TO THE BENEVOLENT AND AFFLUENT.

THE subscriber begs to solicit the public in aid of a widow and seven children, whose destitute situation has induced him to undertake the erection of a "Shieling" on a small piece of ground which has been purchased for her by a few benevolent individuals. The case is that of a Mrs. Hennesy, living at Richmond, whose husband died about twelve months ago, leaving her with seven female children depending on her exertions for support, her health being occasionally very indifferent. Three months ago, mere chance brought the poor woman's case to the subscriber's knowledge, and from its decided nature he resolved upon erecting a home for the widow and the fatherless, taking his chance of being assisted by his friends and the public, on whom he will call personally in a few days, and will be glad to accept the merest trifle on her behalf.
