GREETING:—

KNOW YE, that we have assigned you and each and every of you jointly and severally to be Our Justices to keep Our Peace, in Our Colony of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and to keep and cause to be kept all Ordinances and Statutes for the preservation of the Peace, and for the quiet rule and government of Our People, made in all and singular their Articles in Our said Colony and its Dependencies, according to the form and effect of the same; and to punish all Persons offending against the said Ordinances and Statutes, or any of them, in the said Colony or its Dependencies; and to cause to come before you, or any one or more of you, all those within Our said Colony and its Dependencies, who to any one or more of Our People, concerning their Bodies or the firing of their Houses, shall have used threats, to find sufficient security for the Peace, or their good behaviour towards Us and Our People; and if they shall refuse to find such Security, then them in our Prisons, until they shall find such Security, to cause to be safely kept.

We have also assigned you and either of you, with any one or more of such Justices as are hereby or shall hereafter be duly commissioned by Us in that behalf, to enquire the truth more fully, by all lawful means by which the truth of the matter shall be better known, of all and all manner of Felonies, Poisonings, Trespasses, or Extortions whatsoever, and of all and singular other Crimes and Offences of which the Justices of Our Peace, may or ought lawfully to enquire by whomsoever and after what manner soever in the said Colony or its Dependencies done or perpetrated, or which shall happen to be done or attempted.

And also of all those who in the aforesaid Colony or its Dependencies, in Companies against Our Peace in disturbance of Our People, with armed force have gone or rode or hereafter shall presume to go or ride, and also of all those who have there lain in wait or hereafter shall presume to lie in wait to main, or cut, or kill Our People.

And also of all Vintners, and all and singular other Persons, who in the abuse of Weights or Measures or in selling Victuals against the Form of the Ordinances and Statutes, or any of them therefore made for the common benefit of the said Colony and its Dependencies, and Our People thereof have offended or attempted or hereafter shall presume in the said Colony or its Dependencies to offend or attempt.

And also of all Sheriff's Constables, Keepers of Gaols, and other Officers, who, in the execution of their Offices about the Premises, or any of them have unduly behaved themselves, or hereafter shall presume to behave themselves unduly, or have been or shall happen hereafter to be careless, remiss, or negligent, in Our aforesaid Colony or its Dependencies.

And of all and singular Articles and circumstances, and all other things whatsoever that concern the Premises, or any of them, by whomsoever, and after what manner soever, in Our aforesaid Colony and its Dependencies, done or perpetrated; or which hereafter shall happen to be done or attempted in what manner soever.

And to inspect all indictments whatsoever so before you, or any one of you, with such Justice or Justices as aforesaid taken or to be taken or before others late Our Justices of the Peace in the aforesaid Colony or its Dependencies, made or taken and not yet determined, and to make and continue processes thereupon against all and singular the persons so indicted or who before you hereafter shall happen to be so indicted until they can be taken, surrender themselves, or be outlawed.

And to hear and determine all and singular the Felonies, Poisonings, Trespasses, Extortions, Unlawful Assemblies, and Indictments aforesaid, and all and singular other the Premises according to the Laws and Statutes of England and of the said Colony and its Dependencies as in the like case it has been accustomed or ought to have been done.

And the same offenders and every of them for their offences by Fines, Ransoms, Amerciaments, Forfeitures, and other means, as according to the Laws and Customs of England or form of the Ordinances and Statutes aforesaid it has been accustomed or ought to have been done to chastise and punish.

Provided always, That if a case of difficulty upon the determination of any of the Premises before you, or any one or more of you, shall happen to arise, then let judgment in no wise be given thereon before you or any one of you, unless in the presence of one of Our Justices of the Supreme Court of the said Colony.

And therefore, we command you and each and every of you that to keep the Peace and Ordinances, Statutes, and all and singular other the Premises you diligently apply yourselves, and that at certain days and places duly appointed, or to be appointed for these purposes into the Premises, ye make enquiries, and all and singular the Premises, hear and determine, and perform and fulfil them in the aforesaid form, doing therein what to justice appertains according to the Law and Custom of England saving to us the Amerciaments and other things to us therefrom belonging.

And we command Our Sheriff of the said Colony, at certain days and places duly appointed, or to be appointed as aforesaid, to be aiding by all lawful means in the performance and due execution of the Premises.

In testimony whereof, we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of Our said Colony to be hereunto affixed.

Witness, Our Trusty and Well-beloved Sir George Gipps, Knight, Our Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, at Government House, Sydney, this eighth day of December, One thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.
