It will be optional with parties to offer for one or more of the above lines of stages, and to propose the mode of conveyance; but on all roads where wheel vehicles can travel, a preference will be given to carriage conveyance, and the Contractors will be held strictly bound to use the conveyance they propose, and to travel at the rate agreed upon. The rate of travelling is not to be less than six miles per hour, including all stoppages. The Contractors are to carry all bags and letters which may be delivered to them under authority of the Postmaster-General, or any of the Postmasters, and to provide secure lockers for the Mails in carriages, and dry coverings for the bags on horseback.

All vehicles and horses employed in the conveyance of Mails, are to be at all times subject to the inspection and approval, or rejection of the Postmaster-General, or person appointed by him for that purpose.

The drivers and postmen are to be free men, and of certified good character.

All fines and penalties incurred under the agreement are to be deducted by the Postmaster-General from the next quarterly instalment falling due to the Contractor, and to be considered as over and above any penalties provided by any Act of Council.

Each party tendering or an Agent for him, must attend at this Office on the day appointed for opening the Tenders; and each Tender must bear the signatures of two respectable and solvent persons, willing to enter into a bond with the Contractor for the safety of the Mails, and the due performance of the Contract.

The hours of starting from each Post Office, and other particulars, may be ascertained at the General Post Office, where parties proposing to Tender are invited to seek information.

Printed forms of Tender may be had on application at the General and all other Post Offices throughout the Colony.

