*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, May 23rd, 1837.*

A REPORT having been made to the GOVERNOR of certain Bushrangers having provided themselves with Fire-arms from the out-stations of private Individuals, in a manner highly discreditable to the Parties from whom they were obtained, His Excellency has directed the circumstance to be made public, with the view of recalling attention to the Government Order on this subject, dated 20th October, 1830, No. 15, and of showing the impropriety, therein pointed out, of placing such articles in the hands of ordinary Overseers and Servants. To do so, experience has proved, is too frequently only to hold out temptation to the evil-disposed, and to afford means for the perpetration of additional crimes. His Excellency therefore finds himself compelled to request that all Arms and Ammunition, now in possession of Servants at out-stations, may be immediately removed by the Proprietors.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*
