SOLICITORS' (AUDIT AND PRACTISING CERTIFICATES) RULES 1988

In the pursuance of the powers conferred by the Legal Profession Practice Act 1958 and all other powers thereunto enabling the Council of the Law Institute of Victoria hereby makes the following Rules:

Part 1—Preliminary

1. These Rules may be cited as the Solicitors' (Audit and Practising Certificates) Rules 1988 and shall come into operation on the date of their publication in the Government Gazette.

2. The Solicitors' (Audit and Practising Certificates) Rules 1985 and all Rules amending those Rules are hereby repealed—

3. (1) In these Rules, unless inconsistent with the context or subject matter—

"Act" means the Legal Profession Practice Act 1958.

"Audit date" means 31 March.

"Auditor" means—

(a) a practising public accountant; or

(b) a competent accountant or other competent person approved by the Council pursuant to section 81, employed by a solicitor, or appointed by the Council, to make an examination or audit of a solicitor's trust accounts.

"Form" means a form in the Schedule.

"Notify" means notify in writing.

"Section" means section of the Act.

"Solicitor" has the same meaning as in section 15 (1).

"Trust bank account" means an account at a bank into which trust money is, or is required by law, to be paid.

(2) A reference in these Rules to money received by a solicitor includes a reference to money received in the course of, or in connexion with, the practice of that solicitor by—

(a) any partner of that solicitor;

(b) any of the clerks or servants of that solicitor or that solicitor's firm; or

(c) any practitioner with whom that solicitor or that solicitor's firm shares remuneration for any business.

Part 2—Notification Relating to Practice

4. Any practitioner who or incorporated practitioner which commences or recommences to practise as a solicitor as defined in paragraph (b) of the definition of solicitor in section 51 (1) of the Act, shall notify the Council within 14 days of the commencement or recommencement;

(a) whether the solicitor practises solely on the solicitor's own account or in partnership, or as an employee, or as a

1718 G 22 15 June 1988

- director, shareholder or participating employee of an incorporated practitioner;
- (b) if the solicitor practises on the solicitor's own account or in partnership, the name or firm name under which the solicitor practises;
 - (c) if the solicitor practises in partnership, the name of any partner;
 - (d) if the solicitor practises as an employee, the name of the solicitor's employer;
 - (e) if the solicitor is a director, shareholder or participating employee of an incorporated practitioner, the name of the incorporated practitioner and of other directors, shareholders and participating employees of the incorporated practitioner;
 - (f) the address or addresses at which the solicitor practises and in the case of an incorporated practitioner, its registered office and in the case of any other solicitor, the solicitor's residential address; and
 - (g) the solicitor's telephone, facsimile, telex and document exchange numbers.

5. If any of the information required by Rule 4 to be notified to the Council changes the solicitor shall notify the Council of details of the change within 14 days of the change occurring.

6. The legal personal representative of a solicitor who dies or the receiver, receiver and manager or liquidator of an incorporated practitioner shall notify the Council within 14 days of the grant of probate or letters of administration or appointment as receiver, receiver and manager or liquidator as the case may be.

Part 3—Employment of Auditors

7. (1) Subject to the Act and these Rules, a solicitor who receives trust money shall, within one month after first receiving any trust money, appoint an auditor to audit the solicitor's trust accounts.

(2) The Council may require a solicitor to terminate the appointment of an auditor if the Council is of the opinion that for any reason the auditor may not properly perform his duties, but the solicitor and the auditor shall first be given an opportunity to show cause why the Council should not require the appointment to be terminated.

(3) A person shall not, without the prior written approval of the Council, be appointed or continue as an auditor of a solicitor's trust accounts if he carries out work for that solicitor, other than—

- (a) the auditing of any other accounts maintained by that solicitor on the solicitor's own behalf or on behalf of other persons in connexion with the solicitor's practice; and

- (b) advisory or consulting duties consequential upon his function as an auditor, which may include the preparation of income tax returns for the solicitor in the solicitor's private capacity.

