To Let,

THE HOUSE now occupied by the undersigned near the Flag-staff hill, and adjoining the residence of James Cain, Esq. consists of nine rooms, besides store rooms, kitchen detached, stable, outhouses, and garden; has a fine view of the bay, and is well adapted for a large family.

G. W. COLE,

NOTICE.

ALL parties indebted to the undersigned, are hereby informed, that unless they settle their accounts within one month from this date, they will be put into the hands of a man of business for recovery.

PHILLIP ANDERSON,
Commercial Inn, Melbourne,
27th of May, 1843.

TO LET for a moderate rent, that house in Little Bourke-street at the top of the Western Hill; or that commodious house in La Trobe street, adjoining the residence of Capt. McLachlan, and fronting the flag staff. These houses are well finished and pleasantly situated, and the former of these has a yard, stable, and gig-house, which may be had if required. Apply to—

JOHN RANKIN.

Registry Office for Servants,
COLLINS-STREET,

(Adjoining the Commercial Inn.)

MICHAEL MISKELL

RESPECTFULLY intimates to the Inhabitants of the Province, that he has opened an office for the Registry of

MASTERS REQUIRING SERVANTS,

AND

SERVANTS REQUIRING MASTERS.

Parties not making personal application, must do so in writing, (forwarded post free), stating the number and particular description of Servants required, the length of service, and the amount of wages and rations. An agreement will be prepared conformably to the instructions given, and a Book of Record will be kept of every engagement for reference at any future period. Parties residing in the Bush, must forward an Order upon their Agent for the purpose of procuring sufficient rations to enable their servants to reach their stations, but no charge will be made to the Master for obtaining him Servants.

Servants of all descriptions, having a good character will here readily meet with engagements at the highest rate of wages.

HORSE BAZAAR.

MR. KIRK, in expressing to the Gentlemen of Port Phillip his grateful sense of the liberal patronage bestowed upon him as an Auctioneer in Melbourne, begs to inform them that in consequence of his country avocations requiring considerable personal attention, he is forced to relinquish that branch of his business. He has, however, for the accommodation of those having Horses, Cattle, or sheep for sale, by auction, made arrangements with Messrs Carrara and Bland, Auctioneers and Commission agents, to hold weekly sales at the Bazaar. The same attention shall be bestowed upon stock of all descriptions, placed in their hands which secured, for Mr Kirk the patronage of so large a body of the Settlers and Squatters.

A Book will be at the Bazaar for the insertion of stock for sale.

The Livery of Horses sent for unreserved Sale will be charged at three shillings and sixpence per night only.

CARRARA AND BLAND

In reference to the above advertisement, beg to intimate to the Public of this Province, that in furtherance of the arrangement entered into with Mr. Kirk, they will hold a Sale of Horse Stock on each Friday, at the Bazaar, and of cattle and sheep, at the cattle yards, on each Wednesday.

The Auctioneers need only refer to the admirable accommodation afforded at the Bazaar for Horses, to the situation of the Bazaar, as well as its being the general rendezvous of the Gentlemen from the Bush, and to the charge for the Livery of Horses sent in to be sold, to ensure a continuation of the patronage shown to Mr Kirk.

C. & B. are desirous that all horses, &c. sent in should be for unreserved sale, in order that parties who attend from the country to purchase stock may not be disappointed.

Their first sale of horses will be held on FRIDAY next.

AUCTIONEERING.

MR. JOHN LEWIS CRABB, late of Campbell Town and South Australia, auctioneer, begs to leave to acquaint his friends and the public that he has taken rooms and premises adjoining Mr Crossley, in Collins-street, opposite Messrs Forster and Davis, which he will open in a few days as an Auction Mart, when he will submit to public competition a variety of merchandise, which particulars will be given in a future advertisement.

J. L. C. further wishes to acquaint his friends and the public that nothing shall be wanting on his part to ensure their confidence; his prompt and business-like habits, added to his long colonial experience, will, he trusts, obtain for him a share of public patronage.

Melbourne, 24th May, 1843.

TOBACCO STEMS:

WANTED to purchase a bale of Tobacco stems. Apply, personally to, J. E. T. TIMES, Office.

Royal Hotel:

JOHN WILLIAM COWELL, grateful to his numerous friends and the public, for the very extensive support which he has received since his commencement in business, respectfully informs them that he has this day, May 1st, 1843, considerably reduced the prices of every article at his establishment, and flatters himself that such charges as he now makes will ensure every satisfaction to gentlemen or families who may be pleased to favour him with their patronage.

J. W. C. having lately converted one entire portion of his extensive establishment into private apartments, where gentlemen or families will be in perfect seclusion, and no gentlemen however respectable, will for the future be admitted whose habits are not quiet and orderly.

J. W. C. has also added to his establishment, a first-rate Billiard table by Thurston, but is totally distinct from the Hotel, so that not the slightest annoyance can arise from the former, to those who may reside in the latter.

Capital stabling, where gentlemen leaving their horses may feel satisfied that every care is taken of them, and at considerably reduced prices, viz. 4s per night.
