EXEMPTION
Application No. 4 of 1996

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Mr David Pugh of St Lukes Family Care an unincorporated body, for the purposes of advertising for and appointing a male applicant to a direct care housing support worker position in the applicants Whirrakee Housing and Support Service.

Upon Reading the material tendered in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- * That 50% of the services clients are male.
- * That many of the young male clients have complex needs in terms of personality and multiple difficulties and would benefit from a male role model with whom they may develop a positive relationship.
- * That the position offers opportunity to develop improved links and communication in the service network around men's health and development issues for young men living with a mental illness.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, this exemption to remain in force until 13 March 1999.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 8 of 1996

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by the Victoria Police to permit the applicant to advertise for, and employ, women to positions in the Community Policing Squad (CPS), specifically in relation to country positions in that unit.

Upon Reading the material tendered in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- * the Equal Opportunity Board had granted an exemption from the provisions of Section 21 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 from 5 March 1993 to March 1996.
- * the applicant provides female officers in country areas in the CPS so that they are available where victims request that their case be dealt with by a female police officer;

- * the availability of female police officers in these situations minimises embarrassment or humiliation to female victims of sexual assault;

- * the requirement to advertise gender specific positions in country areas is necessary due to the small size of CPS units in some country areas.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, this exemption to remain in force until 18 March 1999.
