ALBERTON PLANNING SCHEME
Notice of Amendment to a Planning Scheme
Amendment L30

The Shire of Alberton has prepared Amendment L30 to the Alberton Planning Scheme Local Section (Chapter 1—Coastal) and (Chapter 2—Inland).

The amendment affects unspecified areas of the Shire zoned agricultural and located in proximity to Yarram and to existing rural residential settlements. The amendment also affects areas currently zoned Rural—Residential which, because of their inappropriate location, are not being subdivided or marketed.

The amendment proposes to change the Planning Scheme by allowing for suitably located agriculturally zoned land in the Shire to be subdivided into rural—residential allotments (1.5 hectare average size).

Such subdivision will only take place in circumstances where less appropriately located land, currently zoned Rural Residential, is stripped of subdivisional rights.

This process of stripping subdivisional rights is called “Backzoning”, and it will be secured by agreements made pursuant to section 173 of the Planning and Environment Act 1987, limiting the development of the “Backzoned” land.

When land is “Backzoned”, a similar area of better located land will be “Upzoned”, or allowed to be subdivided as if it were zoned “Rural Residential”. Development Rights could possibly be traded between owners wishing to “Backzone” and those interested in subdividing (upzoning) appropriately located land.

The amendment prescribes that the Latrobe Regional Commission be a referral authority for any “Backzonings” and related “Upzonings”. The amendment proposes that land suitable for “Upzoning” is to be limited in its location.

The purpose of the amendment is to allow market forces to determine the location of Rural Residential land, whilst at the same time limiting the increase in the total area of land in such production. The net amount of land in agricultural production is intended not to be reduced significantly by the amendment. Prime agricultural land will be excluded from the “Upzoning” part of the process.

The amendment can be inspected at the Shire of Alberton, 161 Commercial Road, Yarram; Department of Planning and Housing, 477 Collins Street, Melbourne; Department of Planning and Housing, 11 Hazelwood Road, Morwell; and Latrobe Regional Commission, 43 Grey Street, Traralgon.

Submissions about the amendment must be sent to the Shire of Alberton, PO Box 1, Yarram 3971 by 10 August 1993.

TO THE COURT OF DISPUTED RETURNS
PETITION

Petitioning the Court of Disputed Returns, Alasdair Paine Webster, who was and is qualified to vote for a Member of the House of Representatives for the Electorate of Macquarie and for Senators from New South Wales, disputes the election of Maggie Deahm in and for the Electorate of Macquarie to the House of Representatives and the election of persons to all other seats in the House of Representatives as a result of the General Election held on 13 March and 17 April 1993 for the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia

1. The Petitioner and the First-named Respondent were candidates for election as Members of the House of Representatives at the Commonwealth Elections held on Saturday 13 March, 1993 and the 17th of April, 1993.

2. The Petitioner was the former Member for the Electoral Division of Macquarie. The First-named Respondent was elected as Member for the said division, and the writ for the return of her election was returned on 27 April 1993.

3. During the Election the electoral rolls used at the Election were not marked in accordance with the provisions of the Act

Particulars—

- (a) Cameron John Webster of 53 Hawkesbury Road, Springwood, Hospitality worker, cast his vote for the Petitioner at the polling booth at East Blaxland. He subsequently received a notice from the Australian Electoral Commission entitled "Apparent Failure to Vote" at the Election.
- (b) The First-named Respondent was guilty of undue influence during the conduct of the Election.
- (c) The first-named Respondent was guilty of illegal practices during the conduct of the Election.
- (d) The First-Named Respondent was guilty of making false and/or untrue statements with the intention thereby of persuading voters to vote for her.

