General Post Office,
Sydney, 12th July, 1842.

THE following Letter, from the Postmaster General of Ceylon, is published for general information.

JAMES RAYMOND,
Postmaster General.

General Post Office,
Colombo, 13th January, 1842.

Sir,

I have this day received, from the ship China, Captain Robertson, four box Packets, from your Office, for the Postmaster General, at Bombay, and they shall be forwarded by the steam-packet Seaforth, which will leave in a few days for that Presidency. Captain Robertson also sent on shore several loose Letters—not bearing the Stamp of your Office—addressed to Bombay and England; these I have been obliged to return to him, as all such letters must be pre-paid here. As this may cause disappointment to the writers, I take the liberty to suggest, that Notice should be given, that no Letters arriving here, not enclosed in a Post Office Packet, can be sent from the Island, unless the established rates of Postage be paid on them.

I have the honor be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
GEORGE LEE,
Postmaster General.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following CLAIMS for DEEDS of GRANT of LANDS and TOWN ALLOTMENTS will be ready for the examination of the Commissioners appointed for that purpose under the Act of Council 5 William IV, No. 21, at the expiration of two months from this date; before which day any caveat or counter claim must be entered at this Office. Due notice will be given of the days appointed for the hearing.

Case No. 1127.—Patrick Hill, of Parran.atta, Surgeon.

Four Thousand acres, county of Murray, parish unnamed, at Bungendore, near Lake George; bounded on the west by a line south 308 chains, commencing at the south-east corner of Henry Brooks' additional grant; on the south by a line east 276 chains to Turrallo Creek; on the east by Turrallo Creek to the Village Reserve, on the north by the Village Reserve bearing south 37 chains, west 80 chains, and north 28 chains to Turrallo Creek; and on the north-east by Turrallo Creek to the south-east corner of Henry Brooks' additional grant aforesaid.

By an order of Governor Darling's, dated 2nd September, 1833, Richard Brooks was authorized to purchase 4000 acres of land. He is now deceased, and claimant asks for the deed of grant as sole acting Trustee under the will of Richard Brooks.

Case No. 1128.—George Furber, of Maitland, Settler.

Twenty-four perches, county of Northumberland, parish of Newcastle, town of Newcastle, allotment No. 58; bounded on the west by one chain of the east side of Bolton-street, bearing north 7 degrees east; on the north by 1 chain and 50 links of the south side of Hunter-street, bearing east 7 degrees south; on the east by a line dividing it from allotment No. 57, bearing south 7 degrees, west 1 chain; and on the south by a line dividing it from allotment No. 55; bearing west 7 degrees, north 1 chain and 50 links to Bolton-street.

This allotment was located on an order of Sir Thomas Brisbane, dated 5th May, 1823, in favour of John Tucker, who, it is alleged, sold to Patrick Reilly, deceased, who devised to claimant. A deed of grant is prayed for on the condition of paying a sum equal to 21 years quit-rent.

Case No. 1129.—George Furber, of Maitland, Settler.

Thirty-six perches, county of Northumberland, parish of Newcastle, town of Newcastle, allotment No. 55, bounded on the west by 1 chain of the east side of Bolton-street; bearing north 7 degrees east; on the north by a line dividing it from allotments Nos. 58 and 57, bearing east 7 degrees south 2 chains and 25 links; on the east by a line dividing it from allotment No. 54, bearing south 7 degrees, west 1 chain; and on the south by a line dividing it from allotment No. 53, bearing west 7 degrees, north 2 chains and 25 links to Bolton-street.

This allotment was located on one of the orders issued by Sir Thomas Brisbane, in favour of Patrick Reilly, dated 11th September, 1823, and 6th December, 1823. He is now deceased, having devised to claimant who consents to pay a fine for the deeds equal to 21 years quit-rent.

Case No. 1130.—John Hillas, of Bunnaby, and William Burgin, of Parramatta, as Trustees, by their attorney, A. Hayward, Esquire.

Forty-six perches, county of Cumberland, parish of the Field of Mars, town of Parramatta, allotment No. 5 on the north side of Pennant-street in section No. 7; and bounded on the west by a line 2 chains 33 links; on the north by a line 1 chain 27 links; on the east by a line to Pennant-street 2 chains 33 links; and on the south by that street 1 chain 26 links.

This allotment was leased by Sir Thomas Brisbane for twenty-one years from 30th June, 1823, to William Burgin, who conveyed to claimants as Trustees under the marriage settlement of Elizabeth Burgin with George Hillas. The deed is prayed for on proposing to pay a fine equal to 21 years quit-rent, as provided for by the lease.

Case No. 1131.—John Hillas, of Bunnaby, and William Burgin, of Parramatta, as Trustees, by their Attorney, A. Hayward, Esq.

One hundred and forty-three perches, county of Cumberland, parish of the Field of Mars, town of Parramatta, allotment No. 5, on the east side of the Windsor Road, in section No. 7; and bounded on the north by a line 2 chains 11 links to the west boundary of No. 16, Ross-street; by that boundary 65 links and by a line 1 chain 15 links; on the east by a line 2 chains 33 links; on the south by Pennant-street to the Windsor Road 3 chains 20 links; and on the west by that road 2 chains 95 links.

This allotment was leased by Sir Thomas

Brisbane for 21 years, from 30th June, 1823, to William Burgin, who conveyed to claimants, as Trustees under the marriage settlement of Elizabeth Burgin with George Hillas. The deed is prayed for on proposing to pay a fine equal to 21 years quit-rent as provided for by the lease.

TO THE
NEW SOUTH WALES
GOVERNMENT GAZETTE,

OF FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1842.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1842.