8. Unless the Council otherwise resolves in respect to any particular circumstance, an auditor is not qualified to audit any of the trust accounts of a solicitor if—

- (a) he is, or at any time within two years before his appointment has been, engaged in keeping any of those trust accounts;
- (b) a member of any firm of which he is a member is, or within two years before his appointment has been, engaged in keeping any of those trust accounts;
- (c) a member of his staff is engaged in keeping any of those trust accounts;
- (d) he is, or at any time within two years before his appointment has been, a clerk, servant or partner of the solicitor;
- (e) he is a person closely related to the solicitor by blood or marriage;
- (f) he is a solicitor in practice on his own account or in partnership; or
- (g) he is a clerk, servant or partner of another solicitor.

9. (1) A solicitor who appoints an auditor to audit the solicitor's trust accounts shall, within 14 days after that appointment—

- (a) notify the Council of the appointment; and
- (b) deposit with the Council the written consent of the auditor in or to the effect of Form 18.

(2) An auditor who ceases for any reason to be employed, or to be qualified, to audit the trust accounts of a solicitor shall notify the Council within 14 days after that cessation.

10. (1) A solicitor shall not cease to employ an auditor with a view to engaging another auditor unless the solicitor first satisfies the Council, by such evidence as the Council requires in that particular case, that it is reasonable in the circumstances to do so.

(2) Sub-rule (1) does not apply where an auditor resigns, dies, retires from practice or ceases to be qualified to audit the solicitor's trust accounts.

(3) Where—

- (a) an auditor resigns, dies, retires from practice or ceases to be qualified to audit a solicitor's trust accounts; or
- (b) the employment of an auditor by a solicitor otherwise ceases, the solicitor shall appoint another auditor in his place within one month after that resignation, death, retirement or cessation, as the case may be.

Part 4—Requirements of an Audit

11. A solicitor who receives trust money shall cause the solicitor's trust accounts to be audited, and an auditor appointed to audit the trust accounts of that solicitor shall conduct the audit, in the manner prescribed by—

- (a) the Act and these Rules; and
- (b) in so far as they apply, the Statement of Auditing Standards and Statements of Auditing Practice issued jointly by the Australian Society of Accountants and the Institute of Chartered Accountants.

12. (1) In carrying out an audit under the Act, other than an audit under section 74, an auditor shall—

- (a) ascertain whether any trust bank accounts were kept by the solicitor during the period covered by the audit;
- (b) make test examinations of those trust bank accounts and any statements relating thereto during that period;
- (c) make test examinations of trust securities and investments and of the registers referred to in Rule 27;
- (d) make a comparison as at two or more days (one to be the audit date and the other or others to be a date or dates during the period covered by the audit selected by the auditor without notice to the solicitor) between—

- (i) the liabilities of the solicitor to the solicitor's clients and to other persons in connexion with the solicitor's practice as a solicitor as shown by the solicitor's trust accounts; and
- (ii) the balance standing to the credit of the solicitor's trust bank accounts; and

(e) make such checks and examine such number of files representative of every part of the solicitor's practice as the auditor considers reasonable in the circumstances, to enable the auditor to express an opinion as to whether the solicitor has complied with the requirements of the Act and those Rules during the period covered by the audit.

(2) On or within 14 days after the date or dates selected by the auditor for the making of the comparison referred to in paragraph (1) (d), the auditor shall, without notice to the solicitor, visit the solicitor's principal place of business and there examine the trust accounts and the books and papers relating thereto.

13. (1) An auditor shall report to the Council forthwith if at any time he—

- (a) considers that any trust accounting records of a solicitor are not being kept in such a manner as to enable them to be conveniently and properly audited;
- (b) becomes aware of a loss or deficiency of trust money or a failure by a solicitor to pay or account for any trust money;
- (c) becomes aware of any failure by a solicitor to comply with any of the provisions of the Act or these Rules; or
- (d) considers any other matter arising in the course of an audit should be communicated to the Council.

(2) A report of a loss or deficiency under this Rule shall provide at least the following information—

- (a) the date on which it occurred;
- (b) the amount;
- (c) how it occurred; and
- (d) the date and manner of any restoration.

