Overland Mail to Port Fairy.

A CONTRACT having been arranged for conveyance of a Mail to and from Port Fairy, branching from the Portland line of road at Mr. Wylaski's station, on the Hopkin's River; notice is hereby given, that the Mail for Port Fairy will in future be despatched from Melbourne every Saturday Evening with the Portland Mail, and a return Mail will arrive at Melbourne every Friday afternoon.

The Mail will reach Port Fairy every Thursday at noon, and one is to be despatched thence every Monday at noon.

HENRY D. KEMP,
Postmaster.

Post Office, Melbourne,
22nd July, 1844.

Unpaid Letter-Boxes.

THE Public are hereby informed that Two Unpaid Receiving Boxes for Letters, have been established in the town—one at the Police-office in the Market-square, and one at the Watch-house in Stevens-street.

These Boxes will be visited and emptied, by Messengers from the Post-office, daily—Sundays excepted.

At 8 o'clock in the morning, and at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, or immediately before each town delivery.

Letters deposited here will accordingly reach their destination equally as quick as if sent to the Post-office, provided only that they be left here to meet the hours given.

Letters upon which the postage is to be paid, must, however, still be sent to the Post-office.

HENRY D. KEMP, Postmaster.
Post-office, Melbourne,
July 8th, 1844.

New Post Offices.

NOTICE is hereby given that, under sanction of His Excellency the Governor, Post-Offices have been established at the following places, viz:—

On the Sydney Road.

AT SEYMOUR, on the Goulburn River; Gilbert Nicol to be Postmaster.

On the Portland Road.

AT BALLAN, on the Weirbee River; R. W. Steiglitz, to be Postmaster.

AT THE GRANGE; William Russell, to be Postmaster.

The Melbourne Mail from and to Seymour will be received and despatched every Saturday with the Sydney Mail.

Mails from Portland, and that line of Road, will be received at Melbourne every Friday by two o'clock, p. m.; and Mails from Melbourne, for the Portland line, will be closed every Saturday at half-past five o'clock p. m.

Parties wishing to receive their Letters and Newspapers through either one of the above Post-offices, should particularly caution their correspondents to address communications to the office desired, distinctly by its name, because private localities, in their relative position to the different Post-offices, cannot be sufficiently known at distant Stations, to give to the Post-office Department a sufficient guide for ensuring direct transmission.

HENRY D. KEMP, Postmaster.
Post-office, Melbourne,
July 8, 1844.

NOTE.—His Excellency has also been pleased to authorise the establishment of Post-offices at Mount Emu, and at the Hopkins River, on the Portland Road, which only await the selection of Postmasters to be put into operation.
