REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

Environment Protection (Vehicle Emissions)
Regulations 1992

In accordance with the provisions of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1962, notice is given of the proposal to make the abovementioned regulations.

A Regulatory Impact Statement has been prepared in respect of the proposed regulations.

The regulations will be established under the powers of the Environment Protection Act 1970.

The proposed regulations will revoke and replace existing motor vehicle emission regulations and are made to protect the beneficial uses and maintain the environment by specifying standards and test methods for motor vehicle air and noise emissions.

The Regulatory Impact Statement concludes that the proposed regulations are appropriate, that the benefits outweigh the costs, and that other alternatives would be less effective.

Copies of the Regulatory Impact Statement and proposed regulations can be obtained from the Secretary, Environment Protection Authority, 6th Floor, 477 Collins Street, Melbourne 3000. Tel. (03) 628 5675.

- (i) for each day in the month of funding, of a daily percentage rate to the amount financed, or part of the amount financed as provided in that month of funding; and
(ii) on the first day of each month thereafter, of a monthly percentage rate to the monthly unpaid balance of the loan;

Credit Act 1984

CREDIT (CREDIT SOCIETY GENERAL EXEMPTIONS) ORDER No. 2

The Governor in Council under section 19 of the Credit Act 1984 makes the following Order:

Citation

1. This Order may be cited as the Credit (Credit Society General Exemptions) Order No. 2.

Commencement

2. This Order shall take effect on and from 1 February 1992.

Application

3. This Order applies to regulated contracts under which the credit provider is a credit society registered under the Co-operation Act 1981 or a credit union or a credit society registered or incorporated under the law of another State or Territory corresponding to that Act.

Relevant Date for Disclosure—Postal Lending

4. Sections 36, 38, 39, 40 and Schedules 4 and 5 of the Credit Act 1984 have effect to the extent that a reference to the relevant date shall be a reference to a date to be called the "anticipated funding date", which shall be a date no later than 21 days after the credit contract is entered into.

5. Section 69 of the Credit Act 1984 has effect to the extent that, where a refinancing of the regulated contract takes place by post, a reference to the relevant date shall be a reference to a date to be called the "anticipated funding date", which shall be a date no later than 21 days after the new credit contract is entered into.

Annual Percentage Rate

6. Section 10 (b) of the Credit Act 1984 and this Order have effect to the extent that a reference to the annual percentage rate shall include a reference to the annual percentage rate as subsequently varied by the credit provider in accordance with this Order.

Variable Annual Percentage Rate—Pre-Contract Disclosure

7. (1) Sections 40 (1) (c) and 40 (2) of the Credit Act 1984 and Clause 8 of Form 4 of the Credit Regulations 1984 do not have effect in relation to regulated loan contracts provided:

- (a) the statements prescribed for the purpose of sections 32 (1) and (2) of the Credit Act 1984 contain the following words immediately below the heading "Things you must know":

"This offer provides that the credit provider can vary the annual percentage rate and thereby increase or decrease the credit charge and your repayments."

- (b) the statement prescribed for the purpose of section 34 of the Credit Act 1984 contains at the end of the ninth line of Clause 2 the additional words "and whether such rate may be varied by the credit provider";

- (c) the statement prescribed for the purpose of section 34 of the Credit Act 1984 contains the following clauses:

8. Can any of the conditions of the contract be changed by the credit provider?

Yes, but only if your contract says so.

8A. Can the credit provider change the annual percentage rate?

Yes, if your contract says so. This may result in some increase or decrease in your repayments if the term of your contract is not varied. If the rate is increased, you may elect to extend the term of your contract and continue to make the existing payments for the remainder of the existing term of your contract. However, you cannot elect to continue to make the existing payments if your repayments do not exceed the amount of interest being charged on your contract for the payment period.

8B. Can I pay out my contract if my credit provider increases the annual percentage rate?

Yes, you may elect to do this and refinance the loan. You should compare the annual percentage rate of the credit providers to ensure you are getting the best rate.

