EXEMPTION

Application No. 17 of 1990

On 14 September 1990 the Equal Opportunity Board considered an application pursuant to section 40 (1) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 ("the Act") by Ms. B. Weeks, Acting Co-ordinator of People First Victoria, to enable the organisation to advertise and employ two part-time workers, one position to be "the best person for the job" and the other position to be a person who has an intellectual disability.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Board is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 21 and 59 of the Act. In granting the exemption the Board noted that People First Victoria aims to—"promote the rights of People with Intellectual Disability so that they are treated with dignity and respect" and the main reason for this application is the belief that because People First Victoria is a self-advocacy organisation, it is essential to have a person with "life experience" in a key position within the organisation.

The Board noted that People First Victoria is committed to—bringing together the many self-advocacy groups that operate in Victoria; to be a resource for these groups; to support the development of new groups; to share information between these groups; and to provide support and development activities; being a representative voice of people with intellectual disabilities at meetings, conferences, on committees and other forums; to lobby to improve and develop services provided to people with disabilities, as well as speaking out against services that deny rights to people with intellectual disabilities.

The Board hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 21 (1) and 59 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 to enable People First Victoria to advertise and employ a self-advocacy worker with an impairment, this exemption to expire on 14 September 1991.