Particulars of each of the three abovementioned complaints are as follows (That is to say, each of the following particulars is set forth in support of each of the abovementioned three complaints numbered (b), (c) and (d):

- (i) It is alleged that the First-named Respondent was guilty of undue influence and the commission of illegal acts in that she sought to wrongfully coerce voters in the way they should vote and the people they should vote for, by engaging in the following acts:
- (ii) Being party to the distribution of a circular that stated, inter alia: "Dr Hewson says he'd cut the price of petrol. What he doesn't tell you is that he would increase the price of your insurance, NRMA fees, repairs, registration. Today it costs $218 to register a Commodore, under Hewson it will rise to a staggering $566.80. And then the State Government will impose another petrol tax to get back what Hewson is taking from the States. Its a con! Don't let Hewson take you for a ride."

- (i) In respect of which it is alleged that the statements claimed in this circular were deliberately false to the knowledge of the First-named Respondent or that she had no basis for so forming a legitimate basis for making, or being party to the making of, such a statement.
- (ii) In a statement entitled "Candidate's Report" in a publication called "Macquarie News", January edition, the First Named Respondent stated as follows: "I have an excellent newspaper produced by the ACTU for wide distribution (I have 10,000, so don't be shy) and give them to everyone you know." The first-named Respondent was party to the distribution of the newspaper. The newspaper to which she referred was the "Black and White Issue" with the large headlines "Stop Thief". The newspaper claimed that the Liberal Party and/or John Hewson intended to axe Medicare; that the Liberal Party would remove the right to union representation; that the Liberal Party would introduce slave wages for youth. Such statements were false. They were false to the knowledge of the First-named Respondent. Alternatively, she was guilty of being party to the dissemination of such material recklessly, without regard to whether the statements were true or false. With regard to the First-Named Respondent being party to the distribution of this material, one copy was handed by her to Alyssa Rojaine Webster at Springwood some days prior to the election.
- (iii) That the First Named Respondent was party to the dissemination of a document headed "NSW Young Labor". The document had annexed to it two self-adhesive stickers entitled "Public Phone Price Rise" and "Postage Stamp Price Rise". The document to which the stickers were annexed stated, inter alia "The orange stickers are meant to be put in public telephone booths and the green ones are meant to be stuck on post boxes. Please stick them on the public phones and post boxes nearest your home." Then, under the heading "please read me" is the statement, "place the stickers neatly so that they look like official notices".

- (iv) The First-Named Respondent was party to the distribution of a statement which declared: "For schools in the Electorate of Macquarie Fightback would mean larger class sizes, more expense for parents, less fairness. Alasdair Webster=Stepback for Education" which statement was untrue; it was untrue to the knowledge of the First Named Respondent; the First Named Respondent was party to the distribution of this statement recklessly without regard to whether the statement was true or false.
- (v) The First-Named Respondent was guilty of making the following statement in a letter distributed to business and business proprietors in the electorate of Macquarie: "While my political opponent is receiving financial support from special interest groups, my campaign on the other hand depends on donations from ordinary Australians." Such statement was untrue to the knowledge of the First-Named Respondent.
- (vi) The First-Named Respondent was party to attaching to the fences of polling booths in the electorate of Macquarie dozens of large signs next to each other stating: "Stop the GST. Vote Labor" and that such an action was intended to intimidate and coerce voters into voting Labor.(vii)That, contrary to Section 224 and/or Section 338 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act with respect to the taking of votes from hospital patients the said legislation was not complied with.

Particulars—

- (a) Mr. William Charles Bradbury of 112 Rickard Road, Warrimoo, a person duly enrolled as a person entitled to vote in the electorate of Macquarie, was a patient in Springwood Hospital on Friday 12 March 1993. He had applied for a postal vote. Persons acting for the Australian Electoral Commission visited him on that day and told him to forget about the postal vote, that they would take his vote for him. He was given no alternative.

- (b) One of the officers from the said Commission asked Mr. Bradbury for whom he wished to vote. Mr. Bradbury then indicated that he wished to vote for Alasdair Webster. The officer then filled in a voting form for Mr. Bradbury but did not show him the completed ballot paper at any time.
- (c) That Section 338 of the Act was not complied with in the Electorate of Macquarie in that persons unlawfully marked ballot papers to which they were not entitled.

