Sales by Auction.

SHEEP, BULLOCKS, &c., FOR POSITIVE SALE.

MESSRS. CARFRAE & BLAND, HAVE received instructions from the Assignees of Mr. Joseph Linton's estate, to sell by auction at their Room, in Collins-street, THIS DAY, the 28th instant, at one o'clock,

Eight hundred and fifty wethers.

Eight hundred and seventy ewes with three hundred lambs, station, huts and hurdles given in.

ALSO, FOR SALE,

Six working bullocks and dray.

An excellent mare, spring cart.

Two ploughs, two harrows, a flour mill and twenty pigs.

The Auctioneers would call the attention of gentlemen about to invest capital in the staple commodity of the Colony to this sale. The Mount Eliza stations situated about seventy miles from Geelong, are of great extent, being capable of running 5000 sheep, well watered and most beautifully situated. On the head station are erected good substantial huts, an extensive and excellent garden has been formed, a paddock of 26 acres, inclosed and cultivated.

TAXES—Thirty per cent deposit, remainder within one month from the day of sale.

IMPORTANT SALE OF HORSES.

BRODIE & CRUIKSHANK

Have received instructions from William Hamilton, Esquire, of the Sugar Loaf Creek, to submit to public competition, at the Lamb Inn, on MONDAY, 3rd July, at twelve o'clock,

TELEVEN to fifteen mares and geldings, being a portion of his well-known stud, and from the attention which Mr Hamilton has paid to the improvement of his stock, the auctioneers have the greatest confidence in calling the attention of intending purchasers to this sale.

TERMS—Approved bills at three months.

VALUABLE PROPERTY IN MELBOURNE TO BE SOLD UNDER POWER OF SALE IN MORTGAGE SECURITY.

BRODIE AND CRUIKSHANK

Have received peremptory instructions from the Mortgagor, to sell, by public auction, upon the ground, on TUESDAY, the 11th day of July next, at one o'clock, afternoon,

THE following valuable town property, now in the occupation of Robert Deane, Esq., Solicitor.

"All that piece or parcel of land, being a portion of allotment No. 19, section number 14, in the government chart of the town of Melbourne, commencing at the south west corner of said allotment, bounded by William-street, and running in a direct line along that street to the northward 31 feet 9 inches, then by a line at right angles with William-street aforesaid, running easterly 80 feet, then by a line parallel with William-street, running southerly 31 feet 9 inches, and then by a line unbounded by Little Collins-street, 80 feet to the commencing corner. And also, all that piece or parcel of land containing a frontage of 20 feet to William-street aforesaid, commencing from the last mentioned piece or parcel of 31 feet 9 inches, (making together frontage of 51 feet 9 inches to William-street,) the same being a portion of another section of said allotment No. 19, block 14, together with the buildings &c. thereon.

The premises now consist of an elegant large and substantial new (brick built) dwelling house, fronting Church Square, together with office, out houses, and other premises, having an entry from Little Collins-street, the whole fitted up in the best style and suitable either for the residence of a private family, or for professional gentlemen.

The situation of this property is decidedly one of the best in Melbourne, and will at all times command attention.

The title is unexceptionable, and may be seen at the writing chambers of Mr. J. H. Ross, Solicitor, Little Collins-street, who will give any information required, as to terms of sale, and which will be found liberal.