14. (1) Upon completion of the audit of a solicitor's trust accounts and not later than four months after the audit date, the auditor shall—

- (a) sign a certificate in or to the effect of the certificate in Form 1;
- (b) sign a report in or to the effect of Form 2;
- (c) lodge the originals thereof with the Secretary; and
- (d) forward signed copies thereof to the solicitor.

(2) The auditor's lodging of the report and certificate with the Secretary shall be deemed to be a lodging thereof by the solicitor.

(3) Where two or more solicitors practice in partnership, it is sufficient compliance with this Rule in respect of each of them if one audit report is lodged with the Secretary—

- (a) naming each solicitor individually; and
- (b) covering not only the trust accounts of the partnership but also the trust accounts of the individual solicitors concerned.

(4) It shall be sufficient compliance with this Rule in the case of an incorporated practitioner if one audit report is lodged with the Secretary—

- (a) naming all directors, shareholders and participating employees individually; and
- (b) covering not only the trust accounts of the incorporated practitioner but also the trust accounts of the individual directors, shareholders and participating employees concerned.

15. The auditor's report on a solicitor's trust accounts for any year shall, at all times at which the office of the Institute is open for business, be available there for inspection by the auditor appointed to audit that solicitor's trust accounts for the next succeeding year.

Part 5—Special Duties of Solicitors

16. A solicitor who receives trust money shall upon reasonable request of a client during the course of or after the completion of a matter furnish to the client within a reasonable time after receiving such request a statement of account showing therein, or by reference to another statement of account, particulars of all trust moneys in connexion with the matter—

- (a) received by the solicitor from the client;
- (b) received by the solicitor from any other person;
- (c) disbursed by the solicitor; and
- (d) remaining undisbursed.

17. A solicitor may apply trust money for the solicitor's own use if, but only if, the solicitor applies that money—

- (a) by way of re-imbusement of money already paid by the solicitor on behalf of the relevant client; or
- (b) for or towards payment of the solicitor's costs for work which has been performed for that client and details of such costs, together with a statement of account showing the particulars referred to in Rule 16, have been posted or personally handed to that client no later than the day upon which the solicitor applies that money.

18. (1) Unless exempted by the Council pursuant to Rule 51, within two months of a solicitor retiring from a partnership or as a director, shareholder or participating employee of an incorporated practitioner or the cessation of a company from being an incorporated practitioner, all solicitors who were partners in the partnership or directors, shareholders or participating employees in the incorporated practitioner at the time of the retirement, shall cause their trust accounts to be audited and reported upon according to the Act and these Rules for the period beginning on 1 April immediately preceding the date of retirement or cessation and ending on the date of the retirement or cessation.

(2) The provisions of the Act and these Rules apply to an audit pursuant to Rule 18 (1) except that the date of retirement or cessation shall substitute for the audit date.

19. All trust accounts of a solicitor shall be kept by the solicitor in such a manner as to disclose to the solicitor's auditor the true position of the funds recorded therein and to enable them to be conveniently and properly audited.

20. A solicitor shall forthwith notify the solicitor's auditor upon a loss or deficiency occurring in any of the solicitor's trust accounts.

Victoria Government Gazette

21. Where a solicitor who has ceased to practise, or the personal representative of a solicitor who has died, or a receiver, or receiver and manager or liquidator of an incorporated practitioner is required by section 81A to cause to be lodged with the Secretary a statutory declaration in the prescribed form, that declaration shall be in or to the effect of Form 15, 16 or 17 as the case may require.

22. Where during the year ending on the preceding audit date, a solicitor who has practised in the terms of paragraph (a) of the definition of section 51 (1) has not held or received any trust money, that solicitor shall, not later than 21 April following, or within such extended time as the Council considers reasonable, deliver to the Secretary a Statutory Declaration in or to the effect of Form 3.