Variation of Loan Contracts—Annual Percentage Rate

8. Sections 41 and 70 of the Credit Act 1984 do not apply to a regulated contract when, in accordance with a provision of the contract, the credit society exercises a right under the contract to vary the annual percentage rate provided:

- (a) the credit society gives the debtor a notice in writing stating:

- (1) the annual percentage rate at the time of the notice together with the annual percentage rate to which the credit society proposes to vary the contract;

- (2) the amount of each instalment to be paid under the contract as varied;

- (3) the number of instalments remaining to be paid under the contract as varied;

- (4) that the debtor may elect to continue to pay instalments at the rate agreed to at the date of contract provided that:

- (i) each instalment is more than the credit charge that would accrue during each instalment period; and

- (ii) the number of instalments remaining to be paid will not cause the term of the contract to exceed the maximum term permitted under the Co-operation Act 1981, or the law of another State or Territory corresponding to that Act;

- (b) where the debtor makes an election in accordance with paragraph (a) (4), the credit society gives the debtor a statement specifying the number of instalments remaining to be paid under the contract;

- (c) the credit society shall agree to permit the debtor to vary the contract in the manner specified in paragraph (a) (4) without any deferral charge payable by the debtor;

- (d) the variation does not have effect prior to the expiration of a period of 21 days after notice of the variation has been given to the debtor in writing; and

- (e) where notice of the variation is given in common form and posted by bulk postage, the notice shall be deemed to have been given 21 days after the date on which the last of the bulk postages was made.

9. Sections 41 and 70 of the Credit Act 1984 and Clause 8 of this Order do not have effect in relation to a variation effecting a reduction in the annual percentage rate.

Variation of Loan Contracts—Repayments

10. Section 70 (1) (d) of the Credit Act 1984 does not have effect in relation to a variation of the regulated loan contract where:

- (a) the variation is made at the request of the debtor;

- (b) the credit society does not make a deferral or default charge; and

- (c) the variation relates only to the amount and number of instalments.

Variation of Loan Contract—Increase in Amount Financed

11. Section 70 (1) (d) (ii) of the Credit Act 1984 does not have effect in relation to a variation of a regulated loan contract where the outstanding balance of the amount financed is increased in the manner permitted by section 70 (3) (a) of the Credit Act.

Variation of Continuing Credit Contracts—Unused Limits

12. Section 60 of the Credit Act 1984 does not have effect in relation to the reduction of a credit limit under the continuing credit contract, where the limit is reduced to the amount owed by the debtor under the contract at that time.

Variation of Continuing Credit Contracts—Interest Rate Reductions

13. Section 60 (1) (b) of the Credit Act 1984 does not have effect in relation to a variation of the continuing credit contract which decreases the annual percentage rate under the contract.

Continuing Credit Contracts

14. (1) In this clause—

“annual percentage rate” means the percentage rate per annum that under a contract is to be applied to the unpaid balance to yield the credit charge;

“contract” means a continuing credit contract;

“daily percentage rate” means the rate calculated by dividing the annual percentage rate by 365.

(2) A reference in this clause to an amount that, under a contract, relates to the purchase of goods or services, or to the supply of cash, includes a reference to—

- (a) stamp duty, and financial institutions duty, incurred in relation to a transaction under the contract under the law of any State or Territory;
 - (b) Bank Account Debit Tax;
 - (c) an enforcement expense incurred in relation to the contract;
 - (d) any unpaid credit charge for a previous billing cycle;
 - (e) any amount prescribed for the purposes of section 53 of the Act;
 - (f) an establishment fee charged in accordance with the Credit (Credit Society Establishment Fees) Order;
 - (g) a legal or valuation fee charged in accordance with the Credit (Credit Society Legal and Valuation Fees) Order.
- (3) If sub-clause (4) is complied with in relation to a contract entered into before or after the commencement of this Order—

Victoria Government Gazette

- (a) sections 52, 54 (2), 55 (1), 59 (1) (b), 59 (1) (f) and 67 (1) (d) of the Act; and
- (b) clause 1 (n) of Schedule 7 to the Act; do not have effect in relation to a contract entered into with a Credit Society.

