EQUITABLE JURISDICTION.

MONDAY, the seventeenth day of July, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-three.

The following Rules having been established, it is Ordered, that they shall severally take effect, on and from the date hereof.

1. That all duties discharged in the High Court of Chancery in England, in respect of process issued out of the said Court, or otherwise, by a Serjeant at Arms, shall be discharged in this Colony by the Sheriff.

And all process, which in England would be directed to a Serjeant at Arms, shall accordingly, in this Court, in its Equitable Jurisdiction, be directed to, and executed by such Sheriff; and the Sheriff shall be entitled to, and may lawfully demand and receive for and in respect of such duties, and for and upon the execution of such process, the fees set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

2. That the Sheriff shall bring to the bar of the Court, every person arrested upon any Writ of Attachment, issuing out of this Court in its Equitable Jurisdiction, on the first day in which the Court shall sit in Equity, next after such arrest, or as soon afterwards as possible.

And every such person and his property shall be dealt with by Imprisonment and Sequestration, in like manner as persons and their property are dealt with, when brought to the bar of the High Court of Chancery, in England, by a Serjeant at Arms, for a like cause.

But this order is not to prevent the Sheriff from taking bail, for the appearance of the person arrested.

3. Upon the Sheriff's return of non est inventus, to an Attachment, the party suing out the same, upon affidavit that due diligence has been used in endeavouring to apprehend the person, and stating the facts of such endeavour,—shall be entitled to a Writ of Sequestration; in the same manner as a party in the High Court of Chancery in England was entitled to such Writ, upon the like return made by a Serjeant at Arms, in a like case, immediately prior to the year 1841.

4. That every Order or Decree, requiring any party to do an act, thereby ordered, shall state the time, (after service of such Decree or Order,) within which the act is to be done; and a copy of the Order or Decree shall be served upon the party required to obey the same, upon which shall be endorsed an intimation of the consequences of non-obedience thereto.

5. That no Writ of execution shall hereafter be issued, for the purpose of compelling obedience to any Order or Decree of the Court, in its Equitable Jurisdiction; but the party required by such Order or Decree to do any act, shall, upon being duly served with a copy of such Order or Decree, be held bound to do such act.

6. That no service of a copy of any Decree or Order obtained ex-parte shall be required, otherwise than as heretofore.

7. If any party, directed by an Order or Decree to pay money, (whether money only, or costs only, or money with costs,) shall, after due service of such Order or Decree, neglect to pay the same, as thereby directed, the party prosecuting such Order or Decree shall, at the expiration of the time limited for the performance thereof, be entitled to proceed for the recovery of the money thereby payable, in the manner directed by the Act of 5 Victoria, No. 9, section 43.

8. Provided that in respect to the payment of Costs, the Decree or Order shall have been drawn up specifying by and to whom the same shall be paid; and provided also, that the amount of such costs shall have been duly taxed, and payment thereof demanded from the party by whom payable, or his Solicitor; and that, before Execution for the same shall be issued, under the said Act, an affidavit shall be made of those facts.

9. When any party, who, by any Order or Decree, is ordered to deliver possession of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within a limited time, shall, after due service of such Decree or Order, refuse or neglect to obey the same, the party prosecuting such Order or Decree, shall (on proof made of demand and refusal to obey the same) be entitled to a Writ of Assistance.

10. Where any party, who by any Order or Decree, is ordered within a limited time, to do some act, other than to pay money or to deliver possession of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, shall, after due service of such Order or Decree, refuse or neglect to obey the same, according to the exigency thereof, the party prosecuting such Order or Decree, shall, at the expiration of the time so limited, be entitled to an Attachment.

11. Every person, not being a party in any cause, who shall have obtained an Order, or in whose favor any Order shall have been made, shall be entitled to enforce obedience to such Order by the same process as if he were a party to the cause, and every person not being a party in any cause, against whom obedience to any Order may be enforced, shall be liable to the same process for disobedience to such Order, as if he were a party to the cause.

12. That all Writs issued by the Court in its Equitable Jurisdiction, shall be sealed with the seal of the Office of, and be signed by, the Master in Equity, and tested in the name of the Chief Justice of the Court, for the time being.

13. That no Writ of Attachment, Sequestration, or Assistance, shall be issued without the special Order of the Court, in its Equitable Jurisdiction, to be obtained on Motion or Petition, with affidavit of the circumstances of the case; but it shall not be necessary to serve the person, against whom such Writ is sought to be issued, with notice of the Motion, or with a copy of such Petition.

14. That the Costs of all Writs issued by the Court, in its Equitable Jurisdiction, (when the same are issued for the recovery of money) shall be the same as on the issue of the like Writs at Common Law; and the Costs of all other Writs shall be the same as on the issue of the like Writs in the High Court of Chancery in England.
