- (6) Any reference to workplace includes any predecessor workplace of the workplace in accordance with item 6.
- (7) A reference to workplace includes, where applicable, a reference to an establishment within the meaning of Part VII of the Act as in force prior to 1 July 1993 which corresponds to the workplace.

- (2) In determining the predominant activity in relation to a workplace, regard must be had to, but must not be limited by, measures of activity during the preceding period of 12 months or less consisting of data relating to sales, cost of goods produced, cost of labour or gross profit, taken from—

4. Employer with two or more workplaces

- (1) Unless the authorised insurer or the Authority determines otherwise in accordance with clause 11, if a worker is engaged in operations at two or more workplaces of an employer and the remuneration paid or payable to the worker in respect of operations in each workplace is not identified, the proportion of the remuneration attributable to each workplace is the same proportion as the number of hours during which the worker is engaged in operations in the workplace is of the total number of hours during which the worker is engaged in operations in those workplaces.
- (2) If an employer has two or more workplaces and it is not reasonably possible to determine the proportion of the remuneration paid or payable by the employer that is attributable to each workplace, the authorised insurer or the Authority may, in accordance with clause 11, subject to such terms and conditions as it determines, authorise the employer to pay premium on the basis of estimates of the proportion.

5. Workplaces of employer may be grouped

If the predominant activities carried on at two or more workplaces of an employer are of the same kind any of those workplaces may be determined to be one workplace unless the determination would result in the calculation of the premium or an adjusted premium payable by the employer in an amount different from the amount which would have been calculated in accordance with this Order if the determination had not been made.

6. Predecessor

A workplace is the predecessor of another workplace if the predominant activity that was being carried on in the former is being carried on, in substance, in the latter and in succession to the former, notwithstanding that, when carried on in the former, it may have been carried on by a different employer or at a different physical location or both.

- (3) If all rates per centum per annum determined by the Authority for the purposes of sub-item (1)(b) are the same as the rates per centum per annum in Schedule 9 corresponding to the relevant WorkCover industry classifications in that Schedule, it is sufficient for the purposes of sub-item (2) if the Notice states that fact without further elaboration.
- (4) In all other cases, it is sufficient for the purposes of sub-item (2) if the Notice identifies by reference to the relevant classification class numbers (either specifically or as coming within a range or one of a number of ranges) all those WorkCover industry classifications in Schedule 9 the rate per centum per annum for which determined by the Authority is the same as the rate per centum per annum in that Schedule and states that the rates so determined are the same as the rates in the Schedule for the corresponding classifications.

- (5) For the purposes of sub-items (3) and (4), the proportion is the proportion which the value of  $W$  for the workplace bears to the total of the values of  $W$  for all workplaces of the employer for which a premium has been calculated in accordance with this Order, where  $W$  has the same meaning as in clause 5.
- (6) For the purposes of sub-item (1) (c), if the value of  $C_0$ ,  $C_1$  and  $C_2$  is in each case zero for all periods of coverage of all workplaces of the employer, the calculation of the Experience Factor,  $E$ , may be made notwithstanding that the Authority has not determined and notified in the Government Gazette the relevant numbers constituting  $F_0^c$ ,  $F_1^c$  and  $F_2^c$ .

2. Definition of cost of claims

For the purposes of this Schedule "cost of claims" means—the total, calculated by an authorised insurer, or the Authority on review, of the costs of each individual claim, other than an excluded claim, received by the authorised insurer (or the Authority under Part 5 of the WorkCover Insurance Act) during the relevant period.

