ANNO TERTIO.
VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. 7.

By His Excellency Sir George Gipps, Knight, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, with the Advice of the Legislative Council.

"An Act to remove Doubts as to the Validity of certain Marriages had and solemnized within the Colony of New South Wales, by Ministers of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and to regulate the Registration of certain Marriages, Baptisms, and Burials."

WHEREAS doubts may hereafter arise concerning the Validity of Marriages which have been had and solemnized within the Colony of New South Wales, by Ministers of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and whereas it is expedient that such doubts should be quieted, and that the law respecting such Marriages should be declared for the future:

Be it therefore declared and enacted, by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice of the Legislative Council thereof, That all Marriages before the passing and publication of this Act, had and solemnized by ordained or officiating Ministers of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, shall be, and shall be adjudged, esteemed, and taken to have been, of the same force and effect in Law as, and no other than, if such Marriages had been had and solemnized by clergymen of the Church of England, Presbyterian Ministers, or Roman Catholic Priests, according to the rites and ceremonies of their respective churches.

(Persons being Members of the Wesleyan Methodist Society to make declaration thereof, whereupon Marriages shall be of full force.)

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing and publication of this Act, all

Marriages between persons, both or one of such persons being members or a member of, or holding communion with, the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and making a declaration to the effect hereinafter mentioned, which Marriages shall be had and solemnized within the said Colony by an ordained minister of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, duly appointed by the British Conference of the Wesleyan Methodists, or by the district committee of Wesleyan Methodist Ministers of the Colony of New South Wales, shall be, and shall be adjudged, esteemed, and taken to be, of the same force and effect in Law as, and no other than, if such Marriage were had and solemnized by Clergymen of the Church of England, Presbyterian Ministers, or Roman Catholic Priests, according to the rites and ceremonies of their respective churches: Provided always, That from and after the passing of this Act, no such Marriage as last aforesaid, shall be had and solemnized until both or one of such persons (as the case may be) shall have signed a declaration, in writing, in duplicate, stating that they, or he, or she (as the case may be), are or is members or a member of, or hold communion with, the Wesleyan Methodist Society, according to the form hereunto annexed and marked with the letter A: And that the minister by whom any such marriage as aforesaid shall be solemnized shall, immediately upon the solemnization thereof, certify such marriage by a writing under his hand, in duplicate, subjoined to, or endorsed upon, the declaration in duplicate hereinbefore mentioned, specifying in such certificate the names and descriptions of the parties between whom, and of the witnesses in whose presence, the said marriage has been had and solemnized, and the time and place of the celebration of the same, according to the form hereunto annexed, and marked with the letter B; and such certificate, in duplicate, shall be also signed forthwith by the parties entering into such marriages, and by the witnesses to the same, according to the said last mentioned form; and the minister officiating shall deliver one duplicate of such declaration and certificate to the persons married, or to one of them, and shall transmit the other duplicate of such declaration and certificate, to the Registrar of the Supreme Court.

(Certificates of Baptisms and Burials to be transmitted to Registrar of Supreme Court.)

III. And be it enacted, That a certificate of every Baptism or Burial solemnized or performed by any ordained minister of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, shall be transmitted by the minister officiating, with all convenient speed, to the Registrar of the Supreme Court

(Such certificates to be safely kept by Registrar, and alphabetical lists of them to be made.)

IV. And be it enacted, That as often as any such duplicates and certificates of marriages and certificates of baptisms and burials are transmitted to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, as hereinbefore directed, the same shall be by him safely kept from damage, and be so arranged as to be resorted to when required; and one general alphabetical list shall be made, in books to be kept for such purpose, of the names of all persons and places therein, respectively which, with the said duplicates and certificates, as aforesaid, shall be open to public search at all reasonable times, on payment of one shilling for each name searched for by the party or parties searching, who shall state at the time of such search the name or names of the person or persons sought for; and certified copies of such duplicates and certificates, respectively, shall be received and taken in all Courts of Law and Equity within the said Colony, as evidence of the Marriage, Baptism, or Burial of the parties respectively named therein; and for every such copy aforesaid, a sum of one shilling, and no more, shall be paid by the party requiring the same.

ANNO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. 8.

By His Excellency Sir George Gipps, Knight, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, with the advice of the Legislative Council.