Particulars—

- (a) There were between 100 and 370 instances where the roll was marked more than once for particular voters.
- (b) That, contrary to Section 329 of the Act, the First-named Respondent caused printed material to be published and distributed within the electorate that was likely to mislead or deceive an elector in relation to the casting of a vote.

Particulars—

- (a) Being party to the distribution of a circular that stated, inter alia: "Dr Hewson says he'd cut the price of petrol. What he doesn't tell you is that he would increase the price of your insurance, NRMA fees, repairs, registration. Today it costs $218 to register a Commodore, under Hewson it will rise to a staggering $566.80. And then the State Government will impose another petrol tax to get back what Hewson is taking from the States. Its a con! Don't let Hewson take you for a ride." In respect of which it is alleged that the statements claimed in this circular were deliberately untrue to the knowledge of the First-named Respondent or that she had no basis for so forming a legitimate basis for making, or being party to the making of, such a statement.

G 25 1 July 1993 1651

- (b) In a statement entitled "Candidate's Report" in a publication called "Macquarie News", January edition, the First Named Respondent stated as follows: "I have an excellent newspaper produced by the ACTU for wide distribution (I have 10,000, so don't be shy) and give them to everyone you know." The first-named Respondent was party to the distribution of the newspaper. The newspaper to which she referred was the "Black and White Issue" with the large headlines "Stop Thief". The newspaper claimed that under a Liberal Government and/or Dr. Hewson that Medicare would be axed; that there would be no right to union representation; that there would be slave wages for youth. Such statements were false. They were false to the knowledge of the First-named Respondent. Alternatively, she was guilty of being party to the dissemination of such material recklessly, without regard to whether the statements were true or false. With regard to the First-Named Respondent being party to the distribution of this material, one copy was handed by her to Alyssa Rojaine Webster at Springwood prior to the election.

- (c) The First-Named Respondent was party to the distribution of a statement which declared: "For schools in the electorate of Macquarie Fightback would mean larger class sizes, more expense for parents, less fairness. Alasdair Webster=Stepback for Education" which statement was untrue; that it was untrue to the knowledge of the First Named Respondent; that the First Named Respondent was party to the distribution of this statement recklessly without regard to whether the statement was true or false. The first-named Respondent was party to a document handed out at polling places on the 13th of March, 1993, knowing such document was likely to mislead or deceive some voters.

Particulars—

- (a) The document stated "Thinking of Voting Democrat?...Vote Maggie Deahm."
- (b) The colour and size of the document and the variation in print size was such that it was misleading to both booth workers and voters alike, as to the name of the Democrat Candidate and as such was in breach of Section 329 (1) of the Act.
- (c) That there was a breach of Section 106 of the Act in that insufficient attention was paid by the Second-named Respondent or his officers, agents or staff to ensuring that persons not entitled to enrol for the electoral division of Macquarie, did not, in fact, enrol.
- (d) Responsible officers of the Second-Named Respondent acted contrary to the provisions of Section 102 (1) of the Act by failing to satisfy themselves adequately that claimants for enrolment in the Electorate of Macquarie were entitled to be so enrolled.

Particulars—

- (a) Of the two preceding grounds of complaint: Persons voted who were not entitled to vote in the said electorate. The roll for the Electorate of Macquarie contained the name of persons;
- (b) who had died up to and more than two years prior to the date of such election;
- (c) who were recorded in the rolls as having lived in residences that did not exist;
- (d) who were recorded in the rolls as having their places of residence at vacant blocks of land;
- (e) who did not exist at all; and that., therefore, the Electoral rolls for the Electorate of Macquarie were obviously defective to a material extent and were unable, therefore, to provide the guarantees given by Sections 30 and 41 of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act and/or were inconsistent with other provisions of the Act and/or were inconsistent with the common law.