3. Cost of an individual claim

- (1) The cost of an individual claim is—
- the sum of—
- (a) the payments of compensation, if any, made by an authorised insurer or the Authority in respect of the claim pursuant to the Act;

WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 5) 1997/98 Sch. 3

- (b) the payments, if any, of damages at common law or of amounts paid in settlement of claims or proceedings for such damages in respect of the claim;
  - (c) costs and expenses, if any, paid by an authorised insurer or the Authority in relation to the claim;
  - (d) the most accurate estimation for the time being by the authorised insurer or the Authority on review of the authorised insurer's outstanding liability to pay all of the payments, expenses and costs of the claim;
- but—
- (e) does not include any management fees in accordance with the licence of relevant authorised insurers;
  - (f) shall be reduced by recoveries made by authorised insurers or the Authority;
  - (g) if the employer elects under section 125A (6) of the Act to eliminate the excess under section 125A (3), does not include payments which would otherwise have been met by the employer under the excess; and
  - (h) shall not include any payments, costs or expenses in relation to the claim to the extent to which the worker has been convicted of an offence under section 81 of the Crimes Act 1958 or under section 248, 248A (2) or 249 of the Act in relation to the claim.
- (2) If the cost of an individual claim calculated under sub-item (1) exceeds $150 000, the cost of the individual claim is deemed to be $150 000.

4. Excluded claims

"Excluded claims" refers to claims in respect of injuries to workers participating in a return to work program funded and operated by the Authority or approved by the Authority.

5. Estimation of outstanding liability

The estimation referred to in item 3 (1) (d) of this Schedule must be made in accordance with procedures determined by the Authority and must include an amount equivalent to the sum of all amounts, of which the authorised insurer has notice, paid by the employer in relation to the claim or in satisfaction or purported satisfaction of the employer's or the authorised insurer's liability or potential liability in respect of the claim (other than any amount paid in satisfaction of the liability of the employer under section 125 (1) (a) or 125A (3) of the Act) which have not been reimbursed to the employer by the authorised insurer.

Sch. 4 WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 5) 1997/98

6. Date of determination of cost of claims

The cost of claims is calculated—

- (a) for the purposes of calculating the premium payable before the expiration of the policy period—as at a time nominated by the Authority before the commencement of the policy period;
- (b) for the purposes of calculating the premium payable after the policy has been cancelled before 4.00 p.m. on 30 June 1998 and where the employer ceases as an employer—as at the time when the employer ceased as an employer;
- (c) for the purposes of calculating the premium payable after the policy period has expired where the policy period expires at 4.00 p.m. on 30 June 1998—
as at a time nominated by the Authority after the policy period.

SCHEDULE 4
ASSESSABLE REMUNERATION

The assessable remuneration, W, is calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$R_0$  less

$$(a) \frac{R_0}{\text{sum of } R_0 \text{ for all periods of coverage of all workplaces of the employer, or if item 10 of Schedule 1 applies, of the relevant group of employers.}} \times \frac{$15\,500}{1} \times \frac{\text{number of days of the policy period}}{365}$$

or

whichever is the lesser,

where—

$R_0$  is the rateable remuneration paid or payable by the employer to workers engaged in operations at the workplace during the period of coverage of the workplace.

SCHEDULE 5
MINIMUM PREMIUM

Notwithstanding Schedule 6, for the purposes of clause 4, if WP is less than $75, WP is deemed to be $75.

SCHEDULE 6
MAXIMUM PREMIUM

Subject to Schedule 5, for the purposes of clause 4, WP must have a value such that  $\frac{WP}{T}$  is less than or equal to—

$\frac{WP}{T}$
the comparative net premium rate x (1.19 + A)
where—

T is the sum of the rateable remuneration payable by the employer to workers in respect of all periods of coverage of all workplaces;

A is  $SZ^5$ ;

“the comparative net premium rate” is—

(a) if, for the purposes of clause 4 of the WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 4) 1996/97, WP for the employer was determined in accordance with Schedule 5 to that Order—the sum of the product, for each workplace corresponding to a workplace of the employer referred to in clause 5 of this Order, of the rateable remuneration in respect of the last period of coverage for the preceding policy period multiplied by the industry rate within the meaning of item 8 of Schedule 1 to the WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 4) 1996/97 during the last period of coverage for the preceding policy period divided by

the sum of the rateable remuneration in respect of the last period of coverage for the preceding policy period of all workplaces corresponding to a workplace of the employer referred to in clause 5 of this Order; or

(b) in all other cases,—

the sum of the imputed workplace premiums in respect of the last period of coverage for the preceding policy period of all workplaces corresponding to a workplace of the employer referred to in clause 5 of this Order divided by—

the sum of the rateable remuneration in respect of the last period of coverage for the preceding policy period of all

