Under the powers found in section 4F (1) (a) (ii) of the Parliamentary Committees Act 1968, the Governor in Council refers the following matter to the Social Development Committee:

To inquire into, consider and report to Parliament on strategies to deal with the issue of community violence. In particular the Committee is to examine:

1. Strategies which can be employed by the community to reduce the level of violent behaviour. In that regard, the Committee is requested to develop strategies:

- (a) relevant to the activities of community support groups and voluntary crisis intervention and counselling services; and
- (b) which have as a particular focus the situation of children and young people and the problem of family violence.

2. The portrayal of violent behaviour in the mass media and entertainment industries, and to review existing codes of practice for the reporting of violent crime in the mass media.

3. The composition, function and objectives for the proposed community council against violence.

The Committee is to submit:

(a) by 1 March 1988 a report which makes final recommendations on item 3 and a preliminary report on items 1 and 2.

(b) by 1 July 1988 its final report.
