DEPARTMENT OF MINERALS AND ENERGY
POLICY STATEMENT BY THE HONOURABLE J. C. M. BALFOUR, MP, MINISTER FOR MINERALS AND ENERGY

On 6 May 1976 I issued a statement setting out in broad terms the Victorian Government's policy with regard to the exploration for and utilization of coal deposits within this State. In general terms this policy indicated that the grant of rights for exploration or production of coal would be restricted pending further evaluation of Victoria's coal resources.

This policy recognized the rights of International Oil Proprietary to continue investigation at Gelliondale where this company had a long-standing interest.

On 30 June 1977 the policy was amended so that the restriction on receipt of exploration applications would be applied to the Gippsland and South Gippsland areas only.

Since these policies were announced studies to determine the limits of economically winnable coal in Gippsland have been undertaken and finalized. As a matter of policy two areas containing approximately 18 000 million tonnes of coal at Yallourn, Morwell and Loy Yang have been reserved for State Electricity Commission of Victoria purposes. The balance of the area of known economically winnable coal which contains a similar quantity is to be reserved together with suitable buffer areas for other purposes including coal to oil conversion.

As all of this coal is now protected from unsatisfactory development under the various planning schemes administered by the respective municipalities it is no longer necessary to restrict coal exploration in other parts of Gippsland and the State in General.

Accordingly, the Victorian Government's coal policy is amended so that applications for exploration licences will be received for areas outside the limits of known economically winnable coal. (More specifically the following graticular blocks shown on the attached plan are not available for exploration—Melbourne 1827-1838, 1899-1910, 1971-1982, 2043-2045, 2050-2052, 2115-2116, 2121-2124, 2188-2194, 2260-2266, 2332-2338 and 2406-2408.)

As from the date of gazettal on 3 December 1980 I will be prepared to receive applications for coal exploration in graticular areas which are not listed above. All applications from established exploration companies will be considered on the basis of the exploration program submitted and the expenditure commitment proposed.

The Victorian Brown Coal Council will continue to advise the Victorian Government on development proposals for coal deposits in non-SEC areas.
