No. 27—Monday, 21 April 1986

Community Welfare Services Act 1970

NOTICE

POLICE GAOLS

Whereas it is provided in section 115 of the Community Welfare Services Act 1970 that whenever it appears to the Director-General of Corrections after consultation with the Chief Commissioner of Police to be necessary to do so, the Director-General may recommend to the Minister that a lock up is fit for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the term the Director-General thinks fit and specifies in his recommendation;

And whereas it is further provided in the said section that upon receiving any such recommendation the Minister may by notice published in the Government Gazette, proclaim any police lock up so recommended to be a "police gaol" for the reception of prisoners for any term up to the term specified but not exceeding in any case thirty days;

And whereas it is further provided in the said section 115 that the Minister may from time to time by notice in the Government Gazette revoke or vary any proclamation under this section;

And whereas by notice published in the Government Gazette on 15 October 1980, certain police lockups were proclaimed to be police gaols for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for terms not exceeding the terms specified in the notice;

And whereas the aforementioned notice of 15 October 1980, has been further varied by notice published in the Government Gazette of 18 October 1984.

And whereas the Director-General after consultation with the Chief Commissioner has recommended that the abovementioned notices be further varied.

Now therefore I, the Attorney-General in the State of Victoria in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Community Welfare Services Act 1970 do by this notice further vary the notice published in the Government Gazette on 15 October, 1980 and varied by subsequent proclamation as aforesaid by substituting this notice—

- (a) proclaiming the lock ups referred to in Schedule One hereunder to be police gaols for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one day;
- (b) proclaiming the lock ups referred to in Schedule Two hereunder to be police gaols for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two days;
- (c) proclaiming the lock ups referred to in Schedule Three hereunder to be police gaols for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three days;
- (d) proclaiming the lock ups referred to in Schedule Four hereunder to be police gaols for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five days;
- (e) proclaiming the lock ups referred to in Schedule Five hereunder to be police gaols for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven days;
- (f) proclaiming the lock ups referred to in Schedule Six hereunder to be police gaols for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding fourteen days and;
- (g) proclaiming the lock ups referred to in Schedule Seven hereunder to be police gaols for the reception of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty days.