Sections 30 and 41 of The Constitution have not been complied with in the election for the electorate of Macquarie.

Particulars:

- (a) The guarantee provided by The Constitution of one vote per Elector has not been complied with during the said Election;
- (b) That Section 99 (5) and 106 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act is invalid in that it is inconsistent with other provisions of the same Act.

Particulars:

- (a) Section 106 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act provides that the name of any person who has been placed on a roll for a Division by means of any false statement can be subsequently removed from that roll. Section 99 provides that the validity of any enrolment shall not in any case be questioned on the ground that the person enrolled has not in fact lived in the subdivision for a period of one month. These two provisions are inconsistent with each other, both sections are, therefore, of no effect; that since the election for the seat of Macquarie was based partly on this invalid legislation the election for that seat was also invalid;
- (b) Persons voted in the Election in the Electorate of Macquarie who were not entitled so to vote.

Particulars:

- (a) At least 40 persons who were enrolled to vote for the Election were enrolled in the Electorate of Macquarie in circumstances where they had resided in the Electorate for a period less than one month prior to the date of enrolment contrary to Section 99 (1).
- (b) The Commonwealth Electoral Act condones illegal activities.

Particulars:

- (a) Section 99 (5) prohibits the questioning of the enrolling of a person to vote in circumstances where such enrolment has been obtained contrary to Section 99 (1); that such illegality existed in and during the conduct of the Election for the seat of Macquarie and that, therefore, the Election for that seat was void.

- (b) Section 361 (1) of the Act is invalid.

Particulars:

- (a) That section provides that the Court shall not inquire into the correctness of any Roll. This is contrary to the intention of Sections 30 and 41 of the Constitution in that Section 361 (1) thereby does not provide the means of guaranteeing the requirements of Sections 30 and 41 of the Constitution.
- (b) Additionally, Section 361 (1) of the Act is inconsistent with Section 93 of the Act by denying the Court the ability to enquire whether the requirements of Section 93 are complied with or not.
- (c) Provisional votes for the Election in the Electorate of Macquarie were unlawfully excluded from being counted.

Particulars:

- (a) That, in accordance with Section 235 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act persons entitled to vote as provisional voters cast their vote according to the rights accorded to them by the Act and by Section 41 of The Constitution; yet a substantial number of such votes were subsequently disallowed wrongfully, denying such disallowed voters their right to have their votes counted and considered as part of the Election process according to law, and, therefore, that the Election for the Electorate of Macquarie is invalid. The total number of provisional voters was approximately 1200 and about 800 were unlawfully disallowed.
- (b) There was hindrance or interference with the free exercise or performance of a political right or duty that is relevant to the Election, in contravention of Section 327 (1).

Particulars:

- (a) Mr. D. Hennesy of 5 Eucalypt Road, Springwood, a person duly enrolled to vote in the Electorate of Macquarie was about to enter the polling booth at Springwood Public School, at about 12.30pm for the purpose of voting. He was then accosted by a person handing out Labor how to vote forms. The man said to Mr. Hennesy: "this is how you vote for Labor." Mr. Hennesy said he was not interested in voting Labor. The man then abused Mr. Hennesy, approached him in a threatening manner, shouted abuse at him, called him a fuck-wit, told him to "vote Labor or else," and continued to shout other abuse and obscenities.

- (b) It is claimed that this behaviour was likely to affect the outcome of the Election for the Electorate of Macquarie.
- (c) The requirements of the ballot paper were confusing.

Particulars:

- (a) The form of the ballot paper in requiring the number 1 inserted in the voter's Senate choice yet requiring several squares to be numbered by the voter for the House of Representatives resulted in a large number of voters marking 1 for the Senate choice but failing to mark boxes for the House of Representatives, which caused such ballot papers to be marked invalid; that that was a rejection of the voters' clear intention of how they wanted to vote and was, therefore in breach of Section 364 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act and/or Section 41 of the Constitution, and that, therefore, the result of the Election in the Electorate of Macquarie was invalid.
- (b) The First-Named Respondent published false and defamatory statements in relation to the personal character or conduct of the Petitioner.

