NOTICE TO MARINERS.

LIGHT-HOUSE ON THE MAPLIN SAND.

Trinity-House, London, January 14, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the light-house, which has been for some time past in course of erection upon the Maplin Sand, is nearly completed; and that the light therein will be exhibited, for the first time, on the evening of Wednesday the 10th February next; at which time the light, hitherto shewn on board of a vessel moored off that Sand, will be discontinued, and the vessel taken away.

Mariners are to observe, that this light-house is erected upon the south eastern projecting part of the Sand, where it becomes dry, or nearly so, at low water spring tides; and they are particularly cautioned and enjoined never, under any circumstances, either by night or by day, to attempt to cross the Sand to the northward of the building.

Mariners are also to observe that, in this light-house, a fixed light, coloured red, and visible in all directions, will be exhibited.

REWARDS FOR THE APPREHENSION OF RUNAWAY CONVICTS.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR is pleased to direct, with reference to the Notices from this Office of 13th of April, 1832, and 12th November, 1838, that the existing regulations respecting the payment of rewards for the apprehension of Convicts illegally at large, be considered cancelled, and that the following be adopted in their room, viz :—

1. For the apprehension and conveyance, before a Magistrate, of every Convict who shall have absconded, or been absent for any period, with intent to abscond, from ordinary Government work, or the service of an individual, there shall be paid as a reward the sum of Ten Shillings, which sum may be increased to any amount not exceeding Twenty Shillings, if the Magistrate before whom the Convict is taken shall consider that, from any particular circumstances attending the capture, the Constable or person capturing is deserving of a higher reward than Ten Shillings.

2. For the apprehension and conveyance before a Magistrate, of every Convict, who, whilst serving under sentence to an Ironed Gang, or as a second class Convict, shall have absconded, or been absent, with intent to abscond, from any Ironed Gang, or Stockade, or otherwise from legal custody, the sum of Twenty Shillings, which sum may be increased to any amount not exceeding Thirty Shillings, if judged proper by the Magistrate, for the reasons stated in the foregoing paragraph.

3. For the apprehension and conveyance before a Magistrate, of any runaway Convict, who, being under a charge of any Transportable offence, shall afterwards be committed to take his trial for the same before the Supreme Court, or any Circuit Court, or Court of General Quarter Sessions, the sum of Fifty Shillings; but if the prisoner apprehended be an armed Bushranger, or capital Felon, the sum of Three Pounds will be paid, which latter sum may be increased to any amount not exceeding Five Pounds, if judged proper by the Magistrate, for the reasons stated in paragraph 1. And in order to ensure a speedy apprehension of offenders, an addition will be made to the rewards specified in this paragraph of one-fourth their respective rates, if the offender be captured within twenty-one days after he shall have absconded, of one-third if within fourteen days, and of one half if within one week. Under this paragraph, therefore, it will be seen, that whilst the Reward will never be less than Fifty Shillings, it may, under Special circumstances, be increased to Seven Pounds Ten Shillings.

4. It is to be distinctly understood, that the Rewards specified in the 3rd section of these Regulations are not to be paid in any case where the Prisoner apprehended is tried under summary jurisdiction, by Magistrates in Petty Sessions.

5. It is also to be distinctly understood, that one Reward only can be paid, under these Regulations, for the apprehension of any Convict; and that if the higher reward be claimed on the committal of such Convict for any of the offences before mentioned, the lower or apprehension Reward will merge in it.

6. Rewards under these Regulations are to be immediately paid on the spot by the Police Magistrate, or Bench of Magistrates, in conformity with the instructions contained in the circular letter from this Office, of this date.

7. When any person serving under sentence as a Convict shall render any service in the discovery or apprehension of offenders, which would, under the above Regulations, entitle him to a pecuniary Reward, he shall receive such a remission of sentence as it may be in the power of the Governor to make to him, the lowest reward being a remission of six months in the calculation of his time for a Ticket-of-Leave, and the highest an Absolute Pardon.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.