"An Act to amend an Act, intituled, 'An Act for Registering Deeds and Conveyances in New South Wales, and for other purposes,' and to prevent Convicts under sentence from acting as Conveyancers."

WHEREAS, an Act of His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice of the Legislative Council thereof, made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty, King George the 6th Geo. IV. Fourth, intituled, "An Act for No. 22, re. Registering Deeds and Conveyances in New South Wales, and for other purposes," has been found defective, in requiring that the Memorial of all Deeds and other instruments directed to be registered by the said recited Act, shall be verified on oath, solely before one of the Judges, or the Registrar of the Supreme Court; and also in requiring that the acknowledgment by a Married woman of any Deed executed in New South Wales, shall be made solely before a Judge of the Supreme Court, or before a Commissioner specially appointed for that purpose: And whereas, by reason of the present wide extent of the said Colony, and the inconvenience of requiring such Memorial to be verified, and such acknowledgment to be made, in manner aforesaid, it is expedient to make further provision herein: Be it therefore enacted, by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice of the Legislative Council thereof, That, from and after the first day of November in the present year, One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, the Memorial required by the said Act to be registered in the Registrar's Office of the Supreme Court, may be verified on oath before one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, or before the Registrar of the said Court, or before any Police Magistrate, or before any Commissioner appointed by the said Court for taking affidavits (not being the party employed to prepare the deed or instrument, nor being a party thereto), and such acknowledge as aforesaid may be made before, and certified, as in and by the said Act is required, under the hand and seal of any Judge of the Supreme Court, or any Police Magistrate, or any Commissioner appointed by the said Court for taking affidavits (not being the party employed to prepare such deed or instrument, nor being a party thereto), and such Memorial so sworn, and such acknowledgment so taken, and certified, respectively, as aforesaid, shall be as valid and effectual in Law and in Equity as if the same had been respectively verified, acknowledged, and certified, in the manner required by the said recited Act:

Proviso as to Deeds executed by Marksmen and Women.

Provided always, that where the party executing any deed or instrument as aforesaid, shall have executed the same as a Marksman or Markswoman, the witness or witnesses to the execution of the same shall attend to satisfy the Judge, Police Magistrate, or Commissioner (as the case may be), that the deed or instrument to be memorialized or acknowledged as aforesaid, is the same identical deed or instrument which the party intended to execute, and in default thereof, the Memorial shall not be verified, nor the deed or instrument acknowledged, for the purpose of registration.

(Punishment for Transported Offenders acting as Conveyancers.)

II. And whereas it is expedient to restrain Convicts under sentence from acting as Conveyancers: Be it enacted, that from and after the said day of November, in the year aforesaid, if any Transported offender or person under sentence of any Criminal Court in New South Wales or the Dependencies thereof, shall draw or prepare any Conveyance of, or Deed, or Will, or any instrument whatever relating to, any real or personal estate, or any proceedings in Law or in Equity in New South Wales or the Dependencies thereof, such Transported Offender or other person under sentence as aforesaid, shall be liable, on summary conviction on oath before two Justices of the Peace, to be worked in Irons on the Public roads or other Public works in the said Colony, for any period not exceeding one year.

(Commencement of Act.)

III. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the first day of November, in the present year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine.

ANNO TERTIO
VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.
By His Excellency Sir George Gipps, Knight, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales, and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, with the Advice of the Legislative Council.

"An Act for facilitating Proceedings by and against a certain Banking Company, called 'the Union Bank of Australia, and for other purposes therein mentioned.'"

