The Minister for Planning and Environment has approved Amendment L24 to the Doncaster and Templestowe Planning Scheme.

The amendment rezones land at the north-east corner of Fitzsimons Lane and Porter Street, Templestowe, from Residential D to Residential C Zone.

The rezoning will enable the development of a mechanical car wash in association with an existing petrol filling station. The current zoning of the land is not generally consistent with the zoning and land use pattern in the vicinity. Rezoning to Residential C is appropriate.