ANNO SEXTO,
VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. 1.

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GIPPS, Knight, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, with the advice of the Legislative Council.

An Act to permit Goods, the Produce or Manufacture of New Zealand or Van Diemen's Land, to be Imported into the Colony of New South Wales, free of Duty; and to indemnify certain Officers for acts already done.

WHEREAS New Zealand has been recently formed into a separate and independent Colony; and whereas the free importation into New South Wales of goods and manufactures, the produce of New Zealand or Van Diemen's Land, may be productive of considerable commercial advantages to the trade, as well of New South Wales as of both those Colonies: Be it therefore enacted, by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice of the Legislative Council thereof, That from and after the passing of this Act, all goods and commodities, (except spirituous liquors, cordials, or liqueurs) being the growth, produce, or manufacture of Van Diemen's Land, or of New Zealand, may be imported into the Colony of New South Wales, free of any duty. (Not to extend to articles of foreign growth or manufacture.)

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to allow of the importation, free of duty, of any goods or commodities whatever, not being the growth, production, or manufacture of Van Diemen's Land or New Zealand respectively; but that all articles of foreign growth, production, or manufacture, imported from any place or port in Van Diemen's Land, or New Zealand, into New South Wales, shall be liable and subject to the payment of such duties as may be imposed and chargeable according to the laws and regulations in force in New South Wales, at the time of the importation of such articles of foreign growth or manufacture.

(To remove doubts which may have existed in respect to the admission, free of duty, of the produce of Van Diemen's Land, since the passing of the Act 4 Victoria, No. 11, and to indemnify Officers of the Customs for acts already done.)

III. And whereas since the passing, in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, of the Act, intituled "An Act for increasing the duties on Spirits, Wine, and other goods, and merchandise, imported into the Colony of New South Wales and its Dependencies"—doubts may arise as to the exemption from duty of the produce or manufactures of Van Diemen's Land, (excepting spirituous liquors) imported into New South Wales;—for the removal of such doubts, as well as for the indemnification of all Officers of Customs in New South Wales, or any person or persons acting in their aid or assistance, Be it enacted, That all Officers of Customs, and any person or persons acting in their aid or assistance, shall be freed and discharged from all damages, penalties, forfeitures, and charges whatsoever, to which they might otherwise be liable, for having permitted the importation of the produce or manufactures of Van Diemen's Land, (excepting spirituous liquors, cordials or liqueurs) into the Colony of New South Wales, without any duty being paid thereon; and that all such importation shall be, and is hereby declared to be, good and effectual in law, as if such persons respectively had acted under or by virtue of this Act or Ordinance.

"GEORGE GIPPS,"

Passed the Legislative Council this thirtieth day of June, One thousand eight hundred and forty-two.

FRANCIS L. S. MEREWETHER,
Clerk of Councils.

Sydney:—Printed by WILLIAM JOHN ROW, Government Printer, and Published by him at the Government Printing Office, Bent-street.—
July 16, 1842.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters. This section also touches upon the legal implications of failing to maintain such records, including potential penalties and the risk of legal action.

2. The second part of the document provides a detailed overview of the various types of records that should be maintained. This includes financial records, such as invoices, receipts, and bank statements, as well as operational records, such as contracts, correspondence, and internal communications. The document also mentions the importance of keeping records of personnel files and other HR-related documents.

3. The third part of the document discusses the methods and tools used for record-keeping. It highlights the benefits of using digital record-keeping systems, such as increased efficiency, ease of access, and the ability to search and filter records. It also mentions the importance of ensuring that digital records are properly backed up and secured to prevent data loss or unauthorized access.

4. The fourth part of the document provides practical advice on how to implement a record-keeping system. It suggests starting with a clear plan, identifying the types of records to be maintained, and choosing the appropriate tools and methods. It also emphasizes the importance of training staff on the new system and ensuring that all records are properly categorized and labeled.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the ongoing maintenance and review of records. It suggests that records should be reviewed regularly to ensure they are up-to-date and accurate. It also mentions the importance of archiving records that are no longer actively used but may still be needed for legal or historical purposes.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of record retention and disposal. It provides information on the legal requirements for how long records should be kept and the proper methods for disposing of records that have reached the end of their retention period. It also mentions the importance of documenting the disposal process to ensure compliance with legal requirements.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the role of records in various business processes. It highlights how records can be used to track performance, identify trends, and make informed decisions. It also mentions the importance of records in resolving disputes and providing evidence in legal proceedings.

8. The eighth part of the document provides a summary of the key points discussed in the document. It reiterates the importance of maintaining accurate records and provides a final call to action, encouraging readers to take the steps necessary to implement a robust record-keeping system.

THE following Letter, from the Postmaster General of Ceylon, is published for general information.

JAMES RAYMOND,
Postmaster General.

General Post Office,
Colombo, 13th January, 1842.

Sir,
I have this day received, from the ship China, Captain Robertson, four box-Packets, from your Office, for the Postmaster General, at Bombay, and they shall be forwarded by the steam-packet Seaforth, which will leave in a few days for that Presidency. Captain Robertson also sent on shore several loose Letters—not bearing the Stamp of your Office—addressed to Bombay and England; these I have been obliged to return to him, as all such letters must be pre-paid here. As this may cause disappointment to the writers, I take the liberty to suggest, that Notice should be given, that no Letters arriving here, not enclosed in a Post Office Packet, can be sent from the Island, unless the established rates of Postage be paid on them.

I have the honor be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

GEORGE LEE,

The Postmaster }
General, Sydney. } Postmaster General.

General Post Office,
Sydney, 16th July, 1842.
