VICTORIA, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c., &c., &c.

To all and singular, Clerks and literate persons, whomsoever and wheresoever, in and throughout our Colony of New South Wales, and the Dependencies thereof, Greeting:—

WE do hereby authorise, empower, and strictly enjoin and command you, jointly and severally, peremptorily to cite, or cause to be cited, Thomas Broughton, James Holt, and Louisa Watkins, executors and executrix named in the last Will and Testament of Nathaniel George Watkins, late of George-street, Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales aforesaid, deceased, having whilst living, and at the time of his death, goods, chattels, and credits within our said Colony and the Dependencies thereof, sufficient to found the jurisdiction of our Supreme Court, to appear personally, or by their proctor, duly constituted, before our said Court, at the Court House, King-street, Sydney, aforesaid, on the fourteenth day after they shall have been served with this citation, if it be a Court day, or on the Court day then next following, at the hour of Ten o'clock in the Forenoon of the same day, and there to abide, if occasion shall require, during the sitting of the said Court, then and there to bring into, and leave in the Registry of our said Court, the true and original last Will and Testament, and Codicil thereto, of the said deceased, and to accept or refuse the burden of the probate on execution thereof, otherwise to shew good and sufficient cause, if they or either of them have or know any, why Letters of Administration, with the said Will and Codicil thereto annexed, of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, should not be committed and granted according to Law; and further, to do and receive as unto Law and Justice shall appertain, under pain of the Law, and contempt thereof, at the instance of Nathaniel Witts Watkins, a legatee under the will and codicil of the said deceased and what you shall do or cause to be done in the premises you shall duly certify unto our said Court together with these presents.

Witness the Honorable Sir James Dowling, Knight, Our Chief Justice of our said Court, at Sydney, the 6th day of April, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-three.

WILLIAM MACPHERSON,
Registrar of the Supreme Court.
GEORGE ALLEN,
Proctor for the said Nathaniel Witts Watkins.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c., &c., &c.

To the Sheriff of New South Wales or his lawful Deputy, Greeting.

WHEREAS, upon the Petition to the Honorable the Judges of our Supreme Court of New South Wales, of Gerald Henry Gibbons, and William Hulme Wills, both of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, against John Lloyd Smith, of Pitt-street, Sydney, butcher, it appears to us, that the said John Lloyd Smith is justly and truly indebted to them, the said Gerald Henry Gibbons, and William Hulme Wills, in the sum of One Hundred Pounds and upwards, of lawful money, for the amount of a certain Promissory Note, made by the said John Lloyd Smith, in favor of the said Gerald Henry Gibbons, and for certain Promissory Notes, endorsed by the said John Lloyd Smith, to the said William Hulme Wills; and that, on the 23rd day of February, A. D. 1843, the said John Lloyd Smith departed from his dwelling-house with intent to defeat the said Gerald Henry Gibbons, and William Hulme Wills, and others, his Creditors, in obtaining payment of their just debts to them due and owing, and did thereby commit an act of Insolvency, whereupon the said Gerald Henry Gibbons, and William Hulme Wills, prayed that the Estate of the said John Lloyd Smith might be sequestered for the benefit of his Creditors: And, whereas it further appears to us, in our said Court, that the Honorable William Westbrook Burton, one of the Judges of the said Court, did, by order under his hand, bearing date the eleventh day of March, place the Estate of the said John Lloyd Smith under sequestration, in the hands of the Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates, at Sydney, until the same should be thereafter adjudged to be sequestered, or the said Petition should be discharged: Now, therefore, we command you, that you summon the said John Lloyd Smith, that he be before our Justices of our Supreme Court aforesaid, on the tenth day of May next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if he have any, why his Estate should not, by sentence of the said Court, be adjudged to be sequestered for the benefit of his Creditors, and return you, then and there, this Writ, with whatever you have done thereupon.

Witness, the Honorable Sir James Dowling, Knight, our Chief Justice of our said Court, this eleventh day of March, in the sixth year of our reign.

(Signed) WILLIAM H. KERR,
Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates.

AUGUSTUS HAYWARD, of Sydney,
Creditors' Attorney.

MR. JOHN LLOYD SMITH,

TAKE Notice, that, within four days after service of this Summons, you must deliver to William Henry Kerr, Esquire, Chief Commissioner, at Sydney, if your residence is within 25 miles of such Commissioner's residence, and if at a greater distance, then you must, within the said time, put into the nearest post office, addressed to such Commissioner, a statement in writing, signed by you, of any facts alleged in this Summons which you intend to dispute; and all facts, no notice of an intention to dispute which, shall be so given, will, upon the hearing of the case, be taken to be admitted by you, and the petitioning Creditor will not be required to prove the same.

AUGUSTUS HAYWARD.

In the Supreme Court of }
New South Wales. }

Between Edward Dormer O'Reilly, gentleman, plaintiff, and

William Abercrombie and John Mackay, defendants.

IN pursuance of an order bearing date the eleventh day of April instant, made by the Honorable Sir James Dowling, Knight, Chief Justice of the said Court, I do hereby give notice, that an action on promises has been commenced in this Honorable Court, by the above-named plaintiff, against the above-named defendants, and I hereby require you the said William Abercrombie, one of the above-named defendants, to appear before the said Court, on the twenty-second day of April instant, and answer this action.—Dated this 11th day of April, 1843.

ADOLPHUS WILLIAM YOUNG,

Sheriff of the Colony of New South Wales.

To William Abercrombie, }
one of the above-named defendants. }

EDWARD DORMER O'REILLY,
