In the Supreme Court of Victoria—1980 Co. No. 11199—In the matter of the Companies Act 1961; and in the matter of AMAD N.L.

Notice is hereby given that the Supreme Court of Victoria did on Thursday, 6 March 1980 confirm the reduction of the capital of Amad N.L. in accordance with the following Special Resolution passed by a Meeting of the members of Amad N.L. on 17 January 1980:—

"That the issued capital and the share premium account of the Company be reduced from a total of $6 124 000 (comprising issued capital of $1 440 000 and share premium account of $4 684 000) to $576 000 by distributing to the members of the Company two hundred and forty-six (246) shares in Petroleum Securities Australia Limited for every one hundred (100) shares in the Company held by such members and that such reduction be debited as to $4 356 000 against the amount standing to the credit of the share premium account and as to $864 000 by reducing the amount of the issued capital from $1 440 000 to $576 000 divided into 2 880 000 shares of 20 cents each fully paid and by writing off $328 000 from the share premium account. So often as the said distribution in specie would, apart from this qualification, entitle any member of the Company to a fraction of or a fractional interest in one share in Petroleum Securities Australia Limited then, the number of shares in Petroleum Securities Australia Limited which represent the total of all such fractions shall be transferred to a person to be nominated by the Directors upon trust to sell the same and to pay the net proceeds of such sale to the members of the company in proportion to the fractions of one share in Petroleum Securities Australia Limited that each would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

The amount of the share capital of Amad N.L. as altered by the Order is $2 136 000 divided into 2 880 000 ordinary shares of 20 cents each and 3 120 000 unclassified ordinary shares of 50 cents each of which all of the 2 880 000 ordinary shares of 20 cents each have been issued and are fully paid up and the said unclassified ordinary shares are all unissued.
