OFFICE OF CORRECTIONS

Corrections (Emergency Management Days) Regulations 1992

The Minister for Corrections proposes the above Regulations to amend the Corrections Regulations 1988.

The objective of the Regulations is to allow the effective management of prisons and prisoners during an industrial dispute or emergency existing within a prison/police gaol by providing incentives for good behaviour and to give recognition to outstanding community service by prisoners during certain disasters or to assist prisoners in extreme compassionate circumstances, i.e. death of family member or terminal illness.

A Regulatory Impact Statement has been prepared setting out the details of the proposed policy. This concludes that the proposed Regulations are the most appropriate method of achieving the objective based on the past success of this practice in maintaining prison security and good order and recognition to prisoners in unforeseen and special circumstances.

The Regulatory Impact Statement may be obtained from the Office of Corrections, 5th Floor, 20 Albert Road, South Melbourne 3205 by writing to or telephoning Ms Eileen Deveney on 698 6520.

Written submissions are invited from interested parties regarding the proposed Regulations. These should be sent to the Director-General at the above address, not later than 25 March 1992.

VICTORIAN PARLIAMENTARY
ELECTIONS REGULATIONS 1992

It is proposed to recommend to the Governor in Council that Victorian Parliamentary Elections Regulations 1992 be made.

A review of Victorian Parliamentary Elections Regulations 1988 highlighted the necessity to streamline the subordinate legislation relating to the conduct of Victorian parliamentary elections, simplify certain forms and procedures, and expand the regulatory framework for aspects of the how-to-vote card registration process.

The proposed regulations aim to give effect to the provisions of The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1958 relating to the conduct of Victorian parliamentary elections and to ensure that such elections are conducted impartially, accurately and reliably.

A Regulatory Impact Statement assessing the costs and benefits of the proposed regulations has been prepared. This Statement indicates that any costs associated with the impact of the proposed regulations will be significantly outweighed by the benefits gained through increased efficiency of service delivery and improved conduct of Victorian parliamentary elections.

Copies of the Regulatory Impact Statement and proposed Victorian Parliamentary Elections Regulations 1992 are available from the State Electoral Office, Sixth Floor, 22 William Street, Melbourne 3000. Telephone enquiries: 651 6201.

Public submissions on the proposed regulations are invited, and should reach the State Electoral Office no later than 27 March 1992.
