Notice of Decision

I, Geoffrey Ronald Craige, Minister for Roads and Ports, give notice that under Section 12 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994, I have decided that the proposed Road Safety (Procedures) (Parking Penalties) Regulations 1996 be made.

Subordinate Legislation Act 1994
REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT
Casino Control (Boundary Redefinition Fee)
Regulations 1996

Notice is given in accordance with Section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994, that a Regulatory Impact Statement ("RIS") has been prepared in relation to the Casino Control Act (Boundary Redefinition Fee) Regulations 1996 ("the Regulations").

An application to redefine the boundary of a casino is required to be assessed and determined by the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority. Regulating the definition of a casino boundary is important to ensure that:

- adequate surveillance and security measures are provided;
- the entry of minors to gambling areas is restricted;
- the management and operation of casinos remains free from criminal influence or exploitation; and
- gaming in casinos is conducted honestly.

The Authority is required by Section 17 (3) of the Casino Control Act 1991 ("the Act") to prescribe the fee for an application to redefine the boundaries of a casino. The objective of the Regulations is to prescribe the fee to accompany an application for the redefining of the boundaries of a casino.

The reason for the proposed Regulations is to implement full recovery of the costs of assessing and determining each application to redefine the boundaries of a casino and to promote the economically efficient use of public sector resources.

The fee

Where the proposed redefinition will not require a change either to the situation within the casino of gaming equipment or to the manner in which operations are conducted in the casino, the fee is $2,700. In any other case, the fee is $6,300.

The latter fee is higher because greater resources are required to assess an application for a redefinition which requires a change either to the situation within the casino of gaming equipment or to the manner in which operations are conducted in the casino.

Alternatives

The number of alternatives to the Regulations is limited by the requirements of the Act. One alternative, of charging no fee, was examined by the RIS on the basis that the applicant, a casino operator, already pays an annual supervision and control charge. The RIS concluded that this alternative is not appropriate because the supervision and control charge was not intended to include the cost of any casino boundary redefinition and this is evident from the Act providing for both the supervision and control charge under Section 112A (1) (b) and the boundary redefinition fee under Section 17 (3).

The alternative of a subsidised fee was also considered by the RIS to be not acceptable because it would require cross subsidisation by other sectors of the community and is in conflict with current government cost recovery principles. The proposed fees are based on cost recovery principles and will impact only on the group that receives the benefit of the service provided.

The establishment of one flat fee for all applications for variations to the boundaries of a casino, set at a mid point between the two proposed fees, was also rejected as an alternative to the two fee structure. The RIS determined that a single fee is a less efficient and less equitable option. If an application justifies a lower fee, the applicant would be disadvantaged by paying more than the costs of the assessment of the application and, if an application justifies a higher fee, the government will not recover the costs of the assessment.

The RIS concluded that the cost to a casino operator of the fees proposed in the Regulations is far outweighed by the benefits that accrue to the community in ensuring that the management and operation of casinos remains free from criminal influence or exploitation, and that gaming in the casinos is conducted honestly.

Public comments are invited on the RIS and accompanying Regulations. Copies may be obtained by contacting the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority (telephone 9628 7333).

Written submissions will be received at the following address up to 5.00 p.m. on Friday, 25 October 1996: Director of Casino Surveillance, Casino Surveillance Branch, Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority, The Tea House, 28 Clarendon Street, South Melbourne 3205.