WHEREAS, a Joint Stock Company was some time since formed in London, under the Style or Firm of "The Union Bank of Australia," for the purpose of carrying on the business of Banking in its various branches in the Australasian Colonies; and the said Bank is now fully established in the two Colonies of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, having Branch Banks in the Towns of Sydney, Hobart Town, Launceston, and Melbourne, where the said Company discounts Bills, issues Notes, and transacts all the ordinary operations of that business: And whereas the joint stock of the said Company is held by Proprietors, partly residing in Great Britain, and partly in the said Colonies of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land: And whereas the said Bank, as to the said Colonies, is under the management and superintendence of an Inspector appointed by the Directors of the said Company in London, and of Local Boards of Directors resident respectively at Sydney, and Melbourne, in the said Colony of New South Wales, and at Hobart Town and Launceston in Van Diemen's Land, each Board having its Chairman, such Directors being severally Shareholders in the said Company possessing twenty Shares or upwards in their own right, who conduct and superintend the affairs of the said Company in the discounting of Bills, receiving of Deposits, issuing Notes, and otherwise carrying on the said business: And whereas, for enabling the said Company the more readily to enforce payment of Monies that may become due to them from time to time; and also to provide an easy remedy against the said Company, and the several Proprietors of Shares therein, for monies that may be due to them; also for facilitating any prosecution that may hereafter be instituted by the said Company, it is expedient to simplify all proceedings, both at Law and in Equity, by or against the said Company, by allowing one Member thereof to sue and be sued in the place and stead of the whole, which cannot be effected without the aid and authority of the Legislature: Be it therefore enacted, Company to be by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice of the Legislative Council thereof, That all actions or suits against any person or persons indebted to the said Bank, whether a Member thereof or otherwise, and all other proceedings at Law or in Equity, to be instituted or prosecuted by or on behalf of the said Bank, or wherein the said Bank is or shall be in any way concerned against any person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, shall and may be lawfully instituted and prosecuted in the name of the Inspector for the time-being of the said Bank; and in the event of his death or absence from the said Colony, in the name or names of any one of the Board of Directors in Sydney, at the time any such action, suit, or other proceeding shall be instituted, as the nominal Plaintiff, Complainant, or Petitioner, for and on behalf of the said Bank, and that all actions, suits, and other proceedings at Law, or in Equity, to be commenced instituted and prosecuted against the said Bank, shall be instituted and prosecuted against the said Inspector, or one of the said Directors for the time-being of the said Board of Direction in Sydney, as the nominal Defendant for and on behalf of the said Bank; and that in all prosecutions to be instituted or carried on, by or on behalf of the said Bank, for fraud upon or against the said Banking Company, or for embezzlement, forgery, robbery, or stealing, or other offence against the said Company, or any felony or misdemeanor in which the said Company shall be concerned, it shall be lawful to state the property of the said Company to be the property of such Inspector or Director for the time-being of the said Board of Direction in Sydney; and any offence committed with intent to injure or defraud the said Bank, shall and lawfully may in such prosecutions or proceedings be stated or laid to have been committed with intent to injure or defraud such Inspector or Director for the time being of the said Company, and any offender or offenders may thereupon be lawfully convicted of any such offence; and generally, that in all cases wherein it would otherwise have been necessary to mention the names of the members composing the said Company, it shall be sufficient to use the name of such Inspector or Director for the time being of the Board of Direction in Sydney.

(Proceedings not to abate by death of the party to the suit.)

II. And be it enacted, that neither the death, resignation nor removal of any such Inspector or Director for the time being, shall abate or prejudice any such action, suit, prosecution, or proceeding, but the same may be continued in the name of the next or other succeeding Inspector or Director for the time being of the said Bank: Provided always, that no second suit, action, or other proceeding shall be at any time commenced by or against any such Inspector or Director for the same cause of action, where the merits shall have been tried and decided in the first suit or action.

(Memorial of name of Inspector and Local Directors to be registered.)

III. And be it enacted, That a Memorial of the name of the Inspector of the said Bank, and also of all the Directors for the time being of the Board of Direction in Sydney, in the form of or to the effect set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed, signed by the said Inspector, and by each of the Directors of the Board in Sydney, shall be recorded upon oath in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, within thirty days after the passing of this Act; and when and as often as any person shall be newly elected Inspector or Director of the said Board of Directors in Sydney, a Memorial of the name of such newly elected Inspector or Director, in the same form or to the same effect as the above mentioned Memorial, signed by such newly elected Inspector or Director, shall in like manner be recorded upon oath in the said Supreme Court, within thirty days next after such new Inspector or Director shall be elected: Provided always, that until such Memorial as hereinbefore first mentioned, shall be recorded in the manner herein directed, no action, suit, or other proceeding shall be instituted or prosecuted by the said Bank under the authority of this Act.

(Names of the then existing Members of the Company and their places of abode to be recorded in the Supreme Court of New South Wales.)

