FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1844.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GIPPS, Knight, Captain-General, and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the GOVERNOR of New South Wales, with the advice of the Legislative Council, passed in the second year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for repealing so much of an Act, intituled, 'An Act ' to continue until further provisions shall be made, ' certain Duties, Tolls, Rates, Fees, or other sums ' of money imposed by the Governor of New South ' Wales, and for other purposes, as relates to the ' levying of Tolls in New South Wales, and for ' raising a fund towards making, repairing, and ' upholding Public Roads, Bridges and Ferries, and ' for regulating the collection of Tolls thereon," it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of the said Colony for the time being, by any Proclamation or Proclamations under his hand, from time to time to appoint places at which Tolls shall be collected, and to cause the same to be collected upon any line of Road which has been or shall be wholly or partly made, and which is repaired at the public expense; and to cause Toll to be collected at any Bridge built, purchased, or repaired at the public expense, and at any Ferry, constructed or upheld at the same, and to cause such Gates, Bars, Chains, Rails, and Fences, to be built and set up, as shall be deemed necessary for preventing Passengers, Beasts, and Carriages, from passing, unless there shall be then paid such Toll as shall be due or demandable under the authority of the said recited Act; and whereas, by Proclamations, bearing date respectively, the 20th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two; the 8th day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; the 31st day of July, one thousand eight hundred and forty; and the 3rd day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, certain places were appointed for the collection of certain Tolls, whereat they have been collected; and it has become necessary to appoint a place on the Brisbane River, between Kangaroo Point and North Brisbane, Moreton Bay, for that purpose: Now, I, the Governor, aforesaid, in pursuance of the authority vested in me by the said recited Law of Ordinance, do, by this my Proclamation, appoint the crossing on the Brisbane River, between Kangaroo Point and North Brisbane, Moreton Bay, to be a place in addition to those formerly named, at which a Ferry shall be established, and at which Tolls shall be collected, to the amount, and under the regulations, restrictions and provisions of the said recited Ordinance, of which Ferry, all persons concerned, are hereby required to take due notice, according to the provisions of the said recited Law or Ordinance.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Sydney, this eleventh day of November, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and in the eighth year of Her Majesty's Reign:

SUPREME COURT, PORT PHILLIP.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR directs it to be notified, that in pursuance of the provisions of the Act of the Colonial Legislature, 4 Victoria, No. 22, intituled, "An Act for the more effectual administration of Justice in New South Wales, and its Dependencies," the following General Rules of the Supreme Court at Port Phillip, have been transmitted to His Excellency, from His Honor the Resident Judge, and will be forwarded as soon as conveniently may be to the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, for Her Majesty's approval or disallowance thereof.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

In the Supreme Court of New South Wales, for the District of Port Phillip.

Saturday, the 12th day of October, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

It is this day ordered that the 28th General Rule regulating the routine of business of this Court be repealed, and that the following Rule be substituted in lieu thereof:—

That the Court shall sit for the hearing and disposing of motions on the first and last days of every term, and on every Tuesday and Saturday, during the term, when not the second day of term, and will also hear motions of course; and motions of special exigency on any day at the sitting or rising of the Court; that every Thursday, during term, when not the first, second, or last day thereof, shall be specially appropriated for business in the Equity and Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of the Court, and that every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, unless any such days should be the first day of term, shall, during the first two weeks to be computed from the commencement of the term, be days for hearing causes to be tried before the Resident Judge by a jury of four persons, and during the remainder of the term, except any of them be the last day of term, be days for the trial of causes by twelve special or common jurors; and that all causes to be tried by juries, which shall not have been disposed of during the term, shall be tried and determined in such order and on such days after each term as the Judge shall direct.

That the 51st General Rule be repealed, and that the following be substituted in lieu thereof:—

That in all actions upon bills of exchange and promissory notes, where any defendant, after being duly served with process or arrested thereon, as the case may be, shall fail to appear or put in bail thereto according to the exigency of such process; and file his plea, demurrer, or defence, within the time limited, the plaintiff may sign judgment by default, in the manner prescribed of the 21st Rule of Court, 4th October, 1843, and thereupon apply to the "Deputy Registrar," or officer of the Court for an appointment to compute principal and interest on the said bill of exchange, or promissory note upon which the said action is brought; and the said Deputy Registrar or other officer, shall, at the time appointed, compute principal and interest thereon; and upon the amount being so ascertained as aforesaid, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to tax his costs, sign final judgment, and sue out execution thereon; and no such cause shall be set down for assessment of damages.

