- (b) Every person who fails to comply forthwith with any such direction shall be guilty of an offence and may be removed from the Reserves or such place.

Giving of Name

26. If, in the opinion of an authorised officer, any person has contravened or failed to comply with any provision of these Regulations then such officer may demand and receive the name and address of such person and any person who refuses to furnish his name and address or who then furnishes an incorrect name and address shall be deemed to have committed an offence.

Obstruction of Officers

27. No person shall obstruct, hinder or interfere with any authorised officer or any employee of the Committee in the execution of his duty in the Reserves.

General Powers

28. The Committee may—

- (a) Provide and maintain conveniences, facilities and amenities of any description in any part of the Reserves, or arrange for the provision and maintenance thereof and may from time to time determine or vary the conditions of entry or use thereof.
- (b) Make such arrangements as it deems necessary or desirable for or in connection with the proper and efficient management and operation of the Reserves or any portion thereof.

Permits

29. The Committee may issue permits for purposes provided for in these Regulations which are not otherwise provided for in the Act.

- (a) Any permit may be granted for such period and subject to such terms, conditions and fees consistent with these Regulations as the Committee may from time to time determine, either generally or in the particular case.
- (b) No permit shall be transferable.
- (c) Any permit (other than a permit granted by or pursuant to a document under seal) may be revoked or withdrawn at the discretion of the Committee or at the direction of the Minister (Rs 5207).

These Regulations are made in lieu of all previous Regulations made for or with respect to the abovementioned Reserves, which are hereby revoked.

Given under my hand at Melbourne on 29 January 1988.

REGULATIONS FOR THE CARE, PROTECTION AND MANAGEMENT OF CROWN LANDS PLACED UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE HISTORIC BUILDINGS
MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The Minister for Conservation, Forests and Lands, acting under section 13 of the Crown Land (Reserves) Act 1978, makes the following Regulations for the Crown lands (called the "Reserve") listed in Schedule 1, which have been placed under the control of the Historic Buildings Management Committee (called the "Committee").

Regulations

1. Definitions:

"Authorised Officer" means any person appointed by the Committee to be its agent and includes all Regional Managers for the time being of the Department of Conservation, Forests and Lands and their delegates.

2. The Reserve shall be open to the public on such days and hours and at such admission charges as are determined by the Committee.

3. No person shall—

- (a) enter or remain in the Reserve who, in the opinion of an Authorised Officer may offend against decency as regards dress, language or conduct;
- (b) place any advertisement, placard or notice upon any tree, structure or path in the Reserve without the consent of the Committee;
- (c) sell or offer for sale any article or solicit or gather money or hand out literature within the Reserve without the permission of the Committee;
- (d) interfere with any person lawfully using the Reserve;
- (e) interfere with or damage any building, structure or other property or any tree, shrub or plant within the Reserve;

- (f) leave or deposit any rubbish in the Reserve except in receptacles provided for the purpose;
- (g) light a fire in the Reserve except at such places as are set aside for the purpose by the Committee or any Authorised Officer and at such times as allowed by the Country Fire Authority;
- (h) carry or discharge any weapon within the Reserve without the written consent of an authorised officer;
- (i) snare or destroy any animal or bird within the Reserve without the consent of an Authorised Officer;
- (j) transmit by radio or television from within the Reserve without the permission of the Committee;
- (k) occupy any building within the Reserve for any private or public activity without the written permission of the Committee;
- (l) camp in the Reserve or erect any structure within the Reserve without the permission of the Committee or any Authorised Officer;
- (m) except on lawful occasions, enter any enclosed area or building, or any other structure within the Reserve;
- (n) remain within the Reserve or in any property therein when lawfully directed to leave the same by any member of the Police Force or an Authorised Officer;
- (o) bring into the Reserve any dog, unless securely held;
- (p) bring in or allow to remain in the Reserve any other animal, without the permission of the Committee.
4. The Committee shall have authority to impound any cattle found trespassing on the Reserve. For the purpose of this clause "cattle" shall mean cattle as defined by the Pounds Act 1958.
5. The owner of any animals found wandering in the Reserve, except with permission of the Committee, shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations.
6. (i) No motor car or other vehicle shall be taken onto the Reserve, except—
- (a) with the permission of the Committee or an Authorised Officer; or
- (b) for the purpose of using an area specially set aside by the Committee as a car park.
- (ii) The use of any car park shall be subject to such conditions and arrangements as the Committee may determine.

7. No alterations, additions or other works shall be undertaken on the Reserve or any structures thereon without the written approval of the Committee.

8. Any person may take still or moving photographs or films in the Reserve for private use, but if for publication or sale, the written consent of the Committee must be obtained prior to publication or sale and, a fee may be charged and conditions imposed, including acknowledgement of the source.

9. Every person within the Reserve shall comply with any lawful direction of any member of the Police Force or officer or employee of the Committee or an Authorised Officer.

10. Any officer or employee of the Committee or an Authorised Officer may remove or exclude from the Reserve any person who commits a breach of these Regulations.

11. Any permit, agreement or licence issued by the Committee may be for such period and subject to such terms, conditions and fees consistent with these Regulations as the Committee may determine.

12. The foregoing Regulations shall not restrict any servants, agents or workmen of the Committee in the proper execution of their duty or work in the Reserve.

