Rewards for Discovery of Illicit Distillation.

WITH reference to the Notice from this Office, of date the 8th December, 1842, relative to the Rewards for discovery of Illicit Distillation; His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that, in future, the amount to be paid under the same will be a sum of not less than Twenty Pounds, nor more than Fifty Pounds, to be determined by His Excellency, according to the circumstances of each case, and the value of the seizure. In all other respects that Notice, which is now re-published for more convenient reference, will remain in force.

By His Excellency's command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Sydney, 8th December, 1842.

Rewards for Discovery of Illicit Distillation.

His Excellency the Governor is pleased to direct it to be notified, that a Reward of Fifty Pounds will be paid to any person who, either directly or indirectly, may give information to any Inspector of Distilleries, or other Officer of Government, leading to the seizure of an unlicensed Still in any part of the Colony; or information leading to the conviction of any person engaged either as a principal or authorised agent in a licensed Distillery, or rectifying establishment, of any offence against the laws which exist for their regulation; or to the discovery of any practices in, or connected with, such establishments by which the Revenue is defrauded.

The Governor further directs it to be notified, that if the person giving the information be a Prisoner of the Crown, His Excellency will take into his most favorable consideration the claim of such person, for the highest indulgence which can, with propriety be granted to him.

The rewards and indulgences held out by this notice will, moreover, be in addition to the share in any seizure which the informer may be entitled to by the law of the Colony.

By His Excellency's command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.