Sch. 7 WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 5) 1997/98

workplaces corresponding to a workplace of the employer referred to in clause 5 of this Order—where the imputed workplace premium in respect of the last period of coverage for the preceding policy period of a workplace is—

- (i) if W for the workplace in respect of that period of coverage is a number greater than zero, calculated as follows—

$$W \times PR \times \frac{WP}{WP_u}$$

where—

W and PR are respectively the values of those symbols for the workplace in respect of that period of coverage for the purposes of clause 5 of the WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 4) 1996/97;

WP is the value of that symbol for the purposes of clause 4 of the WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 4) 1996/97 used in calculating the premium payable by the relevant employer in respect of the policy period including that period of coverage;

WP<sub>u</sub> is the calculated WorkCover Premium within the meaning of clause 5 of the WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 4) 1996/97 of the relevant employer in respect of the policy period including that period of coverage without regard to the operation of Schedule 5 or Schedule 6 to that Order; or

- (ii) if W for the workplace in respect of that period of coverage is zero, calculated as follows—

$$WP \times \frac{R}{R_1}$$

where—

W is the value of that symbol for the workplace in respect of that period of coverage for the purposes of clause 5 of the WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 4) 1996/97;

WP is the value of that symbol for the purposes of clause 4 of the WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 4) 1996/97 used in calculating the premium payable by the relevant employer in respect of the policy period including that period of coverage;

R is the rateable remuneration in respect of that period of coverage;

R<sub>1</sub> is the sum of the rateable remuneration in respect of all periods of coverage for the preceding policy period of all workplaces of the relevant employer.

SCHEDULE 7
REVISED PREMIUM

1. Where the authorised insurer or the Authority becomes aware of any new information affecting the calculation of the premium after the premium payable is calculated, the authorised insurer or the Authority may recalculate the premium in accordance with this Order and the difference must be met by a further payment by the employer or by a refund to the employer, as the case requires.
2. (1) The circumstances under which an employer may apply under section 22 of the WorkCover Insurance Act to have the premium adjusted are—
  - (a) where there is a change in industry classification; or
  - (b) where there is a significant change in rateable remuneration.
- (2) If an employer applies for an adjustment under item 2 (1) (a) of this Schedule, the change of industry classification takes effect from the date of the application.

SCHEDULE 8
PAYMENT OF PREMIUM AND DISCOUNTS

1. An employer may elect to pay premium in an annual instalment and, if the premium payable is calculated to be $500 or less, the employer must pay the premium in this manner.
2. A premium payable by way of an annual instalment is due on 7 August 1997 and, if such a premium is paid by that date, the amount of the premium is, subject to Schedule 5, to be discounted by 5%.
3. If a premium has been discounted in accordance with item 2., for the purposes of calculating—
  - (a) any adjusted premium payable after the employer's policy has been cancelled before 4.00 p.m. on 30 June 1998 and where the employer ceases as an employer; or
  - (b) any adjusted premium payable after the policy period has expired where the policy period expires at 4.00 p.m. on 30 June 1998—the amount of premium so calculated is to be reduced by the amount by which the premium was reduced as the result of the discount.
4. If an employer has not elected under and in accordance with item 1, or is not required under that item, to pay premium in an annual instalment, the employer may elect to pay premium by monthly instalments or by quarterly instalments.

Sch. 8 WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 5) 1997/98

5. Unless and until an employer referred to in item 4. has made an election under and in accordance with that item, the employer must pay premium—
  - (a) if the premium payable is calculated to be less than $50,000, by quarterly instalments; and
  - (b) if the premium payable is calculated to be $50,000 or more, by monthly instalments.
6. (1) Quarterly payments of premium are payable in 4 equal instalments, or as varied in accordance with guidelines issued by the Authority.
(2) Quarterly payments are due on the first day of September, December, March and June.
7. (1) Monthly payments of premium are payable in 12 equal instalments unless varied in accordance with guidelines issued by the Authority.
(2) Monthly payments are due 7 days after the end of the month, unless deferred in accordance with guidelines issued by the Authority.

