeping process.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of records. It states that records should be kept confidential and should not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel. The text notes that appropriate security measures should be implemented to protect records from unauthorized access, disclosure, or destruction. The text also emphasizes that personnel should be trained on the importance of confidentiality and should be held accountable for any breaches.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining the accuracy of records. It states that records should be kept accurate and should be updated as needed. The text notes that appropriate procedures should be implemented to ensure that records are kept accurate and that any errors are identified and corrected. The text also emphasizes that personnel should be trained on the importance of accuracy and should be held accountable for any errors.
