EXEMPTION
Application No. 74 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Jobsnow Employment and Training. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to operate at the Queen Victoria Women's Centre a case management service for unemployed women and to advertise that service.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to operate at the Queen Victoria Women's Centre a case management service for unemployed women and to advertise that service.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is a non profit community based organisation.
- The Queen Victoria Women's Centre is established by the Queen Victoria Women's Centre Act 1994 and under that Act it is a function of the Queen Victoria Women's Centre Trust to offer services and facilities for women at the Centre.
- The applicant proposes to operate a case management service at the Centre for women who have been unemployed for over 12 months.
- The service provides the following:
 - Matches clients' abilities with its computer based job vacancy register.
 - Locates prospective employers on their clients' behalf and shows how to approach them.
 - Grooms clients for interview success.
 - Prepares the client to confidently rejoin the workforce.
 - Provides settling in placement support to the client and the employer.
- Case management is a Federal Government initiative monitored and regulated by the Employment Services Regulatory Authority.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to operate at the Queen Victoria

Women's Centre a case management service for unemployed women and to advertise that service, this exemption to remain in force until 8 October 2000.

EXEMPTION
Application No. 78 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Victorian Women's Trust Ltd. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and operate a business incubator designed to promote the interest of women in business and where appropriate to give preference to women when choosing the incubator tenants.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and operate a business incubator designed to promote the interest of women in business and where appropriate to give preference to women when choosing the incubator tenants.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- A business incubator is being established by the applicant and the Women's Enterprise Connection.
- The Victorian Women's Trust is an independent, non-profit body dedicated to the improvement of the status of all Victorian women. The Trust was established in 1985 by a State Government grant of one million dollars, a gift acknowledging the contribution of women to Victoria's history and achievements. In its 12 year history, the Victorian Women's Trust has evolved into a practical and effective vehicle for the progress of women, actively promoting ventures which bring tangible and sustainable benefits to women.
- Women's Enterprise Connection was established by the Trust in 1990 to assist women to start small businesses and to provide a business consultancy service for women in business.

- The aim of the incubator is to create a synergistic mix of up to 35 established and new-start businesses in a shared office environment. An incubator has the same facilities as a serviced office, but provides more support to its tenants by offering; marketing, financial and legal advice; contacts and networks; encouragement, mentoring and moral support.
- The applicant has received funding from the Department of Employment, Education, Training and Youth Affairs to establish an incubator in the City of Yarra. It will be located at 288 Brunswick Street, Fitzroy. The incubator will operate for a minimum of 8 years.
- There are currently 54 incubators in Australia, 8 of them in Victoria. Women operated businesses only represent 13% of tenants in incubators; the establishment of the applicant's incubator will help address this imbalance.
- Whilst the incubator will have a focus on helping women, it is not the applicant's intention to exclude men; they will be able to access all the services and facilities. However the applicant wishes to give priority to a female applicant in appropriate circumstances.
- The establishment of a women's business incubator supports the trend of small and micro businesses becoming employers and creators of wealth within the community. Many women start their businesses at home, but find that as the business grows they need and want to move into commercial premises. The incubator will provide an ideal bridge for these businesses.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and operate a business incubator designed to promote the interest of women in business and where appropriate to give preference to women when choosing the incubator tenants, this exemption to remain in force until 8 October 2000.

VICTORIAN CASINO AND GAMING AUTHORITY

Variation to the Rules of Games that may be played at the Melbourne Casino, which were published in the Government Gazette on 24 April 1997.

Under Section 60 (1) of the Casino Control Act 1991 the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority on 1 October 1997 resolved that the following amendments be made to the Rules of the Game of Baccarat, in substitution for those previously approved:

1. Rule 3.1

For Rule 3.1 substitute:

“3.1 Baccarat shall be played with four to eight decks, each deck having 52 cards without jokers, with backs of the same colour and design and one cutting card.”

2. Rule 12

For Rule 12 substitute:

"12—IRREGULARITIES

- 12.1 In situations where the requirements as described at Rule 4.6 are not complied with, the results of hands previously played in that shoe shall stand and play in that shoe will continue. No misdeal occurs in this situation.
- 12.2 A card drawn in excess from the shoe but not disclosed must be used as the first card of the next hand, providing that the cutting card has not been exposed in the shoe or drawn from the shoe. Cards drawn from the shoe shall not be discarded, and used in the normal course of play except in accordance with the requirements of Rule 4.6 and Rule 8.1.1.2.
- 12.3 If a card is dealt or drawn to the banker which should have been dealt to the player, that card must go to the player and a further card for the banker drawn if required in accordance with the table of play.
- 12.4 A card found face upwards in the shoe shall be used in accordance with the table of play in Rule 10. If the card cannot be used in that round it shall be dealt with according to the procedure outlined in Rule 12.5.
- 12.5 A third card dealt to the "player's hand" when no third card is authorised by these rules shall become the third card of the "banker's hand" if the "banker's hand" is obliged to draw in accordance with Table 2 of Rule 10. If, in such circumstances, the "banker's hand" is required to stay, the card dealt in error shall become the first card of a Dummy Hand.
- 12.6 A third card dealt to the "banker's hand" when no third card is authorised by these rules shall become the first card of a Dummy Hand.
- 12.7 A Dummy Hand is used to maintain the sequence of the cards. It can only arise under the conditions outlined in Rules 12.5 and 12.6, and must be played in accordance with the table of play in Rule 10.

12.7.1 All wagers must be removed from the betting area during a Dummy Hand.

12.7.2 A player may not make a wager on a Dummy Hand.

12.8 If there are found to be insufficient cards in the shoe to complete a hand that hand shall be void.

12.9 If during the initial deal the cards are dealt out of sequence and cannot be reconstructed the hand shall be void.

3. Rule 14.5.4

For Rule 14.5.4 substitute:

"14.5.4 At the commencement of each session the dealer shall place a puck in front of the player at the table to the dealer's immediate right to indicate the player who is to make the first wager on the first hand of the session, following which the remaining players at the table shall wager in sequence in an anticlockwise direction around the table until all players have made a wager."
