EXEMPTION Application No. 28 of 1996

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by, Young Women's Housing Collective Incorporated in respect of a program known as Young Women's Housing Shopfront.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to permit the applicant to advertise for and employ as occasion requires female only workers in respect of the Young Women's Housing Shopfront program.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- * the role of workers at the Shopfront is to provide support, counselling and advocacy in a women's only environment for young women who are homeless or at risk of homelessness;
- * the collective manages 12 houses and workers are employed to provide support to tenants;
- * several of these houses specifically accommodate Muslim young women and others are targeted at lesbian young women;
- * over 80% of the Shopfront's clients are fleeing experiences of incest, rape, domestic violence and other forms of abuse;
- * the Shopfront's clients wish to work through issues associated with their experiences of abuse with female workers.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, this exemption to remain in force until 17 July 1999.