To the Sheriff of New South Wales, or his lawful Deputy, Greeting:—

WHEREAS, upon the Petition to the Honorable the Judges of our Supreme Court of New South Wales, of Thomas Murphy and James Lynch, of Sydney, in the Territory of New South Wales, builders, against John Jones, late of Sydney aforesaid, merchant, it appears to us, that the said John Jones is justly and truly indebted to the said Thomas Murphy and James Lynch, in the sum of ninety pounds and upwards, of lawful money, upon, and by virtue of a judgment of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, the said judgment having been obtained in a certain cause, tried in this Honorable Court, on the 2nd day of August last past, when the said Thomas Murphy and James Lynch obtained a verdict against the said John Jones, for the sum of eighty pounds, for certain work and labour done and performed for the said John Jones, by the said Thomas Murphy and James Lynch, and that by an order under the hand of His Honor Sir James Dowling, Knight, Chief Justice of this Honorable Court, dated the 15th day of August last past, His Honor did upon reading the Petition of Edward Flood, of Sydney, aforesaid, builder, shewing that the said John Jones was justly and truly indebted to the said Edward Flood, in the sum of two hundred and forty-seven pounds twelve shillings and five pence, of lawful money, for money paid and advanced by the said Edward Flood to the said John Jones, on account of a contemplated purchase by the said Edward Flood, from the said John Jones, of a portion of certain real Estate, which said real Estate the said John Jones had neglected, or was unable to purchase, and which said sum the said John Jones had absolutely promised to repay to the said Edward Flood, and that the said John Jones having real property within the Colony of New South Wales, did on or about the 2nd day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, by indenture of release, made between the said John Jones of the one part, and Samuel Lyons, of Sydney, aforesaid, auctioneer, of the other part, make a fraudulent mortgage of all or some of his Estate, consisting of land, part of the Camperdown Estate, in the said Colony, and did thereby commit an act of insolvency, and that the said John Jones having property personal or real within the said Colony, did, in one of the months of June, July, or August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, make by indenture a fraudulent alienation and transfer to Andrew Blowers Smith, William Dawes, and Edward Knox, of all or some part of his Estate, and did thereby commit another act of insolvency, and that the said John Jones having property personal or real, within the said Colony, did, on or about the 4th day of August instant, depart from the said Colony, with intent to defeat and delay the said Edward Flood and others, his Creditors, in obtaining payment of their debts, and did thereby commit another act of insolvency, and praying that the said Estate of the said John Jones might be sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors, and the said affidavit of the said Edward Flood, order that the Estate of the said John Jones should be placed under the hands of the Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates, at Sydney, until the same should by the said Court be adjudged to be sequestrated, or the said petition should be discharged according to law, and did thereby appoint the 30th day of August last past, for the said John Jones to appear before the said Court to shew cause why his Estate should not by sentence of the said Court be adjudged to be sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors; and that by an order under the hand of his Honor Mr. Justice Stephen, one of the Judges of the said Court, dated the eighteenth day of August last past, His Honor did (upon reading the affidavits of Edmund Burton, and in exercise of the power given by an Act made and passed by the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice of the Legislative Council thereof, in the Fifth year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for giving relief to insolvent persons, and providing for the due collection, administration, and distribution of insolvent estates, within the Colony of New South Wales, and for the prevention of frauds affecting the same," to the Judges of the Supreme Court, at Sydney, from time to time, to make such rules, orders, and regulations, for carrying that Act into effect, and also touching the form and manner of proceeding under the same, and of the power given by law to a single Judge of this Court, in vacation, to make such rules and orders as the whole Court only could make in term, and of any other power in anywise enabling him in that behalf,) order, that the service of the summons to the said John Jones, to shew cause why his estate should not, by sentence of the said Court, be adjudged to be sequestrated for the benefit of his creditors, should be made by delivering to or leaving at the place or places of abode of Mr. Andrew Blowers Smith, Mr. William Dawes, and Mr. Edward Knox, of the City of Sydney, who were alleged to be the attorneys of the said John Jones, or any of them, a true copy thereof, and inserting a true copy thereof in one publication of the Government Gazette of New South Wales, and that, so soon as the said service should have been so made as aforesaid, the said John Jones should be considered to have been lawfully and duly summoned to appear to the said summons, and to shew cause why his Estate should not be adjudged to be sequestrated, for the benefit of his creditors, and that within four days after such service the said John Jones should deliver to William Henry Kerr, Esquire, Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates, at Sydney, a statement in writing signed by him of any facts alleged in the said summons which he might intend to dispute, and all facts, no notice of an intention to dispute which should be so given should upon the hearing of the case be taken to be admitted by the said John Jones, and the Petitioning Creditor should not be required to prove the same and that the said summons was duly served on the said Andrew Blowers Smith, William Dawes, and Edward Knox, or one of them, and a copy thereof inserted in the Government Gazette, published on the eighteenth day of August last past, and that on the twenty-second day of August last, past, the said John Jones, by his said attorneys the said Andrew Blowers Smith, William Dawes, and Edward Knox, filed in the Office of the Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates a notice of his intention to dispute certain facts alleged against him by the said Edward Flood, and that the said John Jones did not appear before the said Court on the said thirtieth day of August, the day so appointed as aforesaid and the said Edward Flood appeared by his solicitor but made default in proving his said debt and the several acts of insolvency in his petition aforesaid alleged, so that in default of the proof of the matters aforesaid, the said Court did supersede the said order for sequestration and dismiss the said petition whereupon the said Thomas Murphy and James Lynch prayed that the said order for sequestration might be revived and that the said John Jones might be summoned to shew cause why his estate should not be adjudged to be sequestrated and that service of the said summons by delivering to or leaving at the residence of the said Andrew Blowers Smith, William Dawes and Edward Knox, or any one of them a true copy thereof, and also inserting a true copy thereof in the the Government Gazette, of New South Wales, should be deemed and held a good valid and lawful service on the said John Jones and that within four days after such service the said John Jones should be ordered to deliver to William Henry Kerr, Esquire, Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates, at Sydney, a statement in writing signed by him of any facts which might he intend to dispute, and that all facts no notice of an intention to dispute which should be so given, should upon the hearing of the case be taken to be admitted by the said John Jones, and that the Petitioning Creditors should not be required to prove same. And whereas it further appears to us in our said Court that the Honorable Sir James Dowling, Knight, Chief Justice of the said Court, did by order under his hand bearing date the twentieth day of September in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-three, order that at the order for the sequestration of the Estate of the said John Jones, be revived and that the said John Jones be summoned to shew cause why his estate should not be adjudged to be sequestrated and that service of the said summons by delivering to or leaving at the residence of the said Andrew Blowers Smith William Dawes, and Edward Knox, or any one of them a true copy thereof, and also inserting a true copy thereof in the Government Gazette, of New South Wales, shall be deemed and held a good valid and lawful service on the said John Jones, and that within four days after such service the said John Jones shall deliver to William Henry Kerr Esquire, Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates, at Sydney, a statement in writing signed by him, of any facts which he may intend to dispute, and that all facts no notice of an intention to dispute which shall be so given shall upon the hearing of the case be taken to be admitted by the said John Jones, and that the petitioning Creditors shall not be required to prove the same: Now therefore, we command you, that you Summon the said John Jones, that he be before our Justices of our Supreme Court aforesaid, on wednesday, the fourth day of October next, at Ten o'Clock in the fore-noon, to shew cause if he have any, why his Estate should not by sentence of the said Court be adjudged to be sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors, and return you then and
