Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 12th December, 1842.
SUPREME COURT.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR directs it to be notified that, in pursuance of the provisions of the Act of the Colonial Legislature, 4 Victoria, No. 22, intituled "An Act for the more effectual Administration of Justice in New South Wales and its Dependencies," the following Rules and Orders of the Supreme Court have been transmitted to his Excellency by His Honor the Chief Justice, and will be forwarded, as soon as conveniently may be, to the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, for Her Majesty's approval or disallowance thereof.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

In the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Thursday, the First day of December, 1842.

REGULÆ GENERALES:

HOLIDAYS.

I. After the present year, the following days, and no other, shall be observed as Holidays in the Supreme Court and its Offices, namely:—New Year's Day; Foundation of the Colony, 26th January; Good Friday; the Feasts of Ascension; the Annunciation; and Whit Monday, except where the same shall fall during Term; Easter Monday; Her Majesty's Birth Day, 24th May; Her Majesty's Accession, 20th June; the first Monday in June; the first Monday in December; Christmas Day, and the day following;—and where any Holiday shall fall on a Sunday, it shall be kept on the day following.

(Terms.)

II. During the next Year, the Terms shall end, respectively, on the third Saturday next after their commencement, instead of the fourth Saturday, as at present.

(Sittings in Banco.)

III. The Court will sit in Banco on every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, in Term; and also on the last Saturday of Term, and on no other days. On such last day of Term, the same business will be taken as is now taken on the last day of Term, and no other.

(Equity and Insolvency.)

IV. The Judge in Equity will sit on every Wednesday in Term; and one of the Judges will sit, on the same day, to hear and determine cases in Insolvency.

(Short and undefended Causes.)

V. Undefended causes, and short causes, may also be set down for any Wednesday in Term, as at present; being such, only, as might, under the present Rules, be set down in any Supplemental List.

(Chamber Business.)

VI. Chamber Business will, during Term, be taken on Wednesdays and Saturdays only, except in cases of emergency, in which Summonses may be obtained, or made returnable on any day, at the rising of the Court. On Wednesdays and Saturdays, (the last Saturday of Term excepted,) they will be taken at the usual hour.

(Sittings after Term.)

VII. All Causes (except as aforesaid) shall, during the next year, be set down for trial after Term only, that is to say, Assessor Causes, in the first and second weeks, and Jury Causes, in the third and fourth weeks, after Term. Of the latter, Common Jury Causes to be set down for the first Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, only.

(Entering of Causes.)

VIII. The number of Defended Causes to be set down, consecutively, for each day, shall be as follows:—Assessor Causes, in the first week, twelve; in the second week, eight;—Common Jury Causes, eight;—Special Jury Causes, four: provided that on each of the first three Assessor Days, sixteen Causes may be entered if the Plaintiffs shall think fit. Undefended or Short Causes, respectively, may be set down, in addition to the prescribed number, on any Assessor Day, as at present.

(Sittings prior to Circuits.)

IX. After the first and third Terms, respectively, the sittings for Causes will terminate on Thursday, in the last week; that they may not interfere with the holding of the Circuit Courts.

(Sydney Criminal Sessions.)

X. The Criminal Sessions of the Supreme Court, holden at Sydney, shall, during the months of April, July, and October, commence on the first Monday in these Months.

(Causes on Circuit.)

XI. Causes for Trial on Circuit, shall be set down as follows; that is to say:—at Berrima, on Friday, in the first week; at Maitland, on Tuesday, in the second week; and at Bathurst, on Thursday, in the first week of the sittings, respectively.

(Demurrers.)

XII. On every Friday, in Term, Demurrers and Special Cases shall stand first for argument.

(Appeals.)

XIII. Appeals in Equity, and from Port Phillip, shall be set down for Friday, in the week preceding each Term.

W. W. BURTON,

ALFRED STEPHEN.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 26th November, 1842.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.

ALL Persons having claims on the Colonial Treasury are requested to furnish their accounts, through the proper channel, before the end of the year, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

The several Collectors and Officers in the receipt of public moneys will pay over to the Colonial Treasurer, on or before the 31st December next, the amount of all collections remaining in their hands, respectively, up to that date, so that the entire revenue collected by each may be credited in the accounts of the year within which it was received. The Heads of Departments and other Officers who have received advances to enable them to defray expenses incurred under their superintendence, are requested to furnish to the Audit Office, as far as practicable, and with all convenient despatch, the accounts of the expenditure thereof, and on or before the last day of next month, to pay into the Colonial Treasury the unexpended balance of such advances, that the adjustment of the same may appear in the accounts to the 31st proximo.

