As expedition is of so much importance, offers for any quicker Conveyance of the Mails than is now effected will be favourably entertained; but it is to be understood that they are to be dispatched on the days and hours to be fixed by the Postmaster-General, either according to the present arrangement, or as he may afterwards determine for the public convenience.

It will be optional with parties to offer for one or more of the above lines of stages, and to propose the mode of conveyance; but on all roads where wheel vehicles can travel, a preference will be given to carriage conveyance, and the contractors will be held strictly bound to use the conveyance they propose, and to travel at the rate agreed upon. The rate of travelling is not to be less than six miles per hour, including all stoppages. The Contractors are to carry all bags and letters which may be delivered to them under authority of the Postmaster-General, or any of the Postmasters, and to provide secure lockers for the Mails in carriages, and dry coverings for the bags on horseback.

Contractors will be bound to prevent the conveyance of any letter or packet, by any of their servants, or passengers, or otherwise, to the prejudice of the Post Office Revenue, under a penalty of £5 for each and every offence.

Contractors will be liable to a fine of five shillings for every five minutes delay after the specified time of starting; and to a like penalty for every ten minutes delay after the specified time of arrival, except for the first five and ten minutes respectively.

A Mail Cart or Carriage, drawn only by one horse, must not carry more than one passenger; by two horses, not more than three passengers; and by three or more horses, not more than six passengers, exclusive of the driver, under a penalty of £3 for each offence, on all roads except between Melbourne and Yass, and on that road the penalty will be £10.

All vehicles and horses employed in the conveyance of Mails, are to be at all times subject to the inspection and approval, or rejection of the Postmaster-General, or person appointed by him for that purpose. The drivers and postmen are to be free men, and of certified good character.

All fines and penalties incurred under the agreement are to be deducted by the Postmaster-General from the next quarterly instalment falling due to the Contractor, and to be considered as over and above any penalties provided by any Act of Council.

Each party tendering, or an Agent for him, must attend at this Office on the day appointed for opening the Tenders; and each Tender must bear the signatures of two respectable and solvent persons, willing to enter into a bond with the Contractor for the safety of the Mails, and the due performance of the Contract.

The hours of starting from each Post Office, and other particulars, may be ascertained at the General Post Office, where parties proposing to Tender are invited to seek information.

Printed forms of Tender may be had on application at the General and all other Post Offices throughout the Colony.

In the Supreme Court of }
New South Wales. }

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c., &c.

To the Sheriff of New South Wales, or his lawful Deputy, Greeting:—

WHEREAS, upon the petition to the Honorable the Judges of our Supreme Court of New South Wales, of Saul Lyons, of Pitt-street, No. 73. SEPTEMBER 13, 1842.—3

Sydney, against John Thomas Wilson, late of George-street, Sydney, aforesaid, it appears to us that the said John Thomas Wilson is justly and truly indebted, to the said Saul Lyons in the sum of Five hundred and fifteen pounds two shillings and eleven pence, for goods sold and delivered by the said Saul Lyons to the said John Thomas Wilson, and also for certain promissory notes made by the said John Thomas Wilson in favour of the said Saul Lyons; and that on or about the nineteenth day of October, One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, the said John Thomas Wilson departed from his dwelling-house, with intent to defeat and delay the said Saul Lyons and others, his Creditors, in obtaining payment of their just debts to them due and owing. It further appearing, on the seventh day of September, 1842; that the said John Thomas Wilson, being so out of the said Colony, remained absent therefrom with intent to delay and defeat the said Saul Lyons, and others, the Creditors of him the said John Thomas Wilson, in obtaining payment of their just Debts, and did thereby commit an act of Insolvency, whereupon the said Saul Lyons prayed that the Estate of the said John Thomas Wilson might be Sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors; and whereas it further appears to us, in our said Court, that the Honorable Mr. Justice Burton, one of the Judges of the said Court, did, by order under his hand, bearing date the eighth day of September, A.D., 1842, place the Estate of the said John Thomas Wilson under Sequestration, in the hands of the Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates, at Sydney, until the same should be thereafter adjudged to be Sequestrated, or the said petition should be discharged.

Now, therefore, we command you, that you Summon the said John Thomas Wilson, that he be before our Justices of our Supreme Court, aforesaid, on the eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-three, at Ten o'clock of the Forenoon, to show cause, if he have any, why his Estate should not, by sentence of the said Court, be adjudged to be Sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors, and return you then there this writ, with whatever you have done thereupon.

Witness, the Honorable Sir James Dowling, our Chief Justice of our said Court, this ninth day of September, in the sixth year of our reign.

WILLIAM H. KERR,

case, be taken to be admitted by you, and the petitioning Creditor will not be required to prove the same.
