PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GIPPS, Knight Captain General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS, by a certain Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the sixth year of the Reign of Her present Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled,
“An Act to amend the Law affecting Transported Convicts, with respect to Pardons and Tickets of Leave,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the said Act shall be proclaimed by the Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor, of every place to which Felons and Offenders have been, or now may be transported, by law, within six weeks after a copy of it shall have been received, and shall take effect in every such place from the day of the Proclamation thereof; Now, therefore, I, the Governor aforesaid, in pursuance of the directions in the said recited Act contained, do hereby proclaim and notify, that a copy of the said Act was received by me on this sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in a Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated the seventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three; and that the same will, accordingly, from the day of the date hereof, take effect and have the force of law within the said Territory of New South Wales and the Dependencies thereof.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Sydney, this 6th day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and in the seventh year of Her Majesty's Reign.

(L.s.) GEORGE GIPPS.

By His Excellency's Command,

E. DEAS THOMSON.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

ANNO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

CAP. VII.

An Act to amend the Law affecting transported Convicts, with respect to Pardons and Tickets of Leave. [3rd April, 1843.]

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled “An Act for abolishing the punishment of Death in certain cases, and substituting a lesser punishment in lieu thereof,” it is, among other things, enacted, that neither the Governor nor Lieutenant Governor of any Island, Colony, or Settlement, or any other person, shall give any Pardon or Ticket of Leave to any person sentenced to transportation, or who shall receive a Pardon on condition of transportation, or any order or permission to suspend or remit the labour of any such person, except in cases of illness, until such person, if transported for seven years, shall have served four; if transported for fourteen years, shall have served six; or, if transported for life, shall have served eight years, of labour; and that no such person shall be capable of acquiring or holding any property, or of bringing any action for the recovery of any property, until after such person shall have duly obtained a Pardon from the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of the Colony or Settlement in which he or she shall have been confined; provided that nothing therein contained shall in any manner affect His Majesty's Royal Prerogative of Mercy: And whereas it is expedient that the Law with respect to Pardons and Tickets of Leave should be amended; Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this presented Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that so much of the above recited Act as is hereinbefore recited, shall be repealed.

(Manner of granting Pardons.)

II. And be it enacted, That after the time when this Act shall take effect in any place to which felons and offenders have been or may be transported by Law, neither the Governor nor Lieutenant Governor of such place shall be empowered, as heretofore, to remit, either absolutely or conditionally, the whole or any part of the time for which any such felons or other offenders shall have been, or shall be hereafter transported to such place, but instead thereof, the Governor or Lieutenant Governor shall, from time to time, by an instrument in writing, under his Hand, recommend such felons or other offenders as he shall think fit to be recommended to Her Majesty, for an Absolute or Conditional Pardon; and in case Her Majesty shall, through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, signify Her approval of any such recommendation, it shall be lawful for the Governor or Lieutenant Governor to grant such Absolute or Conditional Pardon, pursuant to such instructions as shall be sent to him by the Secretary of State, by an instrument in writing, under the Seal of his Government, which shall be deemed, from the day of the date thereof, to have, within such place or places as shall be specified in such Pardon, but not elsewhere, the same effect in the Law, to all intents and purposes, as if a General, Absolute, or Conditional Pardon had passed on that day, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom.

(Holders of Tickets of Leave enabled to sue for personal property.)

III. And whereas the practice hath prevailed in those places to which felons and offenders have been transported by Law, of granting, in certain cases and on certain conditions, permission to such felons and offenders to employ themselves for their own benefit, (which permissions are usually called and known by the name of Tickets of Leave,) and it is just that they should be protected in their persons, and in the possession of such property as they may acquire by their industry, while holding such Tickets of Leave; Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every felon under sentence or order of transportation, who shall hold any such Ticket of Leave, notwithstanding his or her conviction of felony, to acquire and hold personal property, and to maintain any action or suit for the recovery of any personal property so acquired by him or her, and for any damage or injury sustained by him or her, in the Courts of the Colony, or place where such felon shall lawfully reside; and if the defendant, in any such action or suit, shall plead or allege, in his or her defence, the plaintiff's or complainant's conviction of felony, and the plaintiff or complainant shall allege and prove that he or she hath received, and doth still continue to hold, unrevoked, such a Ticket of Leave as aforesaid, a verdict shall pass and judgment shall be given for the plaintiff or complainant: Provided always, That whenever such Ticket of Leave shall be revoked, all property so acquired by any such felon shall vest absolutely in Her Majesty, and shall be disposed of at the discretion of the Governor or Lieutenant Governor, subject to such instructions as shall be, from time to time, sent to him by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

IV. Provided always, and be it declared and enacted, That no felon under sentence of transportation, who shall hold a Ticket of Leave, shall be capable of acquiring or holding any estate in lands or tenements, other than as tenant for years, or for some less term or estate, determinable in each case, upon the revocation of the Ticket of Leave, until after such felon shall have duly obtained an Absolute or Conditional Pardon, from the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of the place to which he shall have been so transported, pursuant to the provisions hereinbefore contained.

(Commencement of Act.)

V. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be proclaimed, by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of every place to which felons and offenders have been or now may be transported by Law, within six weeks after a copy of it shall have been received by him, and shall take effect, in every such place, from the day of the proclamation thereof; and in case Her Majesty shall be pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to appoint any new place or places beyond the seas, to which felons and other offenders, under sentence or order of transportation, may be conveyed, this Act shall take effect in every such place, from the time of such appointment.

(Act may be amended.)

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this session of Parliament.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GIPPS, Knight, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the Fifth and Sixth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for the government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land," and in pursuance of the power delegated to me, by Her Majesty, in that behalf, I did, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of the Colony, appoint certain persons to be Members of the Legislative Council, by the said Act established; And whereas Richard Jones, Esquire, one of the persons named in such Letters Patent, hath, by a writing under his hand, addressed to me, resigned his Seat in the said Legislative Council:—Now, I, SIR GEORGE GIPPS, the Governor aforesaid, do hereby proclaim, that, in pursuance of the authority in me vested, I have, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of the Colony, bearing even date herewith, appointed ROBERT LOWE, Esquire, Barrister at Law, to be a Member of the said Legislative Council, in lieu of the said Richard Jones, Esquire, and until Her Majesty's pleasure shall be known.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Sydney, this seventh day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and in the seventh year of Her Majesty's Reign.
