EXEMPTION Application No. 58 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Domestic Violence and Incest Resource Centre Inc. (D.V.I.R.C.). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff only.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff only.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- D.V.I.R.C. is a statewide service providing counselling, support, information and referral for women and children survivors of domestic violence and child sexual assault.
- The majority of the applicant's clients are female and the applicant believes that it is inappropriate to employ males to work in this area.
- Many survivors would not use the service if male employees were present.
- All workers employed at D.V.I.R.C. at present and in the future are required to undertake telephone shifts, which involve counselling, support and referral for survivors of domestic violence and child sexual assault.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff only, this exemption to remain in force until 6 August 2000.

EXEMPTION Application No. 59 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Women's Housing Outreach and Support Service Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff only.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff only.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant was formed on 1 July 1996 through the amalgamation of Chain Youth Housing Group Inc. and Single Women in Supportive Housing.
- Chain Youth Housing Group Inc. had an exemption from the provisions of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 (Exemption 12 of 1993) which expired on 2 February 1997.
- The applicant provides emergency accommodation for homeless young people and receives funding through the Commonwealth/State Supported Accommodation Assistance Programme.
- Many young women who require accommodation are victims of violence perpetrated by males. These women and children, especially rape and incest victims have great difficulty relating to males.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff only, this exemption to remain in force until 6 August 2000.

EXEMPTION
Application No. 60 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Maggi Hughes, Acting Manager, Statewide Womens Community Housing Service (S.W.C.H.S.). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- S.W.C.H.S. is a new community housing service which will provide housing and assistance for women and their children who are homeless or at risk of homelessness, including that precipitated by domestic violence or abuse.
- S.W.C.H.S. has received funding from the Department of Human Services (Office of Housing) to provide gender specific crisis housing and information and referral services for women across Victoria.
- Workers at S.W.C.H.S. are to provide immediate support, counselling, emergency accommodation and advocacy in a women-only environment. S.W.C.H.S. will manage around 50 crisis properties and workers will be employed to work with a range of women, including young women.
- Many of the houses will specifically accommodate Muslim women, lesbian women and women escaping domestic violence.
- It is anticipated that the vast majority of the applicant's clients will be fleeing experiences of incest, rape, domestic violence and other forms of abuse.
- S.W.C.H.S. clients will be those specifically seeking a gender specific service because they wish to live in a women's-only environment and wish to work through issues associated with their experiences of abuse with female workers.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff, this exemption to remain in force until 6 August 2000.

EXEMPTION
Application No. 61 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Nicholas Hauf, on behalf of Toucan Dance Studio. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male dance instructor.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male dance instructor.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant has been operating for six years and has four lady instructors and two male instructors.
- The applicant has over one hundred and fifty students, of which over ninety are single ladies.
- Ladies require a male dance instructor to instruct them and dance with them, as teaching to dance Ballroom and Latin American requires close body contact and it is expected to be taught by the opposite sex.
- To attempt to achieve gender balance in dance instructor positions it is desirable positions be advertised as male only when this will promote that gender balance.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male dance instructor, this exemption to remain in force until 6 August 2000.
