2. ORDERS:

2.1 The services are to be performed upon an order signed by the Coroner, Coroner's Clerk or by a member of the Victoria Police Force (hereinafter called "the Police"). Under the Cemeteries Act 1958 (No. 6217) cemetery fees are not payable in the cases of poor persons buried upon an order signed by a justice and, in such cases, the Contractor's account for the burial shall be correspondingly reduced.

2.2 No claim shall be allowed under the Contract for any funeral where the Contractor receives or arranges for any payment whatever from the relatives or friends of the deceased but, in the event of relatives or friends desiring to have the deceased buried in private ground, while availing themselves of the Contract funeral they shall, in such case, pay all cemetery charges.

3. SUPPLY OF SERVICES:

3.1 Funerals shall be of the most economical description consistent with propriety. The conveyance to be provided shall be a hearse for an adult and a suitable covered vehicle for a child. In the event of any charge of neglect or impropriety in the conduct of funerals being established to the satisfaction of the State Tender Board (hereinafter called "the Board") against the Contractor, the Board may terminate the Contract.

3.2 The body of the deceased shall be taken direct to the cemetery designated in the order for burial.

3.3 The body of the deceased, with the exception of those provided for under sub-clause 1.2, shall be conveyed to the necropolis, Springvale for burial should the death of such person take place in any region or area south of the Yarra River and to the New Melbourne Cemetery, Fawkner, should the death take place in a region or area north of the Yarra River. The Board may, on application by the Contractor and subject to such conditions as it may determine authorise the burial of bodies in a cemetery other than those specified.

3.4 Coffins for funerals shall be waterproof and sufficiently long, deep, wide and substantial to bear the deceased. The deceased is to be covered with a suitable material. Coffin lids shall be fastened down with screws. Coffins shall be properly lowered into the graves and the graves filled.

3.6 Graves shall be dug to the proper depth and in accordance with respective Cemeteries' Regulations.

3.7 In the event of the Contractor failing to attend punctually to any order the work shall be otherwise performed and the extra expense incurred, if any, shall be charged to the Contractor.

3.8 When burials are required to take place on Sundays the Contractor shall comply with the order without delay. Any additional charges by the cemetery authorities shall be paid by the Contractor who shall be reimbursed on producing the receipt for the payment.

3.9 The attendance of a Minister of the denomination of the deceased as named in the order for the burial shall, if practicable, be provided and the Contractor shall inform the Police of the hour when the funeral service shall take place so that the relatives or friends of the deceased may attend at the cemetery if they so wish. The Contractor shall pay the Minister's fee for reading the burial service, if claimed, and shall be reimbursed the amount on producing the Minister's receipt. The charge should be included in the account for the funeral.

3.10 However, should the religious belief of the deceased preclude the burial being carried out in accordance with Clause 3.9 as regards the attendance of an officiating clergyman, the relatives or friends of the deceased shall, if practicable, be notified by the Police with respect to the service. In the case of foreigners the Consul of the country to which the deceased is reputed to belong shall also be notified by the Police of the demise in which case, when practicable, the Consul may provide for such service as is considered necessary.

3.11 Under no circumstances shall the Contractor be permitted to use any undue or improper influence on the relatives or friends of, or any other person connected or associated with, the deceased person for the purpose of obtaining any concession or privilege whatsoever in regard to the funeral of such person. Any infringement of this condition shall subject the Contractor to the immediate cancellation of the Contract and the forfeiture of any security money. The decision of the Board whether any breach of this condition has taken place shall be final and conclusive.

3.12 The Contract shall not be considered broken, infringed or vitiated by the Government performing the service or arranging for the carrying out of the same otherwise than by the Contractor in the event of urgency or emergency.

3.13 The Contractor and all persons employed by the Contractor shall at all times observe and conform to the highest standards of professional conduct when performing this contract.
