TOWN OF MELBOURNE.
CONDELL, MAYOR.

I, WILLIAM KERR, Alderman of Bourke Ward, in the town of Melbourne, do hereby give notice, that in pursuance of the authority vested in me by Bye-law No. 4, of the Town Council of Melbourne, intituled "A Bye-law for regulating the proceedings at future elections of Councillors, Auditors, or Assessors," I will preside at a meeting of the burgesses of Bourke Ward, to be holden at

The Crown Inn, Lonsdale-street, this day, the 9th instant, at twelve o'clock, noon, for the nomination of a fit and proper person to fill the vacancy in the office of Assessor for Bourke Ward, caused by the insolvency of Benjamin Baxter, Esq., and if there be at such meeting more than one candidate proposed, I will call for a show of hands separately in favor of each candidate, and declare on whom the election has fallen, and make my return accordingly, unless a poll is demanded, in which case the polling will take place on such day and at such place as I shall then appoint.

WILLIAM KERR,
Alderman, Bourke Ward.