Particulars:

- (a) The said First-named Respondent was guilty of breach of Section 350 (1) and/or of the Commonwealth Electoral Act in that she published an advertisement in a widely-circulated newspaper that the Petitioner would not engage in a public debate with the First-named Respondent, which statement was false to the knowledge of the First-named Respondent and was defamatory of the Petitioner, and the First-named Respondent published other defamatory material of the Petitioner

1654 G 25 1 July 1993

- (b) Section 229 (1) of the Act was not complied with at polling booths for the Electorate of Macquarie in that not all voters were asked "Have you voted before in this Election?", therefore possibly affecting the outcome of the election
- (c) The result of the election for the seat of Macquarie, and, the result of the election Australia-wide is invalid.

Particulars:

- (a) There was such a discrepancy in the recorded votes for the Senate and the House of Representatives that there is demonstrated serious irregularities in the voting, counting or electoral procedures applicable to the election. Australia-wide there 53,403 less votes declared for the House of Representatives than the Senate, of which 19,473 relate to New South Wales. Such votes having been lost, destroyed or otherwise not accounted for, therefore affecting the outcome of the election.
- (b) The right of political freedom as guaranteed by the Constitution was contravened during the election.

Particulars:

- (a) Section 329 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act contravenes the right of political freedom as guaranteed by the Constitution and by the general law and is therefore invalid and consequently, voting at the general election was invalid.

The Petitioner Prays:

1. That this Honourable Court declares that the first-named Respondent was not duly elected;
2. That this Honourable Court declare that the petitioner ought to have been duly elected.
3. That the Election of the first-named Respondent to the House of Representatives be declared invalid.
4. That the General Election held for Members of the House of Representatives on March 13 and April 17, 1993 be declared void.
5. In the alternative, that the election held in the Electoral Division of Macquarie on 13 March 1993 for a Member of the House of Representatives was void.

6. That there be a fresh General Election throughout Australia for the House of Representatives.
7. In the alternative, that there be a fresh Election for the Electoral Division of Macquarie to elect a Member of the House of Representatives.
8. In the event of the Court making an order in terms of 6 above, that a Writ directed to the Electoral Commissioner issue for a General Election of Members of the House of Representatives.
9. In the event of the Court making an order in terms of 7 above, that a Writ directed to the Electoral Commissioner issue for the Election of a Member to the House of Representatives for the Electoral Division of Macquarie.
10. That the Writ that relates to the Members to be elected to the House of Representatives as a result of the General Election held on 13 March 1993 and 17 April 1993 be declared invalid.
11. That Sections 99, 102, 105 and 106 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act are invalid.
12. That the Commonwealth Electoral Act conflicts with Sections 30 and 41 of the Constitution and, therefore, the Commonwealth Electoral Act is invalid and is of no effect.
13. And the Petitioner prays for the relief of costs and any other order the Court deems fit.

DETERMINATION OF POLICY UNDER SECTION 89

I, Alan John Brown, Minister for Public Transport, determine pursuant to section 89 of the Transport Act 1983 ("the Act"), the following policy in relation to the operation in Victoria of commercial goods vehicles to which section 188 of the Act applies in respect of the carriage of bulk briquettes:

Before a permit is granted under section 189 (1) of the Act in respect of the carriage of bulk briquettes by a commercial goods vehicle, the applicant must demonstrate that the Public Transport Corporation has been given the opportunity to submit a quotation for the transport of the briquettes by rail transport. The purpose of this requirement is simply to ensure that the competitiveness of this alternate mode of transport has been explored.