23. (1) Except where a Statutory Declaration under rule 21 or 22 has been delivered to the Secretary in respect of the year ending on the preceding audit date a solicitor or the solicitor's personal representative or receiver, receiver and manager or liquidator of an incorporated practitioner shall, not later than one month after the audit date, prepare, certify and sign a statement in quadruplicate in or to the effect of Form 1 setting forth in detail, as at that audit date—

- (a) the total of all trust money held by the solicitor, including any amount standing on deposit with the Institute in accordance with section 40;
- (b) the names of the trust bank accounts in which that trust money was lodged, the balance of those bank accounts and, where the bank balances were not in agreement with the solicitors cash book balance, a statement reconciling those balances;
- (c) the names of all persons on whose behalf the solicitor was holding money in the solicitor's trust bank accounts and the amount to the credit of each such person;
- (d) a list showing in respect of each ledger account balance which has remained unchanged during the preceding period of 12 months, the date of the last transaction and the reasons why no change has taken place; and
- (e) all current investments and securities contained in the Register of Investments and Securities pursuant to Rule 25; and
- (f) all current mortgages contained in the Mortgage Register pursuant to the Mortgage Register and Nominee Company Rules 1977 and shall deliver the original and one signed copy of that statement to the solicitor's auditor and another signed copy to the Secretary.

(2) Where two or more solicitors practise in partnership or as directors, shareholders or participating employees of an incorporated practitioner, it is sufficient compliance with this Rule in respect of each of them if—

- (a) the statement contains—
 - (i) particulars of the whole of the trust accounts of the firm or the incorporated practitioner; and
 - (ii) separate particulars of any trust money of which any of those solicitors is a trustee apart from the solicitor's partner or partners or the incorporated practitioner; and
- (b) the certificate in the statement is signed by each solicitor individually or where the solicitors have unanimously resolved to be bound by the signature of one of them, by that solicitor and by the auditor in respect of each of them.

24. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2), a solicitor shall not pay to the credit of an interest bearing account or deposit any trust moneys held by the solicitor for more than one person.

(2) The provisions of sub-rule (1) shall not apply where—

- (a) a solicitor pays to the credit of an interest-bearing account or deposit any trust moneys held by the solicitor for two or more persons and has the written authority of those persons to do so; and
- (b) the Council has determined, in respect of that interest-bearing account or deposit or interest-bearing deposits of a class which includes that interest bearing account or deposit, that satisfactory arrangements exist to ascertain, at any time, the respective entitlements of those persons to the moneys to the credit of that account or deposit, and to the interest on those moneys.

(3) For the purposes of this rule, trust moneys held by a solicitor for two or more persons jointly shall be deemed to be held by the solicitor for one person.

25. (1) A solicitor shall keep a Register of Investments and Securities recording all investments and securities (other than securities required to be entered into the Mortgage Register pursuant to the Mortgage Register and Nominee Company Rules 1977) held by the solicitor, or over which the solicitor, the solicitor's firm, a Solicitor's Nominee Company (as defined in the Mortgage Register and Nominee Rules 1977) of which the solicitor is a director or an incorporated practitioner of which the solicitor is a director, shareholder or participating employee has or may exercise exclusive control, for or on behalf of or in trust for other persons.

(2) The Register shall include the following particulars—

- (a) the name of the person for whom the security is held or the investment is made;
- (b) the date upon which the security was received or the investment was made;
- (c) the amount of the security or investment;
- (d) the rate of interest and interest received;
- (e) details (including the cheque book number or other means of identification) of the payment whereby the investment was made;
- (f) the description of the security or investment;
- (g) the date on which the security was delivered or the investment was redeemed; and
- (h) details of disposal of the security or redemption of the investment.

(3) Each of the particulars mentioned in sub-rule (2) shall be entered in the Register as soon as possible.