IV. And whereas, also it is deemed expedient and necessary that the names, residences, and descriptions of all the Members of the said Banking Company should be recorded for public information: Be it enacted, that the Inspector for the time being shall, within thirty days after the passing of this Act, and within fifteen days from the first day of July in each succeeding year, cause a true list of all the then existing members of the said Company, with their respective places of abode, (as far as the same may be known to him), and descriptions, to be recorded in the Supreme Court of New South Wales; and that the same shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times, by any person requiring the same, on payment of a fee of one shilling; and if any such Inspector of the said Company shall fail to cause such list to be recorded in manner aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty of £100, to be recovered by action of debt in the said Supreme Court by any person or persons suing for the same.

(Partners and Officers of the Bank competent witnesses.)

V. And be it enacted, That any person whose name shall be so recorded, shall be considered a member of the said Company, and be liable to be sued as such until a new list of the Members' names shall be recorded as aforesaid, or until he shall give notice of his retirement in the New South Wales Government Gazette: Provided always, That in all actions, suits, prosecutions, or other proceedings in which the said Inspector or Director for the time being of the Board of Direction in Sydney, shall be, on behalf of the said Bank, and under and by virtue of this Act, Plaintiff, Complainant, Petitioner, or Defendant, it shall and may be lawful for the said Inspector or Director, or for any other Officer engaged in the executive duties of the said Bank, to give evidence in such action, suit, petition, or other proceeding, notwithstanding such Inspector or Director, for the time being, or other officer aforesaid, shall or may be interested in the said action as a Shareholder or Copartner in the said Bank or otherwise.

(Attested Copy of Deed of Copartnership and Settlement to be registered in the Supreme Court.)

VI. And be it enacted, That a Copy of the Deed of Copartnership and Settlement, attested by the Inspector for the time being to be a true transcript of the Original Deed of Copartnership and Settlement of the said Company, shall be registered with the Registrar of the Supreme Court of the said Colony, within thirty days after the passing of this Act; and that the same shall be open for inspection, at all reasonable times, by any person requiring the same, on payment of a fee of one shilling; and if such Inspector shall fail so to register such attested Copy of the Original Deed of Copartnership and Settlement of the said Company as aforesaid, he shall be liable to a Penalty of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, in the said Supreme Court, by any person or persons suing for the same.

(Judgments in any suit, &c., brought under this Act, to affect all Shareholders in the same manner as if obtained against them individually.)

VII. And be it enacted, That every judgment decree, or order, in any action, suit, or other proceeding, at Law or in Equity, against any such Inspector or Director for the time-being as aforesaid, shall have the same effect and operation upon the joint stock and property of the said Company, and the persons and separate property of every Shareholder or Proprietor thereof, as if every such Shareholder or Proprietor had been party to such action, suit or proceeding, and such judgment, decree, or order, had been obtained against him or them jointly and severally, and may be enforced accordingly against either such joint stock and property, or against the persons and separate property of any such Inspector or Director for the time-being as aforesaid, or of any Proprietor or Shareholder of the said Company: Provided always, That every such Inspector, Director, Proprietor, or Shareholder shall be reimbursed all such costs, damages, and expenses, as by any such event of any such suit, action, or other proceeding, he shall sustain and be made liable to, out of the joint stock and funds of the said Company; or in failure thereof out of the separate funds and property of the other Members of the said Company, in due proportion, as in ordinary cases of Co-partnership.

(Act to extend to all future Proprietors.)

VIII. And be it enacted, That this Act, and the powers and provisions herein contained, shall at all times extend to the said Company, and every person who shall be a Member thereof, for the time-being, at whatever time he may have become a Member of the said Company, and whether originally a Member thereof or not.

(Act not to affect the rights of Her Majesty.)

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to affect or apply to any right, title, or interest, of Her Majesty, Her Heirs, and Successors, or of any body or bodies, politic or corporate, of any person or persons, excepting such as are mentioned therein, or of those claiming by, from, or under him or them.

(Company not incorporated by this Act.)

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to incorporate the Members of the said Company, or to relieve or discharge them or any of them from any responsibility, duty, contract, or obligation whatsoever, which by law they now are or at any time hereafter shall be subject or liable to, either between the said Company or any of them and others, or among themselves, or in any other manner whatsoever, except so far as the same is affected by the provisions of this Act, and the true intent and meaning of the same.