Conditions of exemption

(4) This sub-clause is complied with in relation to a contract if—

- (a) before the debtor first incurs, or incurred, a debt under the contract, the credit provider gives, or gave, to the debtor a notice in writing specifying the annual percentage rate under the contract and the manner in which the chargeable amount in respect of each billing cycle is calculated;
- (b) the contract provides or has the effect that the minimum repayment required in respect to each billing cycle will, when aggregated with any other payments made by the debtor during that billing cycle exceed the credit charge for that billing cycle; and
- (c) the credit charge under the contract for a billing cycle does not exceed the amount calculated in accordance with sub-clause 5.

(5) The amount calculated in accordance with this clause is the sum of amounts determined by applying the daily percentage rate to the amounts of the unpaid daily balances during the billing cycle of amounts that relate to—

- (a) purchases of goods or services; or
- (b) any cash supplied.

Continuing Credit Contracts—Notice of Variation

15. Section 60 (1) (a) of the Credit Act 1984 does not have effect with respect to a variation of a continuing credit contract provided the credit society has given the debtor a notice in writing of the variation at least twenty-eight days prior to the variation taking effect.

Continuing Credit Contracts—Non Visa Accounts

16. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2), the requirements in section 61 and section 64 of the Credit Act 1984 to provide a statement of account to a debtor each billing cycle shall not apply to a continuing credit contract between a credit society and a debtor.

(2) The exemption in sub-clause (1) shall not apply to—

- (a) a continuing credit contract between a debtor and a credit union where the account includes access by a “Visa Card”;
- (b) a continuing credit contract unless a statement of an account in accordance with Schedule 7 of the Act is given to the debtor, subject to section 65 of the Act at least every three months.

Financial Institutions Duty and Bank Accounts Debit Tax

17. A credit society does not fail to comply with the Credit Act 1984 by reason only that the society includes in the amount payable in relation to a regulated loan contract an amount referable to—

- (a) Stamp Duty or Financial Institutions Duty incurred in relation to a contract under the law of any State or Territory; or
- (b) Bank Accounts Debit Tax.

Correction of Billing Errors

18. (1) Section 62 (1) of the Credit Act 1984:

- (a) in so far as it suspends any right of action claimed by a credit society in respect of a queried amount or other matter and any related credit charges, has effect in relation to a continuing credit contract only to the extent of effecting a suspension of that right for two months after the credit society gives the debtor a written notification setting out the decision of the credit society in relation to the query concerned; and
- (b) in so far as it suspends any obligation on the part of the debtor to pay the queried amount and any related credit charges, has effect in relation to a continuing credit contract only to the extent of effecting a suspension of that obligation while the right of action of the credit society is suspended in accordance with paragraph (a) of this sub-clause.

(2) Section 62 (3) of the Credit Act 1984, in so far as it permits a debtor to apply to the Tribunal for a determination to be made with respect to a queried amount or other matter, has effect in relation to a continuing credit contract only to the extent of permitting an application to be made to the Tribunal if it is made within two months after the credit society gives the debtor a written notification setting out the decision of the credit society in relation to the query concerned.

19. Section 69 (1) (b) of the Credit Act does not have effect in relation to a loan contract provided the credit society, before entering into the loan contract that discharges one or more regulated loan contracts discloses particulars of the calculation of the net balance due within the meaning of section 103 of the Credit Act 1984 with respect to each regulated loan contract.

Notice to be given to all Parties

20. Section 126 of the Credit Act 1984 does not have effect in relation to the credit society giving a statement of account pursuant to section

61 of the Credit Act 1984 or a notice of variation of the terms of the credit contract pursuant to section 60 of the Credit Act 1984 or clause 8 of this Order to a debtor or mortgagor constituted by two or more persons where:

- (i) the amount kept in relation to the contract is a joint membership account under the Co-operation Act 1981 or under the law of another State or Territory corresponding to that Act; and
- (ii) the two or more persons reside in the same premises.
