Subordinate Legislation Act 1994

Real estate dealing in Victoria is regulated by the Estate Agents Act 1980. Under recent amendments to that Act, estate agents and agents' representatives (formerly called sub-agents) are changing from paying a licence fee every two years to paying annually. The amendments created an Estate Agents Licensing Authority and an Estate Agents Disciplinary and Licensing Appeals and Tribunal.

The proposed Estate Agents (Fees) Regulation 1996 set licensing and other fees payable to the Authority and Tribunal. A regulatory impact statement has been prepared. It considers the costs and benefits of the proposal and concludes that the regulations should be made. Copies of the statement are available from the Legislation Unit, Office of Fair Trading and Business Affairs, 3rd floor, 452 Flinders Street, Melbourne, telephone 9627 6087. Public comment on the proposal is invited, to reach this office by 5.00 p.m., Thursday, 18 January 1996.

Subordinate Legislation Act 1994
REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT
Extractive Industries (Development)
Regulations 1996

Notice is given in accordance with section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act that a Regulatory Impact statement (RIS) has been prepared in relation to the Extractive Industries (Development) Regulations 1996.

The reason for the proposed Regulations is to provide the necessary subordinate legislative support to the Extractive Industries Development Act which received the Royal Assent on 17 October 1995. The proposed Regulations need to be in place for the Act to be proclaimed.

The proposed Regulations address a range of matters required by the Act but do not alter the occupational health and safety (OHS) provisions of the Extractive Industries Regulations 1989. These OHS provisions have been specifically saved by the transitional provisions of the Act. The objectives of these Regulations are to

- * provide for payment of royalties for the extraction of stone from Crown land.
- * prescribe various procedures, fees, forms, required information and conditions relating to permits, authorities and certificates under the Extractive Industries Act 1995
- * prescribe penalties and various other matters covered by the Act.

The RIS examined whether alternatives to the Regulations were available. It was concluded that consideration of alternatives is restricted by provisions of the Act which define requirements of the Regulations. It also concluded that the proposed Regulations are more simplified and streamlined than existing controls.

Public comments are invited on the RIS and Regulations copies of which will be available from 3 January 1996. Copies may be obtained from the Minerals Business Centre, 115 Victoria Parade, Fitzroy or by contacting Owen Challender (Tel No 94127930) who can also address any queries.

Written submissions will be received at the above address up to 5.00 p.m. on Wednesday, 7 February 1996 and can be mailed to Owen Challender, Resources Development Division, Department of Agriculture, Energy and Minerals, PO Box 2145, MDC Fitzroy, Victoria 3065.

All submissions will be treated as public documents.