SCHEDULE 9

WORKCOVER INDUSTRY CLASSIFICATION

DETAILED CLASSIFICATION

DIVISION A : AGRICULTURE, FORESTRY, FISHING AND HUNTING

1. This Division includes all workplaces predominantly engaged in "agriculture, forestry, fishing and hunting" or in providing related services, such as sheep shearing, aerial agricultural services, harvesting or forest protection. Agricultural extension or advisory services provided by government departments are, however, included as activities predominant to Public Administration in Subdivision 71.
2. The term "agriculture" is used here in the broad sense to include the breeding, keeping or cultivation of all kinds of animal or vegetable life except forest trees and marine life. Sun-drying of fruit is also included in this Subdivision.
3. Institutional farms such as research farms and prison farms are not included in this Division, but are classified to those classes in Division K, which include the institutions concerned.
4. "Forestry" includes afforestation or the harvesting or gathering of forest products. Logging operations such as felling, hewing or rough shaping of timber in the forest are included in this Division.
5. "Fishing" includes the catching, gathering, breeding or cultivation of marine life from ocean, coastal or inland waters (coastal waters include estuaries and inlets). Included also is the processing of ocean and coastal water fishery products aboard vessels predominantly engaged in both catching and processing those products.
6. "Hunting" includes the catching or taking of all types of animal wildlife on land. The catching or taking of wildlife such as crocodiles in inland waters is also included.

DIVISION B : MINING

1. This Division includes all workplaces predominantly engaged in 'mining', in mineral exploration on own account, in the provision of a wide variety of services to mining and mineral exploration on a contract or fee basis, as well as mining workplaces under development. The term 'mining' is used here in the broad sense to include the extraction of minerals occurring naturally as solids such as coal and ores, liquids such as crude petroleum, or gases such as natural gas by such processes as underground or open-cut mining, dredging, quarrying, the operation of wells or evaporation pans, or by recovery from ore dumps or tailings.
2. Workplaces predominantly engaged in dressing or beneficiating ores or other minerals by crushing, milling, screening, washing, flotation or other, including chemical beneficiation, processes, or predominantly engaged in briquetting or iron ore pelletising are included in this Division. These activities are generally carried out at or near mine sites as an integral part of mining operations and are therefore regarded as predominant to this Division. Natural gas absorption, purifying and similar treatment plants are also included in this Division.
3. Excluded from this Division are workplaces predominantly engaged in refining or smelting of minerals or ores (other than preliminary smelting of gold), or in the manufacture of such products of mineral origin as coke, cement or fertilisers.
4. Workplaces which are predominantly engaged in undertaking mineral exploration on own account, ie: workplaces classifiable to the classes in Group 161, cannot be classified, as is usual in the case of other workplaces, on the basis of their gross receipts. Instead their classification will be determined, where possible, on the basis of their gross expenditures.

SCHEDULE 9—*continuedDIVISION C : MANUFACTURING

1. This Division includes all workplaces predominantly engaged in manufacturing the various categories of products summarised below.
2. The term 'manufacturing' is used here in the broad sense to relate to the physical or chemical transformation of materials or components into new products, whether the work is performed by power-driven machines or by hand.
3. In the summary which follows below an indication is given (by no means comprehensive) of the treatment of particular repair, installation, blending, assembly, packing, bottling or other activities which are typically carried on outside the scope of this Division in an attempt to more clearly describe the activity contents of this Division.
4. Broadly, then, this Division includes all workplaces predominantly engaged in manufacturing:
  - (a) Food, beverages or tobacco products (Subdivision 21). Excluded are workplaces predominantly engaged in sun-drying fruit, processing fish aboard vessels which also catch fish (these are included in Division A), in washing or packing fresh fruit, pulping or other processing of eggs, bottling wine or spirits, repacking flour, cereal food products, dried fruits or in blending or repacking tea (these are included in Subdivision 47 in Division F). However, milk receiving depots treating milk by grading, testing, filtering or cooling and milk distribution depots predominantly engaged in bulk handling of milk are included in this Subdivision.
  - (b) Textiles, clothing and footwear (Subdivisions 23 and 24) including workplaces predominantly engaged in cotton ginning or other preparation of fibres for further processing. Excluded are workplaces predominantly engaged in making or installing curtains, in mens or womens custom tailoring or dressmaking or in boot and shoe repairing (these are included in Subdivision 48 in Division F) or in installing blinds or laying carpets or other floor coverings (these are included in Division E). Workplaces predominantly engaged in contract packing of textiles, clothing and footwear are included in Division I.

WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 5) 1997/98

- (c) Wood products and furniture (Subdivision 25). Excluded are workplaces predominantly engaged in hewing or rough shaping of railway sleepers, posts, etc., in the forest (these are included in Division A) or in fabrication of joinery at construction sites, erecting prefabricated wooden buildings or installing wooden framed windows (these are included in Division E). Workplaces predominantly engaged in contract packing wooden products and furniture are included in Division I.
- (d) Paper or paper products (Subdivision 26), including workplaces predominantly engaged in publishing or in publishing and printing newspapers, magazines, books, music, maps, etc., or in providing printing trade services, such as electrotyping and bookbinding. Workplaces predominantly engaged in contract packing of paper and paper products are included in Division I.
- (e) Chemical, plastic, coal, petroleum, glass, clay, cement or other non-metallic mineral products (Subdivisions 27 and 28 and Group 347 in Subdivision 34). Excluded are workplaces predominantly engaged in screening, crushing, dressing or other rudimentary treating of minerals, construction materials, etc., in briquetting coal or in purifying natural gas (these are included in Division B), or in blending lubricating oils and greases or in glazing (these are included in Subdivision 47 in Division F). Workplaces predominantly engaged in plastering, in manufacturing and/or laying of hotmix bituminous paving or in the installation of insulation materials or of bituminous roofing materials are included in Division E. Workplaces predominantly engaged in contract packing of chemical, plastic, glass etc., products are included in Division I.
- (f) Metals and metal products including machinery, transport or other equipment, scientific apparatus, and household appliances (Subdivisions 29, 31, 32 and 33), leather or rubber products, ophthalmic articles, jewellery, sporting equipment, etc. (Groups 345, 346 and 348 in Subdivision 34). Excluded are workplaces predominantly engaged in iron ore pelletising or in dressing or other preliminary treating of metallic ores (these are included in Division B), in repairing motor vehicles (except workplaces predominantly engaged in engine reconditioning—these are included in Division C), most types of household appliances, lawn mowers, marine outboard engines, toys, sporting equipment, photographic equipment, watches, clocks and jewellery, etc., tractors, farm and construction machinery or business machines (these are included in Subdivision 48 in Division F), in the erection or on-site assembly (from prefabricated components) of boilers, industrial furnaces, heavy electrical machinery, metal silos and storage tanks or structural steel, or in the installation of radio or T.V. broadcasting equipment, telephone or telegraph equipment, hot water systems, domestic exhaust fans, heating, refrigeration and airconditioning equipment, fire alarm and sprinkler systems, metal awnings, screens or windows, etc., (these are included in Division E). Workplaces predominantly engaged in contract packing of metal products, tools, household appliances, sporting equipment, etc., are included in Division I.

5. In general the manufacture of parts or components is a predominant activity of the same class as the manufacture of the finished product except where the manufacture of parts or components is specifically shown as a predominant activity of another class.
6. In some instances two or more activities are vertically integrated in the one manufacturing workplace in that the products of one activity are used as materials in the other. In these cases workplaces are generally included in the class to which the final activity is predominant. In some cases, however, the classes have been defined so that certain workplaces are included in the class to which the initial activity is predominant.