26. (1) Where a solicitor receives any trust money and does not forthwith pay it into a trust bank account, the solicitor shall forthwith—

- (a) if the money is in the form of cash, pay the money in cash to the client or other person due to receive it and obtain and retain a proper receipt for it; and
- (b) if the money is in the form of a cheque or draft—
 - (i) where the cheque or draft is payable to the solicitor, properly endorse it; and
 - (ii) transmit it or hand it over to the client or other person due to receive it; and
- (c) make the following entries in a trust ledger account for the matter in respect of which that money was received and a Transit Register kept for that purpose—
 - (i) in the trust ledger—

- (A) the date on which the money was received;
- (B) from whom the money was received;
- (C) the amount received (which may be recorded in the narration column only);
- (D) the identity of the person to whom the money was paid;
- (E) the date on which the money was paid; and

(ii) in the Transit Register—

- (A) the date on which the money was received;
- (B) the name of the client and sufficient particulars to identify the matter in respect of which the money was received;
- (C) from whom the money was received;
- (D) whether the money was in the form of cash, a cheque or draft;
- (E) in the case of a cheque or draft, the name of the drawer;
- (F) the amount received;
- (G) brief particulars sufficient to identify the relevant transaction and any purpose for which the money was received;
- (H) the identity of the person to whom the money was paid; and
- (I) the date on which the money was paid.

(2) In this Rule "Transit Register" means any book or other record established for the recording of the information required by sub-rule (1) (c) (ii) whether or not that book or other record is established solely for that purpose.

(3) Transactions to which this Rule applies are not subject to Rule 30 or 31.

27. The Register of Investments and Securities, Mortgage Register and Transit Register form part of a solicitor's trust accounts within the meaning of Rule 11 and are subject to audit accordingly.

28. A solicitor shall notify the solicitor's auditor within 14 days after the opening of any new trust bank account.

29. A solicitor shall, at the end of every month, prepare a statement reconciling—

- (a) the balance in the solicitor's trust bank accounts with the solicitor's cash books; and
- (b) the balances in the solicitor's trust ledgers (identified by name or code number) with the balance of the solicitor's trust cash books, and shall retain the statement in an appropriate book.

Part 6 — Trust Records

30. A solicitor shall, for each sum of trust money received by the solicitor, forthwith write a numbered receipt identified as the solicitor's trust account receipt and specifying—

- (a) the date the money was received;
- (b) from whom the money was received;
- (c) whether the receipt was by cash, cheque or draft;

- (d) in the case of a cheque or draft, the name of the drawer;
- (e) the amount of the receipt;
- (f) the person for whose benefit the money was received; and
- (g) brief particulars sufficient to identify the relevant transaction and any purpose for which the money was received, and shall retain a legible duplicate identically numbered with the original in proper sequence and in a secure manner.

31. A solicitor shall, for each sum of trust money paid by the solicitor, complete the cheque duplicate or butt in relation to that payment specifying—

- (a) the date of the payment;
- (b) to whom the cheque is made payable and, in the case of a bank cheque, the name of the person entitled to the proceeds;
- (c) the amount of the payment;
- (d) the trust ledger account to which the payment is to be debited; and
- (e) brief particulars sufficient to identify the relevant transaction and the purpose for which the money was paid, and shall retain the cheque duplicate or butt in proper sequence and in a secure manner.

32. (1) A trust account cheque shall not be made payable to cash.

(2) All trust account cheques shall be crossed generally or specifically and marked "not negotiable".

33. Sufficient details shall be entered in the Cash Receipts Journal or backing sheet and also in the Cash Payments Journal or backing sheet to enable adequate details of the transactions to be posted into the trust ledger account.

34. A solicitor shall authorise in writing each transfer of money from one trust ledger account to another trust ledger account, and shall enter in a journal at least the following information—

- (a) the date of the transfer;
- (b) the trust ledger account from which the money is transferred;
- (c) the trust ledger account to which the money is transferred;
- (d) the amount transferred; and
- (e) the purpose of the transfer, and shall retain those journal entries in proper sequence and in a secure manner.

35. (1) A separate ledger account shall be opened in the name of each client for each matter to be conducted on behalf of that client and shall contain—

- (a) the name and address of the client;

(b) the name of any other party or other sufficient particulars to identify the matter; and

(c) a brief description of the nature of the matter.

(2) Sufficient details shall be posted into the trust ledger to enable the nature of the transactions to be clearly understood and shall include at least the following information—

(a) the date of each transaction;

(b) the name of the person from whom the moneys were received or to whom they were paid;

(c) the purpose of the receipt or payment;

(d) the amount received or paid;

(e) the cheque number, receipt number or transfer journal folio number; and

(f) the balance after each entry.