Given under my hand on 29 January 1988

J. E. KIRNER

guns in the Reserve or shoot, snare or destroy any game or birds therein without the consent of the Committee.
  - (k) Bet publicly in the Reserve without the consent of the Committee.
  - (l) Erect any buildings, tent or structure or camp on any portion of the Reserve without permission in writing of Committee first obtained, and then only under such conditions as may be determined by the said Committee.
  - (m) Bring into the Reserve any dog without the permission of the Committee.
  - (n) Do anything whatsoever in the Reserve for the purpose of producing a commercial or monetary return without the consent in writing of the Committee first obtained.
3. For the purpose of maintaining good order, any person authorised by the Committee, may refuse admission to the Reserve to any person.
4. No person shall remain in the Reserve at any time when lawfully directed by any officer or employee of the Committee to leave the same.
5. The Committee may enter into Agreements for the use of any portion or portions of the Reserve by any Club, Association or person for the purpose of holding football, cricket, or other matches, fetes, carnivals, entertainments, musical performances, shows or sports, or for playing football, cricket, lacross, hockey or other athletic games, or for athletic training or other physical recreation, subject to payment of such fees, and on such terms and conditions as it may deem reasonable and consistent with these Regulations and may authorise any Club, Association or person to make a charge for admission thereto.
6. No person shall engage in any organised sport or game or training in relation thereto within the Reserve on Sundays, Anzac Day or Good Friday without obtaining consent of Committee.
7. No Club, Association or person shall hold or take part in any organised sport, entertainment, performance, show or ceremony in any part of the Reserve without the written authority of the Committee first obtained.

8. No Club or Association of any kind having for its objects physical recreation, or any member or members of any club or association, nor any other person shall play, practice or train or engaged in any game or sport or athletic exercise within the Reserve, without the permission in writing of the Committee first obtained, unless any person is, at the time of playing, a member of any Club which is duly authorised by the said Committee to play in the said Reserve at such time.

9. No person except the Committee or its officers and employees on duty shall enter any part of the Reserve when a charge is made for admission, without first paying the fees chargeable for admission.

10. No person shall drive or park a motor car or motor cycle within the Reserve except at such places as are set apart for the purpose; and on such days a charge is being levied for admission to that part of the Reserve, an additional charge of an amount as is from time to time determined by the Committee shall be payable for the parking of motor cars and motor cycles.

11. No person shall take or put, or allow to be taken or put in the Reserve, any horses, cattle, sheep, goats, pigs, or other animals or, being the owner or having the possession, care, custody, control or supervision thereof, shall suffer or allow such horses, cattle, sheep, goats, pigs, or other animals to be in or graze or wander upon the Reserve without the permission in writing of the Committee.

12. The owner of any horses, cattle, sheep, goats, pigs or other animals that are found wandering upon any part of the Reserve shall be guilty of an offence against the Regulations.

13. All animals and all poultry entering the Reserve must be under proper control, and the owner of any animal or poultry that causes damage within the Reserve shall be responsible therefor.

14. No person shall take or drive any carriage, cart, or any other vehicle drawn by a horse or other animal, into the Reserve without the permission of the Committee, and no horse or other animal drawing any such carriage, cart, or other vehicle shall, whilst in the Reserve, be detached or unharnessed therefrom, or left without a person in charge.

15. No person shall drive, push, pull or place on the Reserve any motor car or motor cycle, trailer or other vehicle except in such places as are set aside for such purposes by the Committee unless such person obtains the permission in writing of the Committee.

16. No person shall enter any building in the Reserve without the permission of the Committee, and any person having entered such building shall leave the same on being requested so to do by any member or employee of the Committee, or by any member of the Police Force.

17. No persons except labourers and workmen employed on the Reserve shall enter any plots therein which may be enclosed for plantations of young trees, shrubs or flowers.

18. Every person to whom a ticket has been issued authorising such person to enter upon the Reserve shall upon demand produce and, if required, surrender such ticket to any gatekeeper or other person duly authorised to demand such production or surrender of tickets.

19. Any person found in a state of intoxication, or behaving in a disorderly manner, or creating or taking part in any disturbance or committing any act of indecency in the Reserve, or refusing to obey those authorised by the Committee or by any Club, Association, or persons renting or having been granted the use of the Reserve for the time being to keep order, shall be liable to be forthwith removed therefrom, notwithstanding that such persons may have purchased a ticket for admission thereto, and shall also be liable to prosecution for an offence against these Regulations.

20. No person shall camp in the Reserve other than at the specified camping area and after having duly paid the fees as may be determined by the Committee from time to time.

Every person infringing these Regulations in any respect shall be liable to expulsion from the Reserve in addition to any other penalty to which such person may be liable.

Given under my hand at Melbourne on 29 January 1988.

ERRATUM

Parliamentary Committees Act 1968 REFERENCE TO THE PARLIAMENTARY LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL COMMITTEE ON THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1982

In Government Gazette No. G4 of 3 February 1988 on pages 181 and 182 with reference to the abovementioned matter, paragraphs (a) and (b), which appeared on page 182 were incorrectly set out and should have appeared as:

(a) examination of

—whether certain statutory officers are being adversely affected in the proper performance of their public duties by the accessibility of the documents of their agencies, and

—whether, there should be provision for exemption of agencies from the application of the Act and if so, which agencies,

(b) problems posed by voluminous and expensive applications and in particular whether limits need to be placed on such applications and especially —whether access charges should be related to the cost of providing that access —whether members of Parliament should continue to have free access,

—whether the Act should provide a power to agencies to limit unreasonably voluminous requests, and —the extent to which departmental priorities are being affected by Freedom of Information requests including relevant comparisons with the Commonwealth Freedom of Information Act.
