GUIDELINE

Effective 1 October 1990

With Respect to the Preparation and Content of Statutory Rules and the Procedures to be Implemented and the Steps to be Undertaken for the Purpose of Ensuring Consultation, Co-ordination and Uniformity in the Preparation of Statutory Rules

1. Meaning of terms

In these Guidelines, wherever "burdens", "costs", "benefits", "advantages" or "disadvantages" are referred to, financial, economic and social burdens, costs, benefits, advantages or disadvantages must be taken into account.

2. Guidelines as to the types of matters appropriate for inclusion in statutory rules

A statutory rule must not—

- (a) exceed the powers conferred by the Act under which the rule purports to be made;
- (b) without clear and express authority in the enabling Act—
 - (i) have any retrospective effect;
 - (ii) impose any tax or fee, or any fine, imprisonment or other penalty;
 - (iii) purport to shift the onus of proof to a person accused of an offence;
 - (iv) provide for any further delegation of powers delegated by the Act;
- (c) be inconsistent with the principles, objectives or intent of the enabling Act;
- (d) make unusual or unexpected use of the powers conferred by the Act under which the rule is made, having regard to the general objectives, intention or principles of that Act;
- (e) embody principles of major substance or controversy or contain any matter which should properly be dealt with by an Act and not by subordinate legislation;
- (f) unduly trespass on rights and liberties of a person previously established by law;
- (g) unduly make rights and liberties of a person dependent upon administrative and not upon judicial decisions;

- (h) be inconsistent with principles of justice and fairness;
- (i) duplicate, overlap or conflict with other statutory rules or legislation.

3. Consultation

(a) Government Departments and statutory bodies

If a proposed statutory rule may impinge upon or affect the area of responsibility of another Department or statutory body, consultation should take place with a view to ensuring that any differences are reconciled and that there is no overlapping or duplication of, or conflict with, legislation, statutory rules or stated government policies administered by that Department or statutory body;

(b) The Public

If the proposed statutory rule is likely to impose any appreciable burden, cost or disadvantage on any sector of the public, consultation should take place with that sector (e.g. community groups, special interest groups, trade unions, employer associations, business interests). The consultation should include discussion of the need for, and method of, the proposed regulation;

(c) Regulation Review Unit

If the proposed statutory rule may have significant economic impact on any sector of the public, the proposal should be discussed with the Regulation Review Unit.

4. Procedures to be implemented

(a) Need for proposed statutory rules to be justified

In determining the course of action to be taken, the responsible Minister must have regard to the following principles:

- (i) Administrative decisions should be based on adequate information and consultation concerning the need for and consequences of proposed government action;
- (ii) Regulatory action should not normally be undertaken unless the potential benefits to the community from the proposed statutory rule outweigh the potential costs to the community;
- (iii) Regulatory objectives should be chosen to maximise the net benefits to the community;
- (iv) Among alternative approaches to any given regulatory objective, the alternative involving the least net cost or the greatest benefit to the community should normally be chosen; and

- (v) Regulatory priorities should be set with the aim of maximising the aggregate net benefits to the community, taking into account the prospective effects of each proposal upon the economy and upon every section of industry or commerce, or of consumers or members of the public or of the State, which may be affected.

(b) Formulation of the objectives

Before a statutory rule is proposed to be made:

- (i) The objectives sought to be achieved and the reasons for them shall be clearly formulated and defined;
- (ii) Those objectives must be checked to ensure that—
 - (A) they are reasonable and appropriate;
 - (B) they accord with the objectives, principles, spirit and intent of the enabling Act;
 - (C) they are not inconsistent with the objectives of other legislation, statutory rules and stated government policies;
 - (D) they do not involve costs or disadvantages which are greater than the benefits or advantages sought to be achieved.

(c) Alternative means of achieving objectives

Alternative means of achieving those objectives (whether wholly or substantially, and whether by way of self-regulation, voluntary codes of conduct or otherwise) must be considered and an evaluation made of the benefits and advantages expected to arise from each such alternative as compared with the costs and disadvantages, both direct and indirect, tangible and intangible.

(d) Performance standards

If the enabling Act permits, a proposed statutory rule must set performance standards rather than prescribe details rules in relation to technical matters.

(e) Financial and social benefits and costs to be examined

The means chosen to achieve the objectives must be the means which appear likely to involve the least burden on, or the greatest advantage to, the community.

5. Regulatory impact statements

- (a) If the proposed statutory rule would impose an appreciable burden, cost or disadvantage on any sector of the public, a regulatory impact statement must be prepared under section 12.
- (b) A regulatory impact statement is not required in the instances listed in Appendix A.
- (c) Where a regulatory impact statement has been prepared under section 12 and a decision has been made that the proposed statutory rule the subject of that regulatory impact statement should be made, the responsible Minister must, before the proposed statutory rule is submitted to the Governor in Council, publish the decision in the Government Gazette and in a daily newspaper.
- (d) Where a regulatory impact statement has been prepared under section 12 and a decision has been made that the proposed statutory rule the subject of that regulatory impact statement should not be made or that an alternative means to the making of a statutory rule should be used to carry out the objectives specified in the regulatory impact statement, the responsible Minister must as soon as possible after the decision is made publish the decision in the Government Gazette and in a daily newspaper.

