PROVISIONS, &c., SYDNEY.

THE Contractor for furnishing Supplies, &c., for the Colonial Service, in the District of Sydney, having, according to agreement, given three months' notice that his Contract will terminate on the 31st of October next; Notice is hereby given, that Tenders will be received at this Office until Monday, the 16th September next, at 12 o'clock, for furnishing, from the 1st November to the 31st December, 1844, both days inclusive, the required Supplies; the particulars of which, and the conditions, are specified in the notice from this Office, dated 2nd October, 1843;—No. 3 ration being supplied to the Apprentices to the Government Printer instead of No. 8 ration, vegetables being substituted for tobacco.

The Terms at which the present Contract was accepted will be found detailed in the Government Gazette, of the 23rd February, 1844.

Persons tendering, or their Agents, are requested to attend at this Office on the day appointed for opening the tenders.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 5th September, 1844.*

REWARD OF £100, OR A FREE PARDON.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Government, that Mr. George Barber, of Glenrock, in the county of Argyle, has disappeared, under circumstances which afford grounds for belief that he has been murdered on his way from Goulburn to his own residence, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that, in addition to the Reward of one hundred pounds, offered by the relatives of Mr. Barber, application will be made to Her Majesty, for the allowance of a Conditional Pardon, to any prisoner of the Crown (except the perpetrator of the supposed murder) who may afford such information as may lead to the conviction of the guilty parties; and that should the circumstances of the case and the nature of the information be such as to warrant the granting of further indulgence to such prisoner of the Crown, application will be made for Her Majesty's allowance to him of a Free Pardon.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD.

WHEREAS George Barber, Esq., of Glenrock, Argyle, recently mysteriously disappeared, and there is every reason to apprehend that he has met his death by violence, while on his way home from Goulburn.

The above reward of One Hundred Pounds will be paid to any person or persons (the actual perpetrator excepted) who will afford such information as may lead to the conviction of the guilty parties.

Or for any information that may lead to the discovery of Mr. Barber's remains, or satisfactory evidence that he has met his death by accident, Twenty five Pounds Reward will be paid by

HAMILTON HUME.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 22nd August, 1844.*

PORT PHILLIP.

From and to Yass, Gundagai, Albury, Ovens, Seymour, Kilmore, and Melbourne, once a week, for the whole distance, or separately for portions of the Road.

Separate Tenders will be received at the same time for Conveyance of the Port Phillip Mail twice a week, it being deemed expedient to increase the facilities of communication by post between the Sydney and Melbourne Districts, if eligible offers for this service can be obtained.

It is to be understood that the Mails are to be dispatched on the days and hours to be fixed by the Postmaster-General, either according to the present arrangement, or as he may afterwards determine for the public convenience.

It will be optional with parties to offer for one or more of the above lines of stages, and to propose the mode of conveyance; but on all roads where wheel vehicles can travel, a preference will be given to carriage conveyance, and the Contractors will be held strictly bound to use the conveyance they propose, and to travel at the rate agreed upon. The rate of travelling is not to be less than six miles per hour, including all stoppages. The Contractors are to carry all bags and letters which may be delivered, to them under authority of the Postmaster-General, or any of the Postmasters, and to provide secure lockers for the Mails in carriages, and dry coverings for the bags on horseback.

Contractors will be bound to prevent the conveyance of any letter or packet, by any of their servants, or passengers, or otherwise, to the prejudice of the Post Office Revenue, under a penalty of £5 for each and every offence.

Contractors will be liable to a fine of five shillings for every five minutes delay after the specified time of starting; and to a like penalty for every ten minutes delay after the specified time of arrival, except for the first five and ten minutes respectively.

A Mail Cart or Carriage, drawn only by one horse, must not carry more than one passenger; by two horses, not more than three passengers; and by three or more horses, not more than six passengers, exclusive of the driver, under a penalty of £3 for each offence, on all roads except between Melbourne and Yass, and on that road the penalty will be £10.

All vehicles and horses employed in the conveyance of Mails, are to be at all times subject to the inspection and approval, or rejection of the Postmaster-General, or person appointed by him for that purpose.

The drivers and postmen are to be free men, and of certified good character.

All fines and penalties incurred under the agreement are to be deducted by the Postmaster-General from the next quarterly instalment falling due to the Contractor, and to be considered as over and above any penalties provided by any Act of Council.

Each party tendering or an agent for him, must attend at this Office on the day appointed for opening the Tenders; and each Tender must bear the signatures of two respectable and solvent persons, willing to enter into a bond with the Contractor for the safety of the Mails and the due performance of the Contract.

The hours of starting from each Post Office, and other particulars, may be ascertained at the General Post Office, where parties proposing to Tender are invited to seek information.

Printed forms of Tender may be had on application at the General and all other Post Offices throughout the Colony.

By His Excellency's Command,

E. DEAS THOMSON.