(This Act not to take effect until the same shall receive the Royal Approbation.)

XI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not commence or take effect until the same shall have received the Royal approbation, and the notification of such approbation shall have been made by His Excellency the Governor in the New South Wales Government Gazette.

(This Act to be deemed a Public Act.)

XII. And be it enacted, That when, and as soon as this Act shall have received the Royal approbation, and the notification of such approbation shall have been made as aforesaid by His Excellency the Governor in the New South Wales Government Gazette, this Act shall be deemed and No. 453. September 28, 1839.

taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by the Judges of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, and by all other Judges, Justices, and others within the Colony of New South Wales and its Dependencies, without being specially pleaded.

No. 10.

By His Excellency Sir George Gipps, Knight, Captain-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, with the Advice of the Legislative Council.

"An Act to alter and improve the mode of "Electing a Chairman for Courts of General
"and Quarter Sessions in New South
"Wales."

WHEREAS, by an Act of the Governor and Council, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George 10 Geo. IV., the Fourth, intituled, "An Act for instituting and regulating Courts of General Quarter Sessions in New South Wales," provision is made for the election, nomination, and appointment of a Justice of the Peace, qualified as therein-mentioned, to act as a Chairman of the several Courts of Quarter Sessions in the said Colony; and whereas, it is expedient to alter and amend the said Act so far as the same relates to such provision; and whereas, by another Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty 4 Wm. IV., King William the Fourth, intituled, No. 16.

"An Act to amend an Act of the Governor and Council, intituled, 'An Act for instituting Courts of General and Quarter Sessions in New South Wales,'" provision is made for the nomination and appointment of a Chairman of Quarter Sessions for the district of Bathurst, and it is expedient that so much thereof as relates to the nomination and appointment of a Chairman for said district should be altered: Be it therefore enacted, by His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Legislative Council, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said recited Acts as relates to the election, nomination, and appointment of a Chairman of the several Courts of Quarter Sessions in the Colony aforesaid, or any of them, and the qualifications required for such office, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

(Justices to meet for the purposes of election at some place where Petty Sessions are holden, on the first Monday in September in every year.)

II. And be it enacted, That the said Chairman shall be chosen, nominated, and appointed, in manner following—that is to say, the Justices of the Peace for the said Colony shall, and they are hereby required to attend, at some place within the said Colony where Petty Sessions have been duly appointed to be holden, and between the hours of twelve and four o'clock in the day, on the third Tuesday in the month of October in the present year, and on the first Monday in the month of September in every following year, the said Justices so attending at such time and at such place or places, shall then and there declare, in writing, in the form or to the effect set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, which of the several Justices of Peace for said Colony, they severally and respectively desire to have appointed as such Chairman as aforesaid; and the Police Magistrate of the district, if present at the meeting, or if not, then the senior Magistrate present, shall forthwith transmit the voting paper or papers, or any declaration in writing as aforesaid, to the Colonial Secretary, for the purpose of being laid before His Excellency the Governor; and the Justice of Peace, in whose favour the greatest number of Justices throughout the Colony should have so recorded their votes or declarations in writing as aforesaid, shall be declared and appointed by the said Governor to be Chairman of the several Courts of Quarter Sessions within the said

Colony for the year then next following, commencing from the first day of January of such year: Provided always, that if there should be an equality of votes for two or more Justices, it shall be lawful for the said Governor, and he is hereby required to appoint either of the said Justices to be such Chairman as he shall see fit: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any place where Petty Sessions are or shall be held within the district of Port Phillip, or any other district within the said Colony for which a Chairman of the Quarter Sessions is now, or shall be hereafter actually nominated and appointed, under the provision of the said hereinbefore last recited Act of Council for the appointment of Chairmen to distant places.

(Certain provisions in 4 William IV., No. 16, not to be repealed.)

III. And be it declared and enacted, That nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to repeal or alter the provisions contained in the Act hereinbefore last recited for the appointment of a Chairman at distant places, and also for supplying the place of the Chairman in case of death, resignation, removal, or illness, but the same shall remain and be in full force and effect, and shall be held to apply, as far as the same may be necessary, to the Chairman so to be elected, nominated, and appointed under and by virtue of the provisions of this Act.