- (b) The advice of the Chief Parliamentary Counsel under section 13 (3) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1962 or the certificate of the Premier under section 13 (2) of that Act;
- (c) If the regulatory impact statement was required, the advice of the Director-General of the Department of Management and Budget under section 13 (4) of that Act or the certificate of the Premier under section 12 (3) of that Act.

Appendix A

Instances where Regulatory Impact Statement not required

A regulatory impact statement is not required if the proposed statutory rule comes within any of the following categories:

Fees

Residential Tenancies (Fee Revocation) Regulations. It is proposed to make regulations to abolish the $10.00 fee for application to have the Residential Tenancies Tribunal review a determination. The fee is no longer considered necessary to deter mischievous applications, as the Residential Tenancies Act 1980 now only allows a review to be granted where the applicant has a reasonable excuse for not appearing at the relevant hearing. A regulatory impact statement has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1962. The statement concludes that the fee is inequitable, that its abolition would not have a significant effect on revenue and that it should be abolished. A copy of the regulatory impact statement may be obtained from the Legal Services Branch of the Ministry of Consumer Affairs (see address below). Comments and submissions are invited. These should be in writing, addressed to the Director of Consumer Affairs, 500 Bourke Street, Melbourne, 3000. ALEXANDRA PLANNING SCHEME
Amendment L15—Residential Land South
Crescent, Eildon

1. Land Affected:

Part Crown Allotment 7, 7B & 8, Lot 2, on LP 212345X, Parish of Eildon, Being the area of ground generally bounded by Shaw Avenue, Seventeenth Street (Part), South Crescent and the rear of Tuohy Court.

2. Proposal:

To rezone from Industrial to Residential A, in accordance with the Alexandra Planning Scheme.

3. Explanatory Statement:

There is a shortage of residential blocks within the Eildon Township. Part of this site has been developed for residential purposes. To develop this site for Industrial purposes would detract from the amenity of surrounding residential purposes. There are other eminently more suitable sites for industrial purposes within the Eildon Township. To the best of Council's knowledge this site has never been used for industrial purposes.

4. Description of Lands:

A plan is attached or available at the Council Offices.

5. Inspection of Plans:

Plans may be inspected at the Shire Offices, Perkins Street, Alexandra.

6. Submissions:

Submissions on the above amendment should be addressed to The Shire Secretary, Perkins Street, Alexandra 3714 or P.O. Box 138, Alexandra 3714, and will be received for a period of 20 days following publication.

ALEXANDRA PLANNING SCHEME
Proposed Amendment L14

1. Reason for Amendment:

Over the past few years a list of minor drafting errors have come to light in the Planning Scheme text and maps. These have been of a very minor nature—not worth an amendment in their own right. Collectively they have been pulled together as proposed Amendment No. L14.

2. Land Affected:

Land Description	Error	Correction
(a) CA 14A, Parish of Thornton	PP20 (Crown land)	Rural D
(b) Pt. CA66, Township and Parish of Alexandra (Rotary Park)	Residential A	P.P. 13
(c) Pt. CA 19 Township and Parish of Alexandra (Hec Ingam Res.)	Industrial	P.P. 13
(d) CA 1, Sect. 51, Township and Parish of Alexandra (Downey Street)	Residential A	Industrial
(e) CA 2A, 2B, 22A & 22B, Parish of Gobur	P.O.S.	Rural B
(f) Murchinson Street, Marysville	Wrong spelling	Murchinson St.
(g) Peterkin St./Peterkin Place	Not defined	Minor Road
(h) Barnwall Road, Eildon	Wrong name	Moore Road
(i) Tarnpirr Road, Narbethong	Tarnpir	Tarnpirr Rd.
(j) Reserve Forest (RF)	Not defined	R.F. in key
(k) CA 11B, Parish of Buxton	POS wrongly marked	Rural A

3. Nature of Proposal:

The action to be taken in each instance is listed under the "correction" column of point (2). By its nature this amendment is one of rectification of obvious errors rather than change.

3. Explanatory Statement:

As explained above this is an amendment to rectify minor errors, which have come to light through working the Planning Scheme. The owners of the effected lands have all been consulted and all consent to the corrections.

4. Description of Lands:

A plan is attached or available at the Council Offices.

5. Inspection of Plans:

Plans may be inspected at the Shire Offices, Perkins Street, Alexandra.

6. Submissions:

Submissions on the above amendment should be addressed to The Shire Secretary, Perkins Street, Alexandra 3714 or P.O. Box 138, Alexandra 3714, and will be received for a period of 28 days following publication.
