ORDERS IN COUNCIL

Constitution Act 1975

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Under the powers found in section 4F (1) (a) (ii) of the Parliamentary Committees Act 1968, the Governor in Council refers the following matter to the Legal and Constitutional Committee:

To inquire into and report to Parliament on—

- (1) the desirability of legislation to amend the Constitution Act 1975, in order to alter the effect of section 18 of the Act in relation to legislation which repeals, alters or varies section 85 of the Act and, without limiting the generality of the above;
- (2) whether the requirement that legislation which repeals, alters or varies section 85 of the Constitution Act must be passed by absolute majorities of both Houses of Parliament should be retained;
- (3) if the requirement referred to in paragraph (2) should be retained, whether a definition of the types of legislative provision which repeal, alter or vary section 85 of the Constitution Act should be inserted into the Act, and if so, what that definition should be;
- (4) and, if the requirement referred to in paragraph (2) should be retained, whether the Constitution Act should be amended to provide that an Act which contains a provision which purports to repeal, alter or vary section 85 of the Constitution Act, but which was not passed by absolute majorities of both Houses of Parliament, is valid, although the provision which purports to repeal, alter or vary section 85 is of no effect.

In investigating these matters, the Committee should note the Government's commitment to the principle that one Parliament should not seek to fetter the ability of a subsequent Parliament to legislate, other than to the extent necessary to safeguard the continued existence of the fundamental constitutional components of Victoria's system of government.

Under section 4F (3) of the Parliamentary Committees Act 1968, the Governor in Council specifies 15 November as the date by which the Committee is required to make its final report to the Parliament on the matter.
