NOTICE.Great Reduction in Prices of Wines.

THE undersigned is determined on disposing of his large stock of wines at unusually low prices, instead of one hundred per cent. profit hitherto charged by other houses, he will be satisfied with considerably less, being convinced that quick sales with small profit is far preferable to slow sales and large profits, besides increasing the consumption of an article so requisite in this climate, and which too many are compelled to do without, owing to the extravagant prices, which are fully equal to those at home, where the duties are upwards of seventy per cent. more than they are in this colony.

OPPOSITE THE COMMERCIAL INN, COLLINS-STREET

MRS. HART.

HAVING just arrived from London, has opened the above premises, and engaged the most able assistants in the above branches; which added to her own experience of several years' practice at the West-end of the metropolis, makes her confident will meet with the approval of the ladies of Melbourne.

Mrs. H. begs particularly to call attention to her method of dressing and altering Tuscan bonnets and hats on an IMPROVED SYSTEM, giving the ARTICLES THE APPEARANCE OF NEW.

THE GOLDEN TEA CANISTER!!!

Cheapside House.

COLLINS-STREET.

To Families, Innkeepers, and Large Consumers of

TEA AND COFFEE.

At a time when Monopoly has ceased in the Tea trade and competition has risen on its ruins, each individual Tea-dealer feels himself called upon to state by what claims he enjoys the public patronage, or the preference of the support of society at large.

Actuated by these motives, and being a long time in business, the undersigned begs to inform the inhabitants of Melbourne and the surrounding neighbourhood, that he has lately bought some very fine tea, coffee, sugar, and every other article connected with the Grocery Business, which he intends selling very LOW FOR CASH.

G. S.—Puts forth his claims for public patronage on the grounds of fair competition, honorable dealing, and on the score of cheap selling and intrinsic good qualities of his articles; no house, whatever their pretensions may be, can undersell him, on these grounds he solicits their confidence and support.

G. S. claims no extraordinary pretensions, his motto being "a fair field and no favor," he asks for their custom because it will be of mutual advantage both to buyer and seller; he therefore solicits only a fair trial, that by the quality and cheapness of his articles his claims may be tested.

The following is expressly recommended:—

BLACK TEAS BUT NOT DAMAGED!!!

Superior souphong
Ditto caper
Fine breakfast congou
Strong family congou, strongly recommended to large consumers.

GREEN TEAS AND NOT DAMAGED!!!

Gunpowder
Twankay
Hyson-skin
Hyson bloom
Hyson kind strongly recommended with congou as a mixture.

COFFEE.

From the reduction in this article and the recent importations, he is enabled to offer to the public a rich mellow flavoured article superior to any other establishment.

GEORGE SAY.

Cheapside House,
Collins-street.

G. S. begs to inform the public of Melbourne that he never received into his shop any of the damaged tea sold in Sydney for thirty-five shillings per chest, which has been imported by some of the grocers in Melbourne, and who have been selling the same article at Two Shillings and Sixpence per lb!!! The teas which he has now on-sale are those imported by the LORD ELDON and LADY ST. KILDA of 1843!!! Come and judge for yourselves, one trial will make you call again at the GOLDEN CANISTER.

THE KILMORE INN.

THE above property, situated forty miles from Melbourne, on the Sydney Road, to be sold or exchanged for sheep. Apply to

WM. & H. BARNES & CO.

NOTICE.

ALL parties indebted to the undersigned, are hereby informed, that unless they settle their accounts within one month from this date, they will be put into the hands of a man of business for recovery.

Commercial Inn, Melbourne,
27th of May, 1843.

HORSE BAZAAR.

MR. KIRK, in expressing to the Gentlemen of Port Phillip his grateful sense of the liberal patronage bestowed upon him as an Auctioneer in Melbourne, begs to inform them that in consequence of his country avocations requiring considerable personal attention, he is forced to relinquish that branch of his business. He has, however, for the accommodation of those having Horses, Cattle, or sheep for sale by auction, made arrangements with Messrs. Cairfrae and Bland, Auctioneers and Commission agents, to hold weekly sales at the Bazaar. The same attention shall be bestowed upon stock of all descriptions placed in their hands which secured for Mr. Kirk the patronage of so large a body of the Settlers and Squatters.

A Book will be at the Bazaar for the insertion of stock for sale.

The Livery of Horses sent for unreserved Sale will be charged at three shillings and sixpence per night only.

CAIRFRAE AND BLAND

In reference to the above advertisement, beg to intimate to the Public of this Province, that in furtherance of the arrangement entered into with Mr. Kirk, they will hold a Sale of Horse Stock on each Friday, at the Bazaar, and of cattle and sheep, at the cattle yards, on each Wednesday.

The Auctioneers need only refer to the admirable accommodation afforded at the Bazaar for Horses, to the situation of the Bazaar, as well as its being the general rendezvous of the Gentlemen from the Bush, and to the charge for the Livery of Horses sent in to be sold, to ensure a continuation of the patronage shewn to Mr. Kirk.

C. & B. are desirous that all horses, &c. sent in should be for unreserved sale, in order that parties who attend from the country to purchase stock may not be disappointed.

Royal Hotel.

JOHN WILLIAM COWELL, grateful to his numerous friends and the public, for the very extensive support which he has received since his commencement in business, respectfully informs them that he has this day, May 1st, 1843, considerably reduced the prices of every article at his establishment, and flatters himself that such charges as he now makes will ensure every satisfaction to gentlemen or families who may be pleased to favour him with their patronage.

J. W. C. having lately converted one entire portion of his extensive establishment into private apartments, where gentlemen or families will be in perfect seclusion; and no gentlemen however respectable, will for the future be admitted whose habits are not quiet and orderly.

J. W. C. has also added to his establishment, a first-rate Billiard table by Thurston, but is totally distinct from the Hotel, so that not the slightest annoyance can arise from the former to those who may reside in the latter.

Capital stabling, where gentlemen leaving their horses may feel satisfied that every care is taken of them, and at considerably reduced prices, viz, 4s per night,