36. Trust account records shall be retained for not less than the following periods from the date of the final entry—

(a) trust ledger accounts—15 years;

(b) cash books and journals—7 years;

(c) copy of receipts issued—7 years;

(d) cheque duplicates or butts—7 years;

(e) bank statements—7 years;

(f) files relating to trust transactions or a microfilm of those files if the microfilm is made in accordance with a system approved by the Council—7 years; and

(g) all registers—7 years.

37. Whenever an auditor so requires in the course of or for the purpose of an audit or examination of a solicitor's trust accounts, the solicitor shall produce to the auditor all books of receipts used and unused supplied to the solicitor.

38. A solicitor, not being an incorporated practitioner, engaged in practice on the solicitor's own behalf and not in partnership who ceases to carry on the solicitor's practice shall forthwith destroy any unused trust account receipt forms in the solicitor's possession.

39. The legal personal representative of a solicitor who dies whilst engaged in practice on the solicitor's own behalf and not in partnership shall as soon as possible take charge of any unused trust account receipt forms and forthwith destroy them.

Part 7—Annual Practising Certificates

40. An application for a practising certificate shall be in or to the effect of Form 4, 5, 6, 7 or 8 as the case requires.

41. (1) Subject to sub-rule (2), the practising fee to be paid upon the lodging of an application for a practising certificate for the year 1988 and each subsequent year shall be—

(a) $415 in the case of an application for a practising certificate to be issued to a solicitor who intends to practise as a solicitor on the solicitor's own account or in partnership with another solicitor or as a director, shareholder or participating employee of an incorporated practitioner or upon terms of sharing remuneration for any business with another practitioner;

(b) $245 in the case of an application for a practising certificate to be issued to a solicitor who intends to practise as an employee of another solicitor and not otherwise; and

(c) $245 in the case of an application for a practising certificate to be issued to a solicitor who—

(i) intends to be employed by a person other than a solicitor within the meaning of the Act and in the course of that employment to do any legal work for his employer; but

(ii) does not intend to practise as an employee of another solicitor.

(d) $50 in the case of an application for a practising certificate to be issued to an incorporated practitioner.

(2) A member of the Institute who has paid his subscription to the Institute for the year to which or any part of which the practising certificate if issued would relate need not pay a fee under sub-rule (1).

(3) The practising fee payable in accordance with this Rule shall be paid to the Secretary of the Institute on lodging the application to which it relates.

42. The declaration to be lodged with the Secretary pursuant to section 82 by a solicitor who or an incorporated practitioner which has not previously practised as a solicitor or who, having previously so practised, is not so practising at the time of the application shall be in or to the effect of Form 9.

43. (1) A practising certificate issued to a solicitor who intends to practise as a solicitor on the solicitor's own account or in partnership with another solicitor or as a director, shareholder or participating employee of an incorporated practitioner or upon terms of sharing remuneration for any business with another practitioner shall be in or to the effect of Form 10.

(2) A practising certificate issued to a solicitor who intends to practise as an employee of another solicitor and not otherwise shall be in or to the effect of Form 11.

(3) A practising certificate issued to a solicitor who—

- (a) intends to be employed by a person other than a solicitor within the meaning of the Act and in the course of that employment to do any legal work for his employer; but
- (b) does not intend to practise as an employee of another solicitor, shall be in or to the effect of Form 12.

(4) A practising certificate issued to an incorporated practitioner shall be in or to the effect of Form 13.

(5) The Notice to be lodged with the Court by a practitioner who intends to appeal to the Court pursuant to section 87 shall be in or to the effect of Form 14.