SCHEDULE 9—*continuedDIVISION F : TRADE

1. This Division includes all workplaces predominantly engaged in the trading of goods either as a retailer, wholesaler (physically handling the goods and, usually, taking title to the goods) or as an agent or purchasing, marketing or buying office. The term 'agency' is used here to include those operations which trade in goods but do not usually take title to the goods traded and do not physically handle the goods. Typically an agency receives commission or fees which are directly related to the value of goods traded. A purchasing, marketing or buying office is a separate workplace, of a multi workplace employer, which is predominantly engaged in buying or marketing goods for use by other workplaces of the employer. Such an workplace which buys or markets for other workplaces of the employer does not physically handle the goods.
2. The term 'wholesale trade' is used here in the broad sense to include the sale (as principals) of new or used goods to retailers or other wholesalers. The more important types of businesses engaged in wholesale trade are wholesale merchants who take title to the goods they sell; separately located sales branches or sales offices (not being retail stores), operated by manufacturing enterprises, which do not merely take orders but supply goods to customers from stocks physically held at their own premises.
3. The term 'retail trade' is used here, generally speaking, to include the activity of selling new or used goods to final consumers. The more important types of business engaged in retail trade are department stores or other shops, stalls, mail order houses, hawkers, door to door sellers, milk or bread vendors, vending machine operators or consumer cooperatives. However, cafes, restaurants, licensed hotels, motels, wine saloons and clubs are included in Division L, Recreation, Personal and Other Services.
4. In addition to the foregoing it may be useful to note that while most types of goods can enter wholesale trade, not all goods may be considered to enter the retail sector even though they may be sold to the final consumer. Goods not normally entering retail trade include cereal grains, metal ores, crude petroleum, industrial chemicals, iron and steel and industrial machinery and equipment.

5. Workplaces predominantly engaged in selling their own goods by auction are included in this Division, but workplaces (except stock and station agents) which are predominantly engaged in providing auctioning services for others are included in Division I, Finance, Property and Business Services.
6. Workplaces predominantly engaged in leasing goods (not manufactured by the same workplaces) for periods in excess of one year, without operators, from stocks physically handled by the workplace are included in this Division, as are workplaces predominantly engaged in the hiring out of most types of consumer goods.
7. Certain kinds of activity other than selling are commonly carried out by workplaces classified to this Division and have therefore been designated as predominant to the relevant classes of either Subdivision 47 or 48. The more important of these activities are:
  - (i) Glazing (Class F4728R).
  - (ii) Blending industrial or lubricating oils from refinery base stock (Class F4741J).
  - (iii) Washing or packing (incl. contract packing) fresh fruit or vegetables (Class F4764X).
  - (iv) Pulping, dehydrating or preserving eggs (Class F4765A).
  - (v) Bottling or breaking down bulk quantities of wine or spirits (incl. contract packing) (Class F4767F).
  - (vi) Blending or repacking tea (incl. contract packing), repacking (incl. contract packing) flour, cereal food products, dried fruits or a wide range of other groceries (Class F4769K).
  - (vii) Custom tailoring or dressmaking (Class F4840R).
  - (viii) Repairing footwear (Class F4846C).
  - (ix) Making or installing curtains (Class F4847F).
  - (x) Repairing locks or providing key duplicating services (Class F4853A).
  - (xi) Repairing non-electric household appliances (Class F4856J).
  - (xii) Repairing or installing household electric appliances (except heating equipment) not requiring electrical work (Class F4857K).
  - (xiii) Repairing or servicing motor vehicles (Class F4861A).
  - (xiv) Repairing tractors, agricultural or construction machinery (Class F4863F).
  - (xv) Repairing or servicing business machines or equipment (Class F4897C).

WorkCover Insurance Premiums Order (No. 5) 1997/98 Sch.9

8. The treatment of such activities as repair, installation, assembly, blending, bottling and packing is usually specified in the class descriptions. Where these activities have not been specified it should be assumed that they are included in the class that trades in the product.
9. Workplaces predominantly engaged in both baking and retailing cakes are included in this Division, but workplaces predominantly engaged in both baking and retailing bread are included in Division C, Manufacturing.
10. In the case of workplaces which have goods manufactured for them on commission or contract a variety of situations are encountered with different treatments applicable to each. In general, if a workplace has no goods producing facilities itself (or, if it has, does not use these or does not employ contractors to use them on its behalf), ie: the workplace undertakes no goods producing activities at all, then all its sales of goods produced for it on commission are treated for classification purposes as wholesale or retail sales, as appropriate.
