Community Welfare Services Act 1970

POLICE GAOLS

Whereas it is provided in section 115 of the Community Welfare Services Act 1970 that whenever it appears to the Director-General after consultation with the Chief Commissioner of Police to be necessary to do so, the Director-General may recommend to the Minister that a lock up is fit for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the term the Director-General thinks fit and specifies in his recommendation.

And whereas it is further provided in the said section that upon receiving any such recommendation the Minister may, by notice published in the Government Gazette, proclaim any police lock up so recommended to be a "police gaol" for the reception of prisoners for any term up to the specified but not exceeding in any case thirty days;

And whereas it is further provided in the said section 115 that the Minister may from time to time by notice in the Government Gazette revoke or vary any proclamation under this section;

And whereas by proclamation published in the Government Gazette on 21 January 1970, certain police lock ups were proclaimed to be police gaols for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for terms not exceeding the term of imprisonment specified in the notice;

And whereas the proclamation notice of which was published in the Government Gazette on 21 January 1970 has been further varied by proclamations notices of which were published in the Government Gazette on 9 December 1970; 23 August 1972; 1 August 1973; 13 February 1974; 8 January 1975; 5 April 1978; 29 November 1978; 5 January 1979 and 15 October 1980.

And whereas the Director-General after consultation with the Chief Commissioner of Police has made recommendations pursuant to the said section 115 of the said Act.

Now therefore I, the Minister of Community Welfare Services in the State of Victoria in pursuance of the powers conferred by section 115 of the Community Welfare Services Act 1970 do by this notice further vary the proclamation notice of which was published in the Government Gazette on 21 January 1970 and varied by subsequent proclamation as aforesaid by proclaiming as from and inclusive of the date of publication of this notice in the Government Gazette the following lock ups referred to in the Schedule hereunder to be police gaols for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three days.