Part 8—Rights of Solicitors Holding Corporate Practising Certificates

44. A solicitor holding a Corporate Practising Certificate may perform any legal work on behalf of the solicitor's employer (not being a solicitor) that a solicitor holding a Full Practising Certificate may perform and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may—

- (a) appear as a solicitor on the record in any legal proceedings to which the solicitor's employer is a party;
- (b) on behalf of the solicitor's employer charge and recover from any other person any costs that the solicitor would be able to recover if the solicitor held a Full Practising Certificate; and
- (c) perform any legal work on behalf of any person who is an employee, director or office-bearer of the solicitor's employer where that legal work is directly related to the business of the solicitor's employer but such work shall not include conveyancing performed on behalf of an employee who is being transferred from one location to another by the employer or work of a similar personal nature unless the Council has previously in its unfettered discretion entered into an agreement in or to the effect of Form 19 of the Schedule to these Rules.

45. A solicitor holding a Corporate Practising Certificate may not receive or hold trust money.

46. Where a solicitor is employed by a corporation for the purposes of Rule 44 the expression "employer" includes any corporation—

- (a) which is related within the meaning of section 7 (5) of the Companies (Victoria) Code to the corporation by which the solicitor is employed; or
- (b) for which the corporation by which the solicitor is employed has agreed to provide or procure legal services or general management services and of which the last-mentioned corporation, or a corporation which is related within the meaning of section 7 (5) of the Companies (Victoria) Code to the last-mentioned corporation, is a share holder; or

- (c) which is involved in a joint venture with—
 - (i) the corporation by which the solicitor is employed; or
 - (ii) a corporation of the type described in paragraph (a); or
 - (iii) a corporation of the type described in paragraph (b);

if the corporation by which the solicitor is employed has agreed to provide or procure legal services or general management services for that joint venture.

Part 9—Incorporated Practitioners

47. The fees to be paid to the Institute for approval of memorandum and articles of association of a company or proposed company which is intended to become an incorporated practitioner shall be—

- (a) in the case of memorandum and articles of association purchased from the Institute by a firm of solicitors—
 - (i) for the first memorandum and articles of association submitted by that firm for the use of the firm or any of its partners (but not a client of the firm)—$50; and
 - (ii) for any subsequent memorandum and articles of association submitted for the use of the firm or any of its partners (but not a client of the firm)—$150; and
- (b) in any other case—$230.

48. The fees to be paid to the Institute for approving any alteration to the memorandum and articles of association of an incorporated practitioner shall be $70.

49. Any application to the Council for approval pursuant to Rules 47 or 48 shall be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration in or to the effect of Form 20.

Part 10—Notices and Forms

50. (1) A notice for the purposes of these Rules shall be in writing and signed by the person giving it.

(2) Any such notice to be given by a firm of solicitors may be signed by any member of the firm.

(3) Any such notice to be given by an incorporated practitioner may be signed by any director who is a solicitor.

- (4) Any such notice may be given—
- (a) by personally serving it on the Secretary or the solicitor or any member of the firm of solicitors or, in the case of an incorporated practitioner, on any director, shareholder or participating employee of the incorporated practitioner to whom it is addressed, as the case requires;
- (b) by sending it by post to the Secretary addressed to him at the office of the Institute or to the solicitor or firm of solicitors to whom it is addressed at the solicitor's or the firm's principal place of business or in the case of an incorporated practitioner at its registered office; or
- (c) by leaving it with any person apparently of or over the age of 16 years at the office of the Institute or the principal place of business of the solicitor or firm of solicitors to whom it is addressed.
51. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, the Council may—
- (a) exempt a solicitor from complying with any of the provisions of these Rules subject to such conditions as the Council may impose; and
- (b) at any time vary those conditions or revoke that exemption.
- (2) Where a solicitor applies to be exempted from complying with any of the provisions of these Rules, the Council may require that solicitor to furnish to it such information relating to the application as it may require.

Award Variation

Victorian Textile Industry Award

Following the State Wage Case Decision of April 1987, The Amalgamated Footwear and Textile Workers Union of Australia hereby gives notice that it wishes the Decision and Orders of The Australian Conciliation and Arbitration Commission (Deputy President Riordan) of 29 May 1988 (Print H.2176) and 27 May 1988 (Print H.2808) in relation to Second Tier Wage increases made under the Restructuring and Efficiency Principle and the Supplementary Payments Principle to the Federal Textile Industry Award 1981, flow on to the Victorian Textile Industry Award.