That the 52nd General Rule be repealed, and in lieu thereof, that the following Rule be substituted:—

That within four days after the declaration shall be filed the defendant in such action shall file his plea (whether in bar or in abatement,) demurrer or defence to such action, in the Office of this Court, and the defendant shall in all cases be bound to abide by such plea, demurrer, or defence, without any motion or Rule for such purpose; and the Deputy Registrar shall mark on the back of such plea, demurrer, or defence, the day whereon the same was filed, and also minute the same in the Action Book; and as often as the general issue only be pleaded, the cause shall thereupon be deemed to be at issue, without any similitur or other proceeding; and in every plea alleging a right of way, the direction and course thereof shall be described by reference to a chart to be annexed thereto.

That the 53rd General Rule be repealed, and in lieu thereof that the following Rule be substituted:—

That in all cases where any defendant after being duly served with such process as aforesaid, or arrested thereon, as the case may be, shall fail to appear or put in bail thereto according to the exigency thereof, and file his plea, demurrer, or defence, within the time hereby limited, the plaintiff may sign judgment by default, in the manner prescribed in the 21st Rule of Court, of 4th October, 1843, and may thereupon set down his cause for assessment of damages, at the time appointed for such purpose, or proceed to compute principal and interest if such action be brought upon a bill of exchange or promissory note, and final judgment may be forthwith signed according to the course and practice of the Court: Provided that the Judge of the Court may, upon sufficient cause being shewn upon affidavit, allow further time for pleading in any particular case, by order to be made for such purpose, and under such terms as may be deemed equitable: Provided also, that in all cases where the plaintiff shall amend his declaration after the same has been pleaded to, the defendant shall within four days after such amendment and notice thereof plead thereto.

That the proviso annexed to the 57th General Rule be repealed, and in lieu thereof that the following be substituted:—

Provided that no more than six defended causes shall be entered for trial before a Jury of four persons on any one day, until that number shall be set down for every day appointed for the trial of defended issues before such Juries; and when the above number shall be entered for each day as aforesaid, the same may be increased to nine, and after nine causes shall be entered for each and every day, the said number may be increased to twelve: Provided always, that if the whole number of causes entered for any one day, shall not be called on, the same shall be put at the top of the cause paper of the following day.

That the 58th General Rule be repealed, and in lieu thereof that the following Rule be substituted:—

That all causes to be tried by a Jury of twelve persons, be entered for trial on each successive day appointed for the trial thereof, and that no more than four causes be set down for any one day, until that number shall be entered for each day as aforesaid, and then the same may be increased to six: Provided that if the whole number of causes entered for any one day shall not be called on for trial, the same shall be put at the top of the cause paper for the following day.

That the 62nd General Rule be repealed.

That the 63rd General Rule be repealed, and in lieu thereof, that the following rule be substituted:—

That applications for a trial by a Jury of twelve persons, shall be made by motion in open Court, on a short affidavit, setting forth the nature of the action, and that the cause is at issue, and in all cases a Rule shall be awarded absolute in the first instance, for a trial by such Jury, unless the other party shall shew that the justice of the case will not be met by that mode of trial.

That the 64th General Rule be repealed, and that the following be substituted in lieu thereof:—

That in all cases where issue shall be joined in vacation, application for a trial by a common Jury of twelve persons, shall be made on the first day of the Term, next after issue joined, and if issue shall be joined during Term, then on the next convenient motion day after such issue shall be so joined, and the party applying shall, at least twenty-four hours before application shall be made, give a written notice thereof to the adverse party; and if the party moving for such common Jury, shall intend to make the same a special Jury of twelve persons, such intention shall be expressed in the said notice; and in all cases where such common Jury only shall be moved for, and the adverse party shall intend to apply that same be made a special Jury as aforesaid, such application shall be made on the same day on which the Court shall have granted a common Jury as aforesaid, and to prevent such applications from being postponed the same shall take precedence of all other business.

That the 65th General Rule of this Court be and the same is hereby repealed, and that the following Rule be substituted in lieu thereof:—

That general writs of Venire Facias, in the respective forms, in the Appendix hereunto annexed, shall, from time to time, as the Court shall order, be made out and delivered to the Deputy Sheriff, for summoning Jurors to be summoned for the trial of issues of fact, or assessment of damages in civil causes, pursuant to the provisions of the Act, 8 Vic., No. 4.

That the 67th General Rule of this Court be repealed, and that the following be substituted in lieu thereof:—

That in all cases other than actions on bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or debt on bond, when the judgment by default is final, if the defendant shall neglect to appear, and plead as directed by the before-mentioned rules; the plaintiff may set down his case for assessment of damages on the second day of Term: Provided the defendant's time for pleading shall have expired in sufficient time for that purpose, and if such time shall not have expired, then such cause may be set down for any day appointed for the trial of defended causes before Jurors of four persons; Provided also, that when a defendant shall intend to appear on such assessment by Counsel, he shall give the plaintiff or his attorney four clear days notice of such intention.

W. JEFFCOTT,
Resident Judge.
