ORDER IN COUNCIL.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR has been pleased to direct the republication, from the London Gazette, of the following Order in Council, relating to Duties at the Cape of Good Hope.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th March, 1842.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made in the Session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late

Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled, "An Act to regulate the trade of the British Possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued, from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce of, to, and from any British possession on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary :

And whereas by an Order in Council, of the twenty-second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, made in pursuance of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," certain duties of Customs were imposed upon goods imported into the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope :

" And whereas by an Order in Council, of the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty, it was ordered, that the duties so imposed by the hereinbefore-mentioned Order in Council, of the twenty-second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, as aforesaid, should cease and be no longer payable, and that, in lieu thereof, there should be levied the several duties set forth in the table in the said Order now in recital contained :

And whereas by an Order in Council, of the eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, the said Order in Council, of the tenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty, was revoked, so far as it imposed certain duties, in the Order now in recital mentioned, on wood manufactured, and certain duties were imposed on unmanufactured wood as in the Order now in recital is mentioned :

And whereas by an Order in Council, also bearing date the said eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, it was ordered, that the duties then levied at the Cape of Good Hope and other colonies therein named, upon articles, the produce and manufacture of the British possessions in India, should be reduced or altered to the same rates as were then imposed upon similar articles, the produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom or of other British possessions :

And whereas it is expedient, that certain of the duties to which goods, wares, and merchandizes imported into the Cape of Good Hope are liable under the said recited Orders should be altered :

Her Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in Her as aforesaid by the Act of Parliament so passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth as aforesaid, order, and it is hereby ordered, that upon goods, wares, and merchandize, imported into the Cape of Good Hope, the duties respectively imposed by the hereinbefore recited Orders in Council of the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and the tenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, shall cease and be no longer payable, and that, in lieu of the same, there shall be levied and paid the several duties set forth in the table hereinafter contained :
