Application No. 9 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by South Central Region Migrant Resource Centre Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide employment services to unemployed people from the Horn of Africa, Latin America and China.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide employment services to unemployed people from the Horn of Africa, Latin America and China.

- Each project is expected to work closely with jobseekers to assist them to become work ready while also identifying the human resource needs of employers and industry.
- Services to unemployed jobseekers include the provision of pre-employment, employment placement and post-employment support.
- Under the Community Business Employment program, agencies will prepare unemployed jobseekers for these job opportunities and ensure employer and industry needs are met.

- The expected outcome for all jobseekers will be ongoing employment; for employers the outcome will be the recruitment of a skilled and motivated workforce.
- The prime focus of the program is on employment placement taking into account industry needs.
- Through client based targets, organisations will be contracted to deliver employment services to unemployed people from a non-English speaking background.

Application No. 11 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Dr A. P. Trovato on behalf of Bulleen Medical Centre. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a female doctor.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a female doctor.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant currently has two male doctors and requires a more balanced option of gender choice for the patients.
- The applicant's practice has a high patient demand for a female doctor, especially for women's health.

- A female doctor was previously employed on a part-time basis and has left the practice which the applicant states has left a void in the applicant's ability to adequately cater for the demand in women's health.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a female doctor, this exemption to remain in force until 12 February 2000.