The Union wishes to pursue an industry approach to its Second Tier Claim, however, it recognises that some employers may be in the process of negotiating with their employees productivity and efficiency agreements in return for a 4 per cent wage increase. Any such agreement should be referred to the Textile Industry Conciliation and Arbitration Board for ratification.

The Textile Industry Conciliation and Arbitration Board will next meet on 18 July 1988

Victoria Government Gazette

at 10.30 a.m. in Hearing Room No. 5, Level 18, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne.

At that meeting the Board will consider varying the Textile Industry Award effective from 18 July 1988 to include a $9.00 wage increase, cost off-sets and a $13.00 supplementary payment in full and final settlement of the Union's claim under the Second Tier Principle.

Any employer who has not finalised a plant or enterprise agreement in accordance with the State Wage Case Decision April 1987 by 18 July 1988 is at liberty to apply for exemption from the proposed second tier award.

Enquiries may be addressed to The Registrar, Industrial Relations Commission of Victoria, Level 18, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne. Attention: Sally Gilbert, Telephone: 650 4431.

CITY OF FOOTSCRAY Road Discontinuance

Whereas the Council of the City of Footscray has, pursuant to section 528 (2) of the Local Government Act 1958, formed the opinion that the road rear of 1-11 Taylor Street and 14-22 Francis Street, Yarraville, is not reasonably required for public use and has, not less than one month before formally directing by resolution that the said road be discontinued, published a public notice in a newspaper generally circulating in the Municipal district, and given written notice to the last registered owner of the land in the road and the owners and occupiers of lands abutting or immediately adjacent to the road of the proposed discontinuance, and has considered all (if any) written objections to the proposal.

Now therefore the Council of the City of Footscray by resolution on 16 July 1984, has directed the said road which is shown by hatching on the plan hereunder be discontinued and the land being the road so discontinued shall vest in the Municipality until it is sold by private treaty.

AREA OF RIGHT-OF-WAY SHOWN HATCHED IS TO BE CEASED AND SOLD TO ABUTTING OWNERS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 528(2) OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT.

Notwithstanding such discontinuance the Melbourne and Metropolitan Board of Works shall continue to have and possess the same right title power authority or interest in or in relation to the whole of the land shown by hatching on the said plan as it had or possessed prior to such discontinuance with respect to or in connection with any drains or pipes laid or erected in on or over such land for the purpose of drainage or sewerage.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS COMMISSION OF VICTORIA

4 Per Cent Second Tier—Notice of Proposed
Award Variation

Victorian Clothing Trades Award

Following the State Wage Case Decision of April 1987, the Clothing and Allied Trades Union of Australia, hereby gives notice that it wishes the Decision and Orders of The Australian

1766 G 22 15 June 1988

Conciliation and Arbitration Commission (Deputy President Riordan) relation to Second Tier Wage increases made under the Restructuring and Efficiency Principle of the Clothing Trades Award, 1982, flow on to the Victorian Clothing Trades Award.

The Union wishes to pursue an industry approach to its Second Tier Claim, however, it recognises that some employers may be in the process of negotiating with their employees productivity and efficiency agreements in return for an initial $9.00 second tier wage rise. Any such agreement should be referred to the Clothing Trades Conciliation and Arbitration Board for ratification.

The Clothing Trades Conciliation and Arbitration Board will next meet on 5 July 1988 at 2.00 p.m. in Hearing Room No. 5, Level 18, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne.

At that meeting the Board will consider varying the Victorian Clothing Trades Award effective from 5 July 1988 to include a $9.00 wage increase and cost off-sets.

An employer who has not finalised a plant or enterprise agreement in accordance with the State Wage Case Decision April 1987 by 5 July 1988 is at liberty to apply for exemption from the proposed second tier award.

Enquiries may be addressed to the Registrar, Industrial Relations Commission of Victoria, Level 18, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne, Attention: Lenore May, Telephone: 650 4431.