[1846]

They will also, as soon as practicable after the close of the year, bring forward all accounts of expenses incurred within the same, which do not admit of being previously settled, so that, if possible, all the expenses incurred in the present year may be finally adjusted and liquidated within one month after its termination.

The Colonial Treasurer is requested to use his endeavours to give effect to these directions, and to report, through the proper channel, for the information of his Excellency the Governor, any instance of neglect in complying therewith, on the part of the Government Officers concerned.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 8th December, 1842.

REWARDS FOR DISCOVERY OF ILLICIT DISTILLATION.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR is pleased to direct it to be notified that a Reward of Fifty pounds will be paid to any person who, either directly or indirectly, may give information to any Inspector of Distilleries, or other Officer of Government, leading to the seizure of an unlicensed Still in any part of the Colony; or information leading to the conviction of any person engaged either as a principal or authorised agent in a licensed Distillery, or rectifying establishment, of any offence against the Laws which exist for their regulation; or to the discovery of any practices in, or connected with, such establishments, by which the Revenue is defrauded.

The Governor further directs it to be notified, that if the person giving the information be a Prisoner of the Crown, His Excellency will take into his most favorable consideration the claim of such person for the highest indulgence which can, with propriety, be granted to him.

The rewards and indulgences held out by this notice will, moreover, be in addition to the share in any seizure which the informer may be entitled to by the law of the Colony.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 8th December, 1842.

REWARD FOR SEIZURE OF SPIRITS.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR is pleased to direct it to be notified, that in addition to a free Pardon, a sum of One hundred pounds has been given to the Prisoner of the Crown, named James Toomy, who recently afforded to the Water Police Magistrate information which led to an extensive Seizure of Spirits in Broken Bay.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 6th December, 1842.

GRANTS OF LAND.

THE following descriptions of GRANTS OF LAND, with the names of the persons to whom they were originally promised, or by whom they are now claimed, are published for general information, in order that all parties concerned may have an opportunity of correcting any errors or omissions that may have been made inadvertently.

It is requested, that within three months from the present date, the particulars required by the Government notice of the 1st October, 1838, may be accurately furnished to this Office, viz:—

Surname and all Christian names of the person in whose favour the Deed is to be prepared, written at full length, his residence, and the intended name of the property.

Also, (if required in any name but that of the original promisee,) the grounds of the claim, and a letter from the said promisee, if living, and from all intermediate assigns, if any, giving his and their consent and sanction thereto, and witnessed either by a Magistrate or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.

If these be duly furnished and satisfactory, and if no Caveat be lodged, or other cause of uncertainty appear, the deeds will be prepared accordingly, as soon as possible, after the expiration of the stated period of three months.

If the required particulars be not furnished within that period, or if a Caveat be lodged, or other cause of uncertainty arise which cannot be satisfactorily determined by the Government, the case will be referred to the Commissioners of Claims, and the parties subjected to the expense of that proceeding.

CAMDEN.

GRANTS OF TOWN ALLOTMENTS.

THE following descriptions of GRANTS OF TOWN ALLOTMENTS, with the names of the persons to whom they were originally promised, or by whom they are now claimed, are published for general information, in order that all parties concerned may have an opportunity of correcting any errors or omissions that may have been made inadvertently.

It is requested that within three months from the present date, the particulars required by the Government Notice of the 1st October, 1838, may be accurately furnished to this Office, viz:—

Surname and all Christian names of the person in whose favour the Deed is to be prepared, written at full length, and his residence.

Also, (if required in any name but that of the original promisee) the grounds of the claim, and a letter from the said promisee, if living, and from all intermediate assigns, if any, giving his and their consent and sanction thereto, and witnessed either by a Magistrate or by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.

If these be duly furnished and satisfactory, and if no Caveat be lodged, or other cause of uncertainty appear, the Deeds will be prepared accordingly, as soon as possible, after the expiration of the stated period of three months.

If the required particulars be not furnished within that period, or if a Caveat be lodged, or other cause of uncertainty arise which cannot be satisfactorily determined by the Government, the Case will be referred to the Commissioners of Claims, and the parties subjected to the expense of that proceeding.
