And whereas it is further provided in the Act that, for the purposes of the preparation of the said new electoral rolls, the Governor in Council may, by proclamation published in the Government Gazette, divide any Electoral Province or Electoral District into subdivisions and specify the boundaries and names of such subdivisions:

And whereas it is provided in The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1958 that each subdivision of an Electoral Province shall correspond both as to name and boundaries with a subdivision of an Electoral District.

Now therefore I, the Governor of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, do by this my Proclamation:—
