

NEW SOUTH WALES GOVERNMENT GAZETTE,

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1841.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GIPPS, Knight, Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS, by an Act of the Governor and Council of New South Wales, passed in the fourth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the Regulation of Gaols, Prisons, and Houses of Correction in the Colony of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and for other purposes relating thereto," it is enacted, That all Buildings, Erections, Houses, and Premises, which should hereafter be erected, built, purchased, enlarged, or maintained at the public expense, as and for public Gaols, Prisons, and Houses of Correction within the said Colony and its Dependencies, and which should, by Proclamation, to be from time to time published in the New South Wales Government Gazette, by order of the Governor for the time being of the said Colony, be declared and notified as such public Gaols, Prisons, or Houses of Correction, should, from and after the publication of such notification, be severally deemed and taken to be the public Gaol, Prison, or House of Correction, of the place or District where the same was or should be situated within the said Colony or its Dependencies, respectively, and should be subject to the several provisions thereafter made for the regulation, management, care, and discipline of the public Gaols, Prisons, and Houses of Correction belonging to the said Colony and its Dependencies, and of the Prisoners confined within the same.

Now, therefore, I, the GOVERNOR, by virtue of the said recited Act, and in furtherance of the power and authority thereby in me vested, do hereby proclaim, declare, and notify the building, known as the Eastern Watch House, at the angle of Stephen-street and Collins-lane, in the Town of Melbourne, in the District of Port Phillip, to be a public Gaol, Prison, and House of Correction.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Sydney, this eighteenth day of December, One thousand eight hundred and forty-one.

(L. s.) (Signed) GEORGE GIPPS.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 20th December, 1841.
COUNCIL.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR is pleased to direct that the general objects of the following Bill, about to be brought under consideration of the Legislative Council, be published for general information.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

No. 1.—"A Bill to facilitate Proceedings by and against the Proprietors of a certain Joint Stock Company, lately carrying on business at Melbourne, in the District of Port Phillip, in the Colony of New South Wales, under the name, style, or firm, of "THE MELBOURNE AUCTION COMPANY," and for other purposes therein mentioned."

It is proposed, by this Bill, to enable the Proprietors of the said Joint Stock Company, to sue and be sued, in the name of their Manager, in order to wind up their affairs, and to relieve them from any penalties to which they may have subjected themselves, in case they should not have been duly licensed.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 16th December, 1841.

TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS REWARD,

OR

A CONDITIONAL PARDON.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Government that two Drays, laden with produce—the one a Bullock Dray belonging to Mr. Thomas Cowper, in charge of a Ticket of Leave holder, named Edmund Ireland, and an Aboriginal Native, and the other a Horse Dray belonging to Mr. Samuel Bawtree, in charge of two free men, named William Fraser, senior and junior, are supposed to have been Robbed near Bargo, and some of these persons Murdered;—His Excellency the GOVERNOR directs it to be notified, that a Reward of Twenty-five Pounds will be paid to any Free Person or Persons who may give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the Party or Parties by whom the Drays may have been Robbed, and any of the persons in charge of them, Murdered; and that if the party giving such information be a Prisoner of the Crown, application will be made to Her Majesty for the allowance of a Conditional Pardon to such Prisoner of the Crown.

The Drays were last seen at an encampment between Lupton's Inn and the Lock-up House, on the 8th November last, where one of them has since been found secreted in the Bush; and it is stated that Mr. Cowper's Dray was seen in possession of a man named John Snelling, per Lady Feversham, in 1830, a description of whose person is annexed.

By His Excellency's Command,

E. DEAS THOMSON.

DESCRIPTION.

Name, John Snelling; Ship, Lady Feversham, 1830; Calling, Poulterer, Butcher, and Stableman; Sentence, Life; Height, 5 feet 3½ inches; Complexion, Ruddy Fair; Hair, Fair; Eyes, Hazel.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.

ALL Persons having claims on the Colonial Treasury are requested to furnish their accounts, through the proper channel, before the end of the year, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

The several Collectors and Officers in the receipt of public monies will pay over to the Colonial Treasurer, on or before the 31st December next, the amount of all collections remaining in their hands, respectively, up to that date, so that the entire revenue collected by each may be credited in the accounts of the year within which it was received. The Heads of Departments and other Officers who have received advances to enable them to defray expenses incurred under their superintendence, are requested to furnish to the Audit Office, as far as practicable, and with all convenient dispatch, the accounts of the expenditure thereof, and on or before the last day of next month, to pay into the Colonial Treasury the unexpended balance of such advances, that the adjustment of the same may appear in the accounts to the 31st proximo.

They will also, as soon as practicable after the close of the year, bring forward all accounts of expenses incurred within the same, which do not admit of being previously settled, so that, if possible, all the expenses incurred in the present year may be finally adjusted and liquidated within one month after its termination.

The Colonial Treasurer is requested to use his endeavours to give effect to these directions, and to report through the proper channel, for the information of his Excellency the Governor, any instance of neglect in complying therewith, on the part of the Public Officers concerned.

By His Excellency's Command,

E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Sydney, 10th November, 1841.

MARKET DUES.

AT Twelve o'Clock, on WEDNESDAY, the 22nd day of December next, the Colonial Treasurer will put up to Auction, at the Colonial Treasury, in Bent-street, Sydney, the Leases for one year, commencing the 1st day of January, 1842, of the Market Dues, authorised and imposed by the Act of the Governor and Council, 2 William IV., No. 16, arising and to be collected at the undermentioned Markets, under and subject to the provisions of the said Act, and the Act 4 William IV., No. 7, and to the Market Rules and Regulations, published in the Government Gazette of 3rd December, 1834, and to all other Rules and Regulations, which shall at any time during the said term of twelve months be made and enforced for the Regulation of any or all of the said Markets, viz :—

1st.—Sydney (George-street) Market; the Market Dues demandable for the Stalls in the three buildings, marked B., C., and D., reserving from the south-east building, letter C., the constant use of one Stall for the Clerk of the Market; the building, A., will be reserved for the use of such Settlers as may wish to dispose of their own produce, and for the Shows of the Australian Floral and Horticultural Society. Upset price £550.

2nd.—Sydney Hay, Corn, and Cattle Market, situate at the foot of the Brickfield Hill, the Market Dues demandable thereat. Upset price £105.

Each Lessee, with two responsible sureties, must enter into a Bond and Warrant of Attorney, securing regular payment of rent by equal monthly instalments, before the expiration of seven days after the termination of each month, and containing an engagement binding him to a due observance of the conditions.

The attention of intending bidders is particularly directed to the following article of the conditions of Sale, the requirements of which will be in future strictly enforced, viz :—

“ That the respective Lessees of the Markets shall put into a good and sufficient state of repair and condition, the folds, enclosures, and fences of each of the said Markets, respectively, and shall keep them so during the said term of twelve months, and at the expiration thereof shall surrender and yield up the same in good plight, repair, and condition; and if they or either of them shall fail to deliver them in the state of repair just mentioned, the Lessee or Lessees so failing shall pay, along with his or their last month's rent, such a sum or sums as shall be requisite to effect the repairs required, to be determined by the report of the Colonial Architect, or any other qualified person appointed to inspect the same under the authority of the Governor, which sum shall become and be a part of the rent agreed to be paid for the said Markets respectively, and shall be recoverable in like manner by distress and sale of the defaulters goods and chattels, under a Warrant to be issued by the said Colonial Treasurer, or the Colonial Treasurer of the Colony, for the time being.”

Further particulars may be obtained by application at the Colonial Treasury.