This determination revokes any previous determination as to the carriage of bulk briquettes which may have been made under Victorian legislation.

Proposed Adoption (Inter-Country Fees)
(Amendment) Regulations 1993

Notice is given as required by the Subordinate Legislation Act 1962 of the intention to make the above regulations under the Adoption Act 1984.

The reason for, and the objective of, the proposed regulations is to recover the cost to government of providing the operational components of the Intercountry Adoption Service by prescribing new fees to be charged for the administration, assessment of applicants and other services in relation to the adoption and placement of non-citizen children.

A regulatory impact statement has been prepared and concludes that the potential benefits of the proposed regulations outweigh the potential costs.

Comments and submissions are invited from the public and will be received up to 21 days from the date of publication of this notice.

Copies of the regulatory impact statement are available from, and submissions should be lodged with John Prent, Protective Services Branch, Department of Health and Community Services, 3rd Floor, 115 Victoria Parade, Victoria. Telephone (03) 412 7726.

Exemption—Cheque Dishonour Fees

4. Notwithstanding anything in the Credit Act 1984 or any Order in Council made pursuant to section 19 of the Credit Act 1984, a regulated contract does not fail to comply with the Credit Act 1984 by reason only that an amount is payable under the contract with respect to a fee that arises where a cheque or payment order drawn by the debtor is dishonoured.

Exemption—Other Fees

5. Subject to clauses 6 and 7, but notwithstanding anything in the Credit Act 1984 or any Order in Council made pursuant to section 19 of the Credit Act 1984, a regulated continuing credit contract does not fail to comply with the Credit Act 1984 by reason only that an amount is payable under the contract with respect to:

- (a) a fee that arises due to the debtor requesting that a cheque or payment order drawn by the debtor on the credit provider should not be honoured;
- (b) a fee arises due to the debtor requesting a cheque or payment order to be drawn by the credit provider and payable to another person or order or bearer;
- (c) a fee that arises due to the debtor requesting an urgent transfer of funds from his or her credit union account to an account of a bank or other financial institution;

- (d) a fee that arises by reason of the debtor's use of an electronic funds transfer system terminal operated by any bank, by any financial institution including the credit provider, or by any retailer;
- (e) a fee that arises due to the debtor requesting the credit provider to periodically debit his or her credit union account or to transfer funds to another person;
- (f) a fee that arises due to the debtor requesting copies of statements of account which had previously been provided by the credit provider to the debtor;
- (g) a fee that arises due to the debtor requesting an identification card which allows the debtor access to his or her account from credit union agencies other than where the account is held;
- (h) a fee arises due to the debtor requesting a credit card which is obtained as a replacement for a previous card which had not expired nor is being replaced due to any action of the credit provider except cancellation of the card upon the credit provider being informed that the card had been lost;
- (i) a fee that arises due to the debtor drawing a cheque or payment order on his or her account to which the contract relates;
- (j) a fee that arises due to the debtor requesting funds to be directly transferred from an account with a bank or other financial institution to his or her credit union account;
- (k) a fee that arises where the debtor has authorised the credit provider to debit an account held by the debtor with a bank or other financial institution and there are insufficient funds held in the account to comply with this instruction.

Limitation on Exemption

6. Where the fee is charged in relation to a continuing credit contract and the contract provides that the account kept in relation to that contract may be maintained with a debit or credit balance then clause 5 will only apply if the fees referred to in clause 5 are charged irrespective of whether the account is in debit or credit and the same fee is charged in either circumstance.

Limitation on Exemption

7. Clause 5 (f) only applies where a debtor requests in excess of three previous statements of account in any three month period.

Interpretation

8. In this Order a reference to a 'cheque' or 'payment order' means a cheque or payment order as defined by the Cheques and Payment Orders Act 1986 (Cth).

9. In clause 5 (h), a reference to 'credit card' includes a reference to a combined debit credit card or other card which can be used to access a credit facility.
