WHEREAS, by an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the fifth and sixth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that there should be, within the said Colony of New South Wales, a Legislative Council, to be constituted in the manner and for the purposes in the said Act mentioned, and that the said Council should consist of thirty-six Members, and that twelve of the Members of the said Council should, from time to time, in the manner therein mentioned, be appointed by Her Majesty, and that twenty-four of the Members of the said Council should, from time to time, in the manner therein mentioned, be elected by the Inhabitants of the said Colony: And whereas, by the said recited Act of Parliament, it was further enacted and provided, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Warrant or Warrants to be, from time to time, issued by Her Majesty, under Her Sign Manual, and countersigned by one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, to nominate such part of the said Council as, according to the said Act, is to be appointed by Her Majesty, and to designate such non-elective Members of the said Council, either by their proper names, or as holders, for the time being, of any public Offices within the said Colony; and that it should also be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such Warrant or Warrants, from time to time, to delegate to the Governor of the said Colony the power of nominating and designating such non-elective Members of the said Council, either by their proper names, or as holders, for the time being, of any such public Offices as aforesaid, such delegated power being exercised by any such Governor provisionally only, and until Her Majesty's pleasure should be known, and not to be exercised until the return of the Writs for the election of all the elective Members; and provided always that not more than half the number of such non-elective Members should hold any office of emolument under the Crown within the said Colony: And whereas, in pursuance of the said recited Act, Her Majesty has by a Warrant, under the Sign Manual, and countersigned by one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, delegated to Me as such Governor, as aforesaid, the power of nominating and designating the non-elective Members of the said Legislative Council, subject to the provisions of the said Act, as hereinbefore recited: Now, therefore, I, Sir George Gipps, as such Governor, as aforesaid, do hereby proclaim, that I have accordingly, in pursuance of the authority so vested in me, appointed the following Gentlemen to be the non-elective Members of the said Legislative Council, until Her Majesty's further pleasure shall be known, viz:—

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GIPPS, Knight, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS, by an Act of the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice of the Legislative Council, passed in the sixth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intitled "An Act to provide for the division of the Colony of New South Wales into Electoral Districts, and for the Election of Members to serve in the Legislative Council," it was, amongst other things enacted, that as divers of the Electoral Districts, appointed by the said Act, were far distant from the seat of Government, and of great extent, and unforeseen difficulties or delays might arise, in carrying into effect the several provisions in the said Act mentioned in regard to the Elections for the said Districts, no Election for any of the said Districts should be held to be void in consequence, solely, of any such delay in the holding of such Election at the time appointed, or in the return of the Writ, or of any impediment of a mere formal nature: Provided that the validity of such Election should be declared by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, within thirty days from the day on which such Election was held, or ought to have been held: Provided further, that any measure so adopted by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, should be duly notified by Proclamation in the New South Wales Government Gazette: And whereas, a Writ was issued for the Election of a Member to serve in the Legislative Council, for the Electoral District of the united north-western Counties of Gloucester, Macquarie, and Stanley, in which Writ the Poll for the said District was appointed to be taken on the 23rd day of June last past, and which Writ was made returnable on the eighth day of the present month of July; and whereas the Returning Officer, duly appointed for the said Electoral District, hath certified, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, that ALEXANDER M'LEAY, Esquire, was chosen by a majority of votes to be such Member, for the said District, but in consequence of unavoidable delay, the Poll to be taken at BRISBANE, one of the places duly appointed a Polling Place for the said District, was not taken until after the day so fixed, and the said Writ was not returned to the Governor within the period therein prescribed, as directed by the said Act:—Now therefore, I, Sir George Gipps, as such Governor aforesaid, do, by this my Proclamation, issued with the advice of the Executive Council aforesaid, declare that the Election of the said ALEXANDER M'LEAY, Esquire, to serve in the Legislative Council, for the Electoral District aforesaid, is valid, notwithstanding the delay in the taking of the Poll at BRISBANE, and in the return of the Writ of Election.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Sydney, this 17th day of July, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and in the seventh year of Her Majesty's Reign.

THE following General Rules, for the guidance of the Sheriff and his Officers, established by the Judges in the year 1834, are republished for general information.

By order of their Honors the Judges,
ALFRED ELYARD, Chief Clerk.

(Sheriff to cause personal property to be first sold.)

8. That in all cases where the Sheriff shall take both real and personal estate, belonging to the same party, in execution, he shall, unless the party shall otherwise desire, cause the personal estate to be first sold; and in case the proceeds be not sufficient to satisfy the execution, then he shall sell the real estate.

(Defendant may point out what property he will have first sold.)

9. That in cases where the personal property of any defendant shall be taken in execution, it shall be competent for such defendant to point out what part or parts thereof he will have first sold; and the part or parts so pointed out by the defendant, shall be first sold accordingly, under and subject to the same conditions as are provided respecting the sale of real property in such cases.

(Property to be sold as early as possible after levy, provided it be without sacrifice of the value.)

10. That where property of any description, real or personal, shall be taken by the Sheriff in execution, the same shall be put up for sale by him as early as may be with a due regard to the interests of all parties provided that if he cannot effect an early sale of any such property, without a sacrifice of the reasonable value thereof, and it shall appear to him to be best for the interests of all parties to delay the sale for a reasonable time, it shall be competent for him to delay the sale thereof, and by application to the Court, if selling, or otherwise, to a Judge at Chambers, to obtain an Order for enlarging, if necessary, the time for returning the writ.

(Sheriff may allow the defendant, after levy, to make sale.)

11. That if it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Sheriff, from the nature of the estate or effects taken in execution, the place where taken, and the circumstances of the defendant, that it would be beneficial to all parties if the defendant, after levy made were allowed to make sale thereof to the best advantage, in order to prevent a sacrifice of the property by a forced sale under the execution, it shall be competent to the Sheriff, if he shall think fit, to allow the defendant, under the superintendence of the Sheriff or his Bailiff, a reasonable time for the sale of such estate and effects, in such manner as shall appear to the Sheriff to be most likely to obtain the best prices for the same; and the Sheriff shall, by application to the Court, if sitting, or otherwise to a Judge at Chambers, obtain an order for enlarging, if necessary, the time for returning the writ, upon a suggestion by him of the circumstance.

(Sheriff to inform himself as to the best place for sale.)

12. That in all cases it should be the duty of the Sheriff, before he makes sale of any property, diligently to inform himself whether it would be best, with a view of obtaining the highest prices for the same, to cause the sale to be made at the place of levy, or elsewhere; and he shall proceed to sell at such place as shall, in his judgment, be best calculated to obtain such prices.

(Sale to be notified in Newspapers if in Sydney or within 20 miles.)

13. That where any property shall be intended to be put up for sale in Sydney, or within 20 miles thereof, the Sheriff shall cause notice of the time and place, and particulars thereof, to be given by advertisement in one or more of the Sydney Newspapers; and in all other cases shall cause such notice to be given, by affixing the same on the premises, and also in the most public place or places nearest to the intended place of sale.

(Either party may desire sale by auction.)

14. That if either party shall be desirous of having a sale by auction, of the estate and effects taken in execution, and shall require such sale by any memorandum in writing, signed by such party, or the attorney of such party, the Sheriff shall cause a sale by auction to be made thereof accordingly, by some indifferent duly licensed Auctioneer, to be by him appointed; and the party demanding such sale shall pay the expense thereof.
